PARSONS' RECITAL

The beautiful grounds of the Wm. J. Lakey Ranch provided an ideal natural setting for scenes from Shakespeare's comedy "A Midsummer Night's Dream" as staged by Colette and Milton Parsons, with students of their Chatsworth Drama classes, Sunday evening, May 22nd, with the added attraction of fairyland ballets under the direction of Donald Journeaux.

The bewitched mortals were played by Susan Pettebone, Richard Allen, Lynn McMurrey and Gail Pickering. Leading them a mad chase up and down hill, around trees and behind rocks to the enchantment of the mortals and audience alike were Sally Ann Parsons and Karen Sue Hummel, heading an elfin troupe composed of Colleen McFall, Susan Spencer, Betty Peters, Terry Leonard, Billie Breit, Gretchen Hollenbeck, Christina and Linda Nofsiger.

Also presented earlier in the evening by the same group as a demonstration of their work in class were scenes from Alice in Wonderland, Tom Sawyer and Summer and Smoke, and a group of classical excerpts including a choral ode from a Greek tragedy by Euripides, and scenes from two famous old English comedies, The Rivals and She Stoops to Conquer. Leuise Schepler appeared in the latter scene and acted as narrator.

The Dream and Alice scenes were also presented earlier at a children's matinee and featured the younger pupils in a series of diversions. Niall McGinnis and Dickie Hummel appeared as Wooden Soldiers and Pirates, and gave their own version of Little Boy Sambo and The Tiger. Billie Breit and Diana Mason did a scene from Wizard of Oz. Little Bo-Peep and the Dormouse were danced by tiny Wendy Holt; Billie Breit, Christina and Lindy Nofsiger, and Gretchen Hollenbeck danced a Bohemian Polka.

- - - - -

Mr. & Mrs. Parsons and Mr. Journeaux extend a cordial invitation to all of Chatsworth to attend their next recital at Encino Community Center, 4935 Balboa Blvd. (one-half block north of Ventura Blvd.) Encino, Sunday, June 12th at 8 P.M. The aforementioned students will be featured with students of other communities, and we notice that our own little Gayle Cook will be featured in "The Bees", and Chris Hollenbeck and Wayne Cook as "The Clowns".

GENERAL ELECTION

We trust you all exercised your God-given right to vote - now to await the results. Do we or don't we get a park! Do we or don't we get two new fire stations here in Chatsworth!???

Our thanks to all of you who have worked so diligently for the good of our community, and to the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts who made the posters around town.

Today the posters will be gathered up and judged for 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes in cash, contributed by the Rotary Club and Chatsworth Women's Club; $5.00 for the first prize, $3.00 for second and $2.00 for third.

MEMORIAL DAY TRIBUTE

Lest we forget - we submit → this little bit of verse - nothing fancy but true realism; many of you will still remember the scenes that Mr. Fleming has so vividly put in writing. Thank you, men!!

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT OAKWOOD

by Sarah C. Rinehart
Adjutant - Post #622

The American Legion of Chatsworth had a Memorial Day service in the chapel at 2 P.M. The service was led by 1st Vice-Commander George Cruse in singing "America, the Beautiful" - "Rock of Ages" - and closing hymn "America".

Mr. James C. Nofsiger dedicated the service to all departed members, including Miller Williams and Harry Thode, who passed away within the past year.

Dr. Harold Hayward, a member of the post, gave a very inspiring message.

OAKWOOD, with its rolling expanse of lawn became a veritable garden of gorgeous blooms in tribute to the memory of all departed this Memorial weekend. The wind on Sunday afternoon, blew so softly over the graves and gently wafted the fragrances of the various flowers to mingle together, seemingly to include the living with the departed.

JUST GONE AHEAD

MUD? Well no, I don't like it. --
Have you never heard, by chance
That it wasn't the foe whom we hated
Twas mud and slush out in France.
Sometimes when we lined up for dinner
Beneath a sky cloudy and grey
We had mud in our beans
And mud on our jeans
Yep-sometimes we ate that way.

And when it came time for sleeping
There were no featherpillows put there
So we unrolled our two issue blankets
And flopped in the mud-anywhere.
Of course, war is no bed of roses!
Still, when it's time for a snooze
Who the heck wouldn't cuss -
And kick up a fuss
When he sleeps in that slimy
French ooze?
And say, if you think war is glory
With banners and bands and the like
You should have been with us outyonder
When ever we went on a hike.
We marched on to victory, surely!!
Tho glamour with us was a dud.
For we splashed on our way
Many times - for all day
As we marched ankle deep in the mud.

