Thank You!

Thank you for the many calls to our office both in regard to Viola Haskell's recent eye surgery and the kind words about the Grapevine. First about Viola: Yes, she has had her operation and is home now at 21116 Chatsworth Street --the operation appears to have been successful, for which we are all thankful, and now all she has to do is rest and be waited on the next couple of months while it heals!! That is, if you can keep Viola down.

About the Grapevine: Several of our merchants have felt the need this past month, while it was out of circulation, to put their name before the people of Chatsworth, and prevailed upon us to utilize the blank space on the reverse side of the Shopping Cart ad each week -- this we have agreed to do, at the same time using this space for current civic notices, bits of news, etc. Of course, all in brief.

We hope it will make up in part for the Grapevine as it was in the past, but at least we'll know what's going on!

Many, many thanks for your acts of thoughtfulness and prayer on behalf of Viola and the Grapevine - and please feel free to call the office, DI 8-7643, if you have items of announcement or small news items that Chatsworth should know about.

Betty.

The news in brief....

The Rotary Club of Chatsworth sponsored FREE POLIO SHOTS on March 20 and 25, with a total of 228 injections administered by Dr. E. M. Miner and staff. The amount of $215.25 in donations was turned over to the Youth Foundation! Special thanks to Dr. E.M. Miner and staff, Mike Ragusin, Harold Frost, Al Brain, Len Chenard, Stan Hall, Hank Crowley, Griff McKeeby, and Ann McKeeby.....

Want to go FISHING, FREE?? You can, on Tuesday, April 9th, at the Aqua Sierra Sportsman Club, simply by turning over your "catch" for the Chamber of Commerce Dinner that night. Harry Briggs, Larry Clark, and Al Brain will be official fish-fryers at the Chatsworth Center, and tickets can be bought at $1.50 each from them, or from other members of the committee, namely: Clarence Palmer, Ben Boydston, Chuck Janess. Also available at Chatsworth Market.....

The PAPER DRIVE is still on for the Youth Foundation! You may still deliver to 21032 Devonshire, or call DI 8-4114. The Foundation has announced that all money from the paper drive will be turned over for immediate use by our teen-agers in procuring the equipment, etc., they want. The "Steering Committee" of adults who are assisting in this are:
