Smith Fitzsimmons Nuptials

Two members of the Chatsworth Community Church were united in holy wedlock last Saturday night before an assemblage of approximately 150 guests with Dr. Harold Hayward officiating.

Dale Redner Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith II of 10346 Vassar Ave. took unto himself his fiancée, Miss Erna Loretta Fitzsimmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fitzsimmons of Tarzana in a double-ring, candlelight ceremony, amidst gorgeous bouquets and baskets of white and pink gladioli and stocks.

Howard and Donald Smith were the candlelighters, lighting the altar candles, the two candelabras of seven candles each, and the candles on the organ. Dale was attended by his brother, Glenn Roy III, and ushers were the bride's two brothers, George and Bruce Fitzsimmons, all in white coats and dark trousers.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by her bridesmaids, sis Pat Fitzsimmons, the groom's sister, Carol Smith, Jeri Barret of Niles (who later caught the bride's bouquet and is herself going to be married in Feb. in France), and the bride's cousin, Nelda Walters of Redding; maid-of-honor, the bride's sister, Viola Fitzsimmons; two little flower girls Karen and Cheryl Smith, nieces of the groom; all gowned in matching pink taffeta dresses with pink headbands, carrying pink rose buds; and ring-bearer Glenn Smith IV, nephew of the groom.

Dale should always remember his bride as she came down the aisle on the arm of her father in full glare of flashlight bulbs as pictures were taken, a glowing, radiant bride gowned in white lace bodice and trailing white net skirt, with shoulder-length veil and a crown of pearls, and carrying white gardenias and red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lilja were the soloists, with Mrs. Katharine Johnson at the organ; Don's first selection "I Love Thee for Eternity"; a duet "Ich Liebe Dich"; and "The Lord's Prayer" by Doris Lilja at the time the bridal couple were kneeling before the altar.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue peplin suit with matching hat; and the groom's mother wore a medium blue gown and white lace hat.

The reception followed at the home of the bride's parents in Tarzana, and among the out-of-state guests present were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Bertha Handley and granddaughter Wannette Johnson of Ohio; and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Redner of Michigan, whose own wedding ring given to her by her deceased husband in 1906 is the one being worn by Dale.

The newlyweds left during the reception for a honeymoon trip to northern California, and got as far as two blocks away from the bride's home - pranksters put soap in the gastank causing considerable damage. Good old Dad Fitzsimmons came to the rescue and gave the couple his car for an overnight trip to Santa Monica, returning

Mr. and Mrs. RALPH CHRISTENSEN are enjoying a visit from Peggy's mother, Mrs. Corrye Dursteler and her niece, Madeline Fulton of Newman, and another niece, Evelyn Lucas of Turlock. Their son, Carl, who has been visiting the past month with Peggy's sister and husband, the Chester Fultons of Newman, returned home with his grandmother. The trip was made by train for the pleasure of the young people. The visitors plan to remain for about a week.

QUEENIE (of Chats. Pharmacy) and SILAS BILLINGS left Sunday for a 2-week trip to Washington.

BILL BERKEMEYER of 10427 Santa Susana underwent an emergency appendectomy Wednesday night at the Northridge Hospital. He came through nicely and was brought home Sunday evening where he will continue to convalesce until he is able to return to work.

Says a postcard from an honest vacationist at an expensive mountain resort: "Having a wonderful time; wish I could afford it."

WAYNE COOK, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook, had the misfortune to break his right arm a week ago Sunday, when he fell from an oak tree. The following day his father broke a bone in his right hand while at work on his plastering job. Both will be somewhat incapacitated for five or six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. LARRY WELLS enjoyed a combined business and pleasure trip in Fresno, Maricopa, and other surrounding territory last week. That Larry is just too busy!

Shower

Mrs. Olga Bay, Mrs. Alex Summers, and Mrs. Herbert Toedter of Tujunga were co-hostesses at a stork shower honoring Mrs. James Summers Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Bay.

Interesting and appropriate games were conducted by Mrs. Toedter, after which Mrs. Summers opened the many lovely gifts her friends had brought her.

Guests were Mmes Robert Owens, Robert Swartz, Ray Moon, Ralph Christensen, Leroy Konkel, Richard Williams, Vivian Pidgeon, G. K. Baile, Sigrid Furubotten, Walter Rasmussen, Henry Berkemeyer, Dennis Fisher, R. L. Johnson, Lela McDonald of Culver City, and Miss Pearl Campbell, Miss Doralie Toedter of Tujunga, and Joyce Burkhart and Judy Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. ANDERSON, former residents, were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary Aug. 16 at their present home in Long Beach. Mr. Anderson was a former owner of The Chatsworth Realty Co. and was here for many years.

ARSON??

Four fires set on the Harold Asbury Ranch Friday and Saturday, August 17 and 18, have been under study by the arson squad. The ranch is close to the railroad and evidence points to the fact that it must have been a transient looking for some kind of excitement. Moulds of the footprints about the house and in the hobo jungle nearby are identical.

The Asbury's were at home when the last fire was started late Saturday night in their son's bedroom, and was done under cover of the noise of the train. Fortunately, the children were visiting their aunt and uncle in Reseda that night, as the fire was started in the boy's bed, which was completely destroyed. The prompt arrival of the fire department prevented further destruction, but smoke stains and water damage throughout the house were quite severe.

ELIZABETH'S CAFE will be closed one week for vacation starting with Labor Day and will be open again as usual on the following Monday.

Summer Party

The annual summer party of the Chatsworth Woman's Club held Saturday night at the club rooms, was a very lovely affair. The weather was pleasant as the guests mingled both inside the nicely decorated hall and out on the prettily landscaped patio.

The dinner was very sumptuous and enjoyable and over one hundred and ten guests were served. Dancing entertained after dinner.

The door prize was won by Arthur Young. An interesting feature of the evening was the auction of several lovely leis brought to the affair by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooley, who arrived home from Hawaii the night before the party.

Mrs. Percy Keith was general chairman for the affair and was ably assisted by several committees from the membership.

The affair was not only a social success but a financial one as well.

The R. L. JOHNSONS (Katharine and Kelly!) who returned from a two-week vacation last Tuesday, visited several former residents -- the Vincel Lucas family of Turlock, the Willis Bryants and Marrel Johnsons of Merced, the Chester Fultons of Newman, and the Ted and Leland Olsens of Buttonwillow. They also enjoyed a few days at Camp Kieola at Huntington Lake with Katharine's brother and wife, the A. W. Waltons of Pasadena, and their nephew and wife, the Robert Waltons of Vallejo.

A new maid had just arrived and her mistress was giving her a list of kitchen utensils to be purchased. "And don't forget, Emma," she said, "we want a new griller for the kitchen." Emma stared vacantly. "You know what a griller is, I suppose?" ventured the lady of the house. "'Course I do," returned the girl. "It's a big hairy monkey, and if you want one of those in the kitchen -- I'm leaving!"

"The more love we give away the more we have."

Wheel Chair Evangelist

Young people -- how would you like to hear a first-hand account of how an ex-convict was converted to Christianity? STAN HILL, of South Gate, came to know Christ at the age of 24 after a bullet through the neck (while he was engaged in robbing a store!) brought him face to face with the seriousness of life, and left him confined to a wheel chair for life.

Stan will be the special speaker this Saturday night at the VALLEY YOUTH ROUND-UP at the First Baptist Church of Van Nuys and we encourage each and every one of you to come and hear his stirring testimony. He spent four and a half years behind prison bars; 16 months in juvenile detention homes, 6 months in the L. A. County jail, 10 and one-half months in Preston School of Industry, a state reform school, and finally 15 months and one week in San Quentin Prison. "I would rather be in this wheel chair on my way to heaven," says Hill, "than to be on my feet and on the way to hell."

He has appeared in over 100 churches, over 40 high schools and colleges in California, and has been sponsored by Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, by chiefs of police and high school principals.

FOR TRANSPORTATION MEET AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF CHATSWORTH, 10025 DESOTO AVENUE, AT 6:30 P. M. THIS SATURDAY NIGHT.

Prayer

I know not by what methods rare... But this I know: God answers prayer... I know not when He sends the word... That tells us fervent prayer is heard... I know it cometh soon or late... Therefore, we need to pray and wait... I know not if the blessing sought... Will come in just the guise I thought... I leave my prayers with Him alone... Whose will is wiser than my own.

ROBERT NEWMAN, 4-H member of 20524 Lassen, was chosen as one of two members from the local club to participate in an egg-laying contest which was sponsored by Kimber Farms Hatchery last week. The Hatchery gave each participant 32 chicks each to raise, and so Robert did a mighty fine job of raising the chicks, as he came in SECOND in the contest -- it was very close and exciting, as he was first for several days in the week-long contest, losing right at the last by 1 egg. The other participant from this club was Karen Fortune from Northridge, who came in 3rd. They will be presented with awards at the October meeting of the 4-H Council.

LOCAL TALENT

Keith Andes, noted state and screen actor (better known locally as John Andes) arrived home with his family from Europe on August 18, where he has been filming "Interlude" with June Allison. In all of their travels the family is satisfied that Chatsworth is the most beautiful and best place of all to live.

His next assignment is a return to musicals in "The Girl Most Likely" with Jane Powell, and had to report immediately on his return to RKO for rehearsals. He won fame originally in musicals when he starred in "Kiss Me Kate" on Broadway. On May 28 of this year he appeared in the hour and a half TV premiere of one of the top Broadway musicals, "Bloomer Girl", on Producer's Showcase with Barbara Cook, Paul Ford, and Carmen Mathews, followed by an appearance in "Holiday" on June 5. Appearance in two such spectacular productions in such a short time certainly required much stamina and ability.

Mr. and Mrs. PERRY GRIGGS of Pontiac, Michigan, are guests of the Janess's at 10353 Jordan, arriving last Sunday in their fifth week of travelling commemorating their 40th wedding anniversary.

A lady arriving at a church concert found two men at the door selling tickets.

"Oh," she said, "you're selling tickets! Why, I thought you were going to take up a collection, so I didn't bring any money along."

MARION CRUICKSHANK of Andora Street attended the first session of the WSCS Convention at the University of Redlands at Redlands during the week of August 13 through the 17; ESTELLE KEARNS attended the second week of vital spiritual instruction.

Golden Memories

This poem is in honor of Carlous and Ada Dorman who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary August 12th, written by a friend of theirs, and formerly a resident of Chatsworth; pen name Ellis Jay, but it's none other than Jake Jacobson:

- - - -

" Turn back the pages of the years...And see yourselves a standing there...A happy couple with no fears...But trusting God with all your care.

" Turn back the pages, of your life...And listen to the days ahead. So full of love and free from strife. The years have proven what they said.

" Turn back the pages of romance...And see a loving bridal pair. About to settle and enhance...Their home with charm and loving care.

" You took for better or for worse...Also in sickness or in health...Without regard for times or purse; True fidelity was your wealth.

" The children were God's gift to you...They brought joy, as well as care...Through all the years they've loved you too...Grandchildren now are blessings rare...And three great-grandchildren including twins.

" In turning back these pages here...And living all the years again...'Tis easy now, to see so clear...Your hope and faith were not in vain.

" Each page of mem'ry is so sweet...In deeds your life has been so fine...Each passing day a lovely treat...A life so faithful and divine.

" And God has truly richly blest...You both through all these years of life...Because you really met the test of love and trust as man and wife.

" When all these pages have been turned...You both will have in reverie...Those Golden Memories you've learned to cherish anywhere you be.

" And now your many friends tonight...Do wish you still more happiness...And may your future days be bright...While God continues you to bless."

SHERRIE BATWAY, 20, of Vassar Avenue, and TED FISHER, 22, of Reseda, were married (eloped yet) in Las Vegas and spent the weekend of the 18th and 19th at the Sands.

They are now residing in Glendale.

Chatsworth Lake Highlights by GLENNA SCHRADER

On Tuesday night, August 21, at about 9:00 p. m., one of our oldest residents of the Lake, LEO SMITH, was burned to death, along with his house which burned to the ground. He lived alone, a pensioner, and is survived by a brother, Ted, who lives in Burbank. It is assumed that the fire started from a coal oil lamp as he had no electricity and did not smoke.

Two birthday parties took place on Saturday the 18th. It was a double affair for little ROD MASON (1) and J. R., his brother (3). Their little guests were Randy and Robby Kveum, Joyce Ferguson, Sue Arell, Penny Schrader and Dan Mason. PASTY ENNIS celebrated her 10th birthday with friends Carol and Alex Foster, Linda and Terry Wooland, Russel and Randy Bauer, and Ronnie Dyer. Of course ice cream and cake and presents predominated at both parties.

Along with getting settled in their new home, the FRANK MORRISSES have been busy entertaining house guests, Lois's sister, Mrs. Lewis Weinhart of Delphos, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Maggill, of Santa Monica, (another sister) and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morris of Paramount. The sister from Ohio came for a week but the others just dropped in to spend the day on Sunday August 19.

On the week-end of August 17 BUD and TESSA MASON took off for a fishing trip to Catalina with Tessa's newly-wed brother and his bride joining them. Then a couple of days later Tess's sister Beverly Allen, with husband Bob and their children of Tulare came to spend a day and a half and they took in Disneyland on Wednesday.

LAURA KERN spent a week-end with her pal Barbara Buck of Granada Hills, then Barb returned the visit for a few days.

Early Sunday morning of August 19 Paul Ennis was returning home from visiting the Harold Phillips family in Reseda and apparently dozed a few minutes at the wheel for he crashed into a tree on Plummer and was taken to Northridge Hospital, but later sent to Valley for x-rays. Glad to say he suffered no more than cuts, bruises, and shock, but remained in the hospital for four days and hopes to be back on the job soon.

MARY and DICK STRONG and 3 children of Thompson Avenue have moved to Los Angeles.

GENE and FRITZIE SNOW and 4 children have just returned from a two-weeks vacation in Washington visiting relatives.

Over in a corner near the fireplace, Uncle Ezry had been working industriously with a stub pencil and a piece of paper. Suddenly he looked up and smiled. "Doggone" he exclaimed. "If I ain't learned to write." Maw got up and looked over his shoulder at the lines scrawled across the paper. "What do it say?" she asked. "Dunno" said Uncle Ezry. "I ain't learned to read yet!"