Yep-mud does make me reminiscent
Of days when the nations ran wild
In memory I sail o'er the ocean
Where sometimes I cried
Sometimes smiled. I smiled for
We looked like the devil
Bespattered with sticky French clay,
But I cried for the blood
That was spilt in the mud
For some of us died that way.

CUB SCOUTS

On May 19th the pack went on a tour of the Van Nuys police station and were escorted through all departments by Officer Dale Rickards whose son Gary is a member of the pack; Mrs. Sally Rinehart and Ronnie Payseno even had "mug" shots taken.

Many of the boys are taking swimming lessons at the Canoga Park Swim School.

The pack is jubilant over winning an outstanding blue ribbon award for their booth at the Scoutcraft Fair May 21st, Mrs. Rita Stricklin, chairman, and John Pauly in charge of tickets. The theme was "Knights of Old" with a castle and backdrop painted by the boys and to receive recognition for their first attempt in an event of this kind is a morale builder.

In addition to all the parents who helped out, credit goes to the boys who participated: John Butler, Danny Flores, Mike Balog, Mike Patrick, Billy Padgett, Wayne Ferguson, Jack Henneman, Bill Hood, Ronnie Payseno, Karl Nessamar, Jerry Stricklin, Roger Arell, Jay Myers, Gary Rickards, Chas Rinehart, Mike Dailey, Tim Dailey, Bobby Jack, Jeff Burkhart, Dennis Townsend, Bobby Rinehart, Larry Todd, John Pauly, Rusty Ewalt, Wayne Cook, Loyd Ewalt, Allan Pettebone and Donald Smith.

On Monday night, May 23rd, the Webelos Den, with their den leaders, went to Mortimer Park for a rousing baseball game instead of the regular meeting, which goes to prove that cubbing is fun.

At the pack meet last Thursday night, among the many, many boys who have worked diligently for service awards, were five boys in Den 6, Bob Patrick, den leader who received their Webelos Badge, the highest award in cub scouting: John Butler, Jim Bayer, Danny Flores, Bill Hood and Henry Ditto.

Four boys have reached their 11th birthday and were graduated into Boy Scouts, and awarded plaques: Jim Bayer, Tim Ferrell, Henry Ditto and Danny Flores. The new webelos and graduated cubs, retiring den mothers, Gretchen Bayer and Mamie Ferrell, and Rita Stricklin (having presented the pack with the blue ribbon from the fair and individual participation cards) were honored by the GGGGrrrrrrannndddd HHHHwwwwlll.

The June committee meeting will be at Frank & Rita Stricklin's, 10859 Andora; Thursday, the 9th, at 7:30 P.M.

The Pack picnic will be held June 11th at Mortimer Park to begin their summer program.

They come to us from Sepulveda, having purchased the Van Pelt Ranch, rented out for a time to the Princes, but are now getting settled themselves. We welcome them to our beloved town!!!!

BILL SCHEPLER of 22430 Lassen had major surgery at San Fernando Hospital last Monday morning and was brought home last Friday, still in a critical condition. We trust Bill, that you have greatly improved by the time this issue is circulated. ***(returned to hosp.)

MRS. ESTHER CARTER of Canoga Ave. left May 19th for about a five weeks vacation visiting relatives in the east.

TERESA and brother CLAYTON FERRERO, RUDDY DOTTA and LEONARD CHENARD took off one bright morning and headed northward, dropping Teresa at Palo Alto, and the boys went on and painted San Francisco. When there was nothing left to do, they picked Teresa up and headed inland to DOUBLE DEE RANCH at Three Rivers, owned by Chatsworthians, Jack Garrity, Myna and Bert de Lespinasse, and they came back with glowing reports of the wonderful vacation spot and grand hospitality accorded them. They spent the night, fished, went horseback riding, and generally tore up the place. The Grapevine knows for a fact that they were sold out for this holiday weekend the first part of May - good for them; all of Chatsworth wishes for them the very best!! (If you don't have transportation, they meet the bus at Visalia and Tulare). Also, they serve morning coffee in bed - that's for me!!

