Cub Scouts

The Chatsworth Cub pack met Thursday night at the school auditorium, and the following boys were presented with achievement awards by Cubmaster Carl Henneman: Allen Pettebone, Mark Andes, Mike Kirby, Dennis Townsend, Roger Arell, Jerry Stricklin, Jack Henneman, John Pauly, Donald Smith, Jeff Burkhart, Bill Luce, James Hyland, Wayne Cook, J. Mason, Bobby Rinehart, and Henry Ditto.

New boys received in as Bobcats were Nyall McGinnis, Conrad and Maynard Lauritzen, Billy Schepler, and George Mantalis.

Jeff Burkhart, who graduated from the Webelos, was presented by Cubmaster Henneman to Scoutmaster Charles Croman who welcomed him into the Boy Scout Troop.

The program was presented by the boys from Den 2, a sea skit directed by their Den Mother, Mrs. Ray Cook, and it was so much enjoyed that by popular request it had to be repeated.

The Cubs had a successful food sale the previous Saturday and appreciate the fine support they had. They are now planning a paper drive for April 28, and would

Happy Anniversary

Certain days in April will mean much to Aunt Emma and Uncle Fred Graves of 22000 Chatsworth Street. First of all son Jesse and his wife from Redding will be down for the coming week. On the 3rd Uncle Fred will have his 81st birthday, and on the 16th Aunt Emma, the first white child born in San Fernando Valley, will be 83 years young.

Then on Sunday, the 8th, will be a great family gathering celebrating the 60th wedding anniversary of their parents, which falls on May 1st but the children are coming together early because of Jesse and his ranger work. Curtis will be down from Buttonwillow, Warren from Susana Knolls and daughter Queenie Billings, with all the spouses' grandchildren and great-grandchildren. What a celebration that will be!

Congratulations on setting an example for all the rest of us.

Construction of the new FOUR-SQUARE CHURCH will begin next Monday.

appreciate having their friends save papers for them. The Cubs are sponsored by the Chatsworth PTA.

-- and Mrs. Anna Briggs and Mrs. Lillian Senz of Nordhoff Street, sisters, 83 and 85 respectively, can prove it. They went out and made a down payment on one of these electric hand velocipedes but before delivery made the mistake of telling son Harry Briggs of 9155 Jordan who promptly assured them they were off their rockers and vetoed the entire transaction. Time lapsed, and mama was very quiet about the whole thing but the other day the two sisters drove up and proudly displayed their newly-acquired possession -- another electric-- and now the sisters are enjoying these sunny days

Cliff (Texaco Service) AHLSTROM's boy, Norman, 14, was packing powder into a rocket which he was holding at the time when it blew up, severing the 4th finger from his right hand and severely mutilating his entire hand. He was rushed to the Northridge Hospital last Saturday afternoon where the broken bones were set and his hand sewed up as much as possible. Praise the Lord it was confined to his hand!

Horace Greeley Weaver, of 10325 Variel, is in the Santa Monica Hospital for observation and treatment of arthritis and complications of heart and arteries, having suffered a stroke recently. Fortunately for Mrs. Weaver, who is not feeling so well herself, they gave up their chicken business about a month ago, which at one time numbered chickens as high as 10,000. So now, Horace, with your feathered friends out of the way, concentrate on what your three doctors are doing for you and get out as soon as possible -- the old home town isn't the same with you gone.

Busy Night

The Ed Ahlstrom's on 22024 Lassen had a busy night last Friday. The evening was slated for a shower for Phyllis Fladwed of 9035 Topanga prior to her forthcoming marriage Easter Sunday, which went on in spite of all the phone-calls. First, ye editor had no transportation down to White Oak Hall to furnish fruitjuice to the cavorting squaredancers so a call was put in by said editor (Haskell) for Ed's assistance. When he arrived home he was assailed with a disaster call from Culver City, where cars from here carrying members of the Senior MYF of the Community Church to a roller-skating soiree, were involved in a traffic accident.

The car in front of Johnny Ahlstrom's car stopped suddenly, causing him to make a tour up its back, and he was assisted in his endeavor by the other ye editor (Straka) when she rammed his. The impact caused the Ahlstrom's car door to fly open and out flew Carol Smith, but she instinctively gathered herself together and made for the curbing before oncoming traffic. (Cont. page 12)

The Straka car refused to go another inch so Kelly Johnson and Ed Ahlstrom arrived on the scene with tow ropes, etc., and said vehicle was towed home from Venice and Sepulveda Boulevards.

In spite of shaken emotions, the party must go on, so the joy of roller skating went on while the two "boy scouts" performed their task. When Ed arrived home he was confronted with another call to go to work, arriving home at 3:00 a.m. the next day. Live in the country and relax!

By the way, the ladies at Phyllis's shower presented her with a GE steam iron.

PTA

Mrs. James Armstrong was elected president of the Chatsworth PTA at the meeting Tuesday, March 13, at the school auditorium. Other officers chosen to assist her this coming year were Mrs. Joseph Jurnecka, first vice president; Mrs. Sidney Fasken, second vice president; Mrs. Eloise Overlin, third vice president; Mrs. John Thornton, secretary; Mrs. Walter Rasmussen, treasurer; Mrs. George Cruse, financial secretary; Mrs. T. K. Wyre, auditor; and Mrs. Earl Muhlenbach, historian.

The names were presented by Mrs. John Campbell, chairman of the nominating committee and were unanimously elected.

The theme for the day was "Inspiration For Our Children" and the speaker was Rev. Charles Hughes, pastor of the Chatsworth Baptist Church. He used as his subject "How to Aid Our Children's Spiritual Growth". "The needs of children", he said, "are first physical and emotional, and later become mental, spiritual, and social." Much is done for their development in every way except the spiritual, which he defined as their relationship to God and direction to His will. Three out of four young people have no church guidance whatever and 73% of the total population are not reached by any church, Protestant, Catholic, or Jewish. Two plans to remedy this situation were given: to have parents interested in youth work, and to establish a family altar.