THE CALVIN BAKERS of 10323 Independence entertained 22 guests for dinner on Sunday, May 22nd, in honor of Lupe's mother's birthday. Hable Español flowed freely that day.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

Little Miss Frankie Fischer celebrated her 5th birthday with a party last Friday afternoon and a gala trek was made to her home on Jordan Avenue by the celebrants: Alice White, Susan & Marita Spotts, Sandra Robinson, Joanne Straka, Kathy Steen, Kathy Salaman, Bobby Fischer, Steve & Barbara Olson, Tom & Jim Ferrin, Don Smith, and Gary Fischer. After the refreshments the guests stood around breathless, while Frankie opened her multitudinous gifts.

- - - - -

Miss Virginia Ruff, of 10621 Variel Avenue, celebrated her 13th birthday on Saturday night yet, May 14th, and her guests were: Marilyn Mueller, Allen Laskey, Kathy Morgan, Susan Alward, Ruth Ann Campbell, Allen Harris, Bill Wellman, Bill Archibald (and sister Sue, age 8, was given dire threats if she even breathed the same air as the "grown-ups"). Games, refreshments and the opening of gifts highlighted the evening.

MRS. BILLIE MARRIOTT of Twin Lakes came home yesterday from her siege in Burbank Hospital since Friday; we trust greatly improved.

THE JACOBSONS of 21111 Lassen are back home after their two months trip to Florida and the east coast.

MRS. MARY LOWRY of the Postoffice moved into their home in Twin Lakes last Saturday.

CHATSWORTH LAKE HIGHLIGHTS

FRANK MORRIS' nephew, Guy Osborne, who has been living in Alaska, has come back here to settle down and will make his home with Frank and Lois until he gets located.

EULAH ELDER, a resident of the Lake for 25 years, passed away May 14th at her home of a ruptured heart valve, and was laid to rest at Oakwood. She had been a widow for four years.

THE HOBBY CLUB had their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Baumgartner on Raymond St. where a delicious potluck luncheon was enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be June 8th at the home of Louise Harker of Lakeside.

The WM. GREEN family, formerly of Rowell St. has moved to Victorville.

CORKY BERHL was involved in an automobile accident in front of the American Legion Hall, prior to attending the Footswingers Dance May 20th. Both cars were badly damaged (and of great disappointment to Corky because he had worked so hard to get it) but fortunately no one was injured.

MRS. FRANCIS MINER was hostess to a Tupper-Ware party on Saturday afternoon, May 14th, and those attending, enjoying the fun and refreshments, were Mdms. George Stallings, Jim Simons, Buck Washburn and Ralph Hartman. Many who could not attend, submitted orders, thereby eliciting a "quality party"

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

MRS. ANITA ERWIN'S three-day trip to come home and visit her family at 10414 Variel ended before it started, as the car she was driving was virtually demolished in an accident near Ridgecrest, where the highway is under construction. Anita is suffering painful injuries--broken ribs and possible internal injuries, and is in Ridgecrest Hospital.

THE JANESS, FISH, MITCHELL, AHLSTROM families enjoyed the weekend camping at Wheeler Hot Springs and fishing at Matilija Dam.

Some of us stayed home - what did you do?

We noticed DON PITTMAN of Chatsworth Realty out and about, taking care of the hundreds that came to look and admire.

That's a fine looking Shell Station we have in town, after their terrific remodelling job - never recognize the old stand.

BERTHA WALKER'S two sisters are here from Fort Worth, Texas, visiting the Thos. Walker's on Independence.

On May 5th MRS. FERN JACK of Topanga Blvd. flew east to attend the funeral of her father in Portland, Indiana, who passed away while enjoying his afternoon nap, returning also by plane on the 12th. They have sold their home, acreage and the newly built Associated Station, and when school is out, Gerald, Fern and the three boys will pack up and leave again for an indefinite visit back east, visiting relatives and families on both sides. Nothing definite as to their future plans. Our very best to all of them for a very enjoyable vacation this summer. When you come back, Chatsworth will be so crowded you won't recognize the old place.

MR. GUSS PRATT of 21219 Lassen entered the Valley Hospital on the 19th for surgery; is now at home but still just so-so.

MRS. SEPPIMO LOMBARDI of 20559 Lassen entered St. Joseph's Hospital in Burbank on the 9th, had major surgery and special nurses around the clock; she returned home last Saturday, the 28th, still under the care of a special nurse. However, everyone is very optimistic that she is well on the road to recovery, for which we are extremely glad.

That which, no doubt, every service station attendant dreads, happened to C & H Service at the corner of Devonshire & Owensmouth. On May 19th a moving automobile locked bumpers with a stationary pump and after a tug-of-war, the pump came away from the island, causing a break in the electrical line which caused a spontaneous combustion, quickly doused but searing the other pumps. However, with everyone much the wiser, we notice everything looks like new again.

The W.S.C.S. Rummage Sale which was held on the sidewalk in front of Janess Warehouse last Thursday and Friday netted $97.00 in spot cash, and some of the purchases by the frenzied customers were so large that i.o.u.'s were made, which will greatly augment this figure. There's money in old clothes. In our last issue we failed to state that it was the Woman's Society of Christian Service having the rummage sale, giving the impression that Janess Warehouse was putting it on as a sideline in addition to trucking. Not a bad idea.

MRS. BLANCH PHILLIPS in St. Louis, mother of Mrs. Eleanor Pettebone, is grateful for The Grapevine because, inbetween her visits here, she is kept up-to-date on the activities of her many friends. She sends her love to everyone. Thank you for those kind words!!

At next Sunday's services in the Community Church all of the new officers throughout every department will take their vows to fulfill their duties to their utmost ability. If you don't call in the news, we'll just have to talk about ourselves. It came one of those times when the purchase of a gift was necessary and upon all the many suggestions offered, nary a bell did ring, and as we were riding along Devonshire in the 11th hour of making said purchase, an adult said flippantly: "Well, we can always settle on a bottle of four roses." Joan and Johnny Straka were riding in the back seat, and Joan, age 10, all of a sudden aroused out of her reverie, eagerly remarked: "Mrs. Brain has perfume in the five and dime." And Johnny, age 13, in a voice just dripping with worldliness remarked: "Four roses, stupid, is not perfume!" (This younger generation gets around).

The long-awaited DISNEYLAND opens to the public July 18th, in Anaheim - but what's 80 miles when Disneyland is at the other end. Admission: 50¢ for children under 12; Adults $1.10, and it can be toured in a day - so take a blank check with you - you'll need it.

Little Miss NANCY ROATCAP of 21717 Lassen fell out of the top bunk a couple of weeks ago and crushed her collarbone. That's a long drop!!

Courtship makes a man spoon - but marriage is what makes him fork over.

HOUSE GUESTS

THE SHAWs of 21016 Chatsworth St. had as their guest for two weeks, Ann's aunt, Mrs. Katharine Norris from Vancouver, B.C. and she was, of course, taken to all the high spots in and around Los Angeles, showing off Southern California. Also arriving for a few days were Mrs. Jessie MacKenzie of San Francisco, a cousin, and friends, Mr. & Mrs. Bain. The Bains had to motor to Sepulveda Blvd. every night for lodging; which goes to prove that in addition to a bank, a bakery, an ice cream parlor, Chatsworth needs a motel. Who's got any money??

A PARTY JUST FOR FUN

TOM FISH, 13, of 10219 Jordan had a "grown-up party" (mints and nuts and everything) for his Junior High friends Friday night, May 20th and those enjoying games and squaredancing were: Ellouise Marriott, Toni Altomari, Larry Mitchell, Leslie Mahan, Martha Moffett, Sandra Campbell, Eva-Lyn Sears, David Hannel, Carl Wassmouth, John Straka, and Tim Fish.

JERRY AHLSTROM, 12, of 22024 Lassen has had a rough time of it lately. First he contracted poison oak and while still having an itching-good time, he fell and pulled the ligaments in his legs and now on crutches, with every possibility that school will end before he is able to perambulate as before. Is that good or bad?

FRANK BELL, CECELIA SCHAUL and FRANCES COOK, an appointed committee from the Chatsworth Lake Improvement Assn. met with members of the Dept. of Water and Power to discuss plans for the coming playground. Members from the Dept. will be out soon to stake out the proposed area.

POLI and DOC SILCOX spent a week in Palm Springs and later, Doc went on a fishing trip with Russ McElvain of Chatsworth Market, on the Colorado River, but nary a fish came home. (No doubt several got away).

THE JERRY TANNER family struck out for the same place over Memorial weekend and we trust they had better luck. It's not luck, is it - just outsmarting the fish.

THE CHARLES COATES, and friends, went to Miracle Hot Springs.

THE BUCK WASHBURNS struck out for Idylwild.

DELBERT MUTH is suffering the agonies of a slipped disc in his back. We suggest, Delbert, you compare notes with Mrs. Ruby Campbell of 10545 Santa Susanna Blvd. who has been hospitalized, etc. with the same condition. Coleen Muth is visiting the family from Camarillo.

BETROTHAL

MISS PHYLLIS FLADWED, daughter of Joe and Helen Fladwed of 9035 Topanga, is wearing a lovely diamond ring, the token of love from Jerry Owens, in the marines at Camp Pendleton. Jerry will be discharged from service next April 1st, which is also Easter Sunday next year, and they plan to be married the day preceding. We all expect to dance at your wedding, Phyllis!!

Today, the ladies of Chatsworth are invited to any of the following socials:

10 A.M. Love Circle at Mrs. Dorothy Watts, 10955 DeSoto, swimming party and luncheon, with Mrs. Arlene Croman, co-hostess.

1:30 P.M. - Ann Johnson Circle at Mrs. Mildred Riner's, 22937 Chatsworth Street.

6:30 P.M. - Esther Circle at White Oak Hall for a pot-luck dinner with the menfolks and children. Bring a main dish and an extra dish.

THE RILEY FAMILY at 10422 Variel have been having a siege of bad luck lately. On May 20th Poppa Riley came home from work and has been in extreme pain and under the care of a doctor for poisons thruout his body, stemming from his teeth. He is still unable to go back to work. Son Donald fell and just about cut his ear off, requiring 5 stitches. Their six lovely children are all of school age, but it's a queer day when Effie is home by herself.

FEATURE SECTION

The marriage of Miss Rosemary Crescent, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Daniel Crescent of Craggy View, to Mr. Frank D. Haines, son of Mr. & Mrs. LaVern Haines of Santa Monica, was solemnized in a formal, double ring ceremony at the church of Our Lady of the Valley in Canoga Park, on Saturday, May 28th, with Father Diamond officiating.

- Brides- Linda Taylor

- Maid of Honor: Sandra Crescent
- Groom's - Vern Haines
- Attendants: Jerry Thomas
Greg Conley
- Flower Girl: Linda Johnson
- Ringbearer: Tom Haines
- Usher: Ralph Albright
- Soloist: Donna Murphy
- Organist: Mrs. Burr Hosley

The bride, in a stunning, bouffant white gown, enhanced with satin imported from Italy, bedecked with white rosebuds, wearing a tiara headress which held her finger tip veil, and the most exquisite nothing shoes, carrying a bouquet of white rosebuds with white satin streamers, came down the aisle on the arm of her father at exactly 11:30 A.M., preceded by her attendants, and walking on the petals strewn before her. The bride's gown was designed by herself, and fashioned by Leopold of Studio City. The gowns of the attendants were of meadow-green crystallette, and carried bouquets of white rosebuds with green streamers.

The groom and his attendants, and the father of the bride, wore white coats and black trousers - even the little ringbearer.

The bride's mother wore a steel blue taffeta gown, adorned with petals outlined in black, also fashioned by Leopold. The groom's mother wore a bright blue lace gown with matching hat.

During the exchange of vows and mass, the soloist sang: "The Lord's Prayer" and "Ave Maria", and during communion "O Lord, I am not worthy".

The reception was held at the Chatsworth Center, with members from the Woman's Club, namely, Mdms. Hughes, Lanahan, Loritz, Ruiz, and daughter Moby Ruiz, assisting. Roses abounded everywhere, even on the four-tiered wedding cake which was served with coffee, and two kinds of delicious punch, one with wine and champagne, and one without.

A lovely, lovely wedding - solemnly partaken in the simplicity and reverence of the church, with just small bouquets in vases gracing the altar over which hangs the crucifix, and at the feet of Queen Mother Mary; the joining of two individuals and two families of the same religious background.

Mr. Haines, 22, is a radio announcer in Ventura, where they will reside when they return from their honeymoon. Rosemary and Frank met three years ago when they both were under treatment for polio, and with this good, sound basis, we wish for them a most happily wedded partnership, and may the blessings of our Almighty God rest and abide with them always.
