INCORPORATION PAPERS have been received by the Chatsworth Youth Foundation -- the next steps will be to elect new officers and directors, and to draw up a new set of By-laws.

After six years of operating the Cabin Cafe, the COE MALCOLM'S have sold to Paul George of Granada Hills. The Malcolm's plan on staying in Chatsworth at least until Fall.

Beginning May 5, the PRESBYTERIANS will make their appearance in our fair city, holding services at the Legion Hall.

PEARL WRIGHT of 21190 was honored last Tuesday for her hours of service at the Sepulveda Veterans Hospital. Congratulation, Pearl.

Mrs. CLIFF AHLSTROM (Margo) is recuperating nicely at home after her recent surgery at Northridge Hospital.

May 11 will be a big day in Chatsworth, when our first big ball game will take place at WILKINS FIELD, 21624 Devonshire. On this opening day at the pre-game ceremony, Roy Rogers will have the honor of throwing the first ball, and all six of our Chatsworth teams will be on hand with shining faces and brand-new uniforms!

This project has been sponsored by The Rotary Club of Chatsworth, and is also a community project with parents, merchants, and civic groups lending support. The opening day schedule will be published in the May 9 issue.

The LOBEER twins, George and Rebecca, celebrated their 8th birthday with a party on April 13.

An informal dinner at Alhambra served as the official announcement of the engagement of PATTI FAIRBANK, 21131 Chatsworth Street, to BERNARD G. SEELEY, of Norwalk Connecticut. A lovely wedding is being planned for June 8 at the Our Lady of the Valley Church in Canoga Park.

DIANE DOWNING, formerly of Chatsworth, received a lovely diamond ring (yep--engagement!) this Easter from Keith Matthews, U.S.N. The wedding date is as yet indefinite. Diane is now attending Orange Coast College.

VILLIA MARIA SANITARIUM is full-up with patients now, among them two of our Chatsworth people: Grace Hageman Armstrong, who, during this period of rest is enjoying her many visitors; and Annette Hughes, who is also highly appreciative of the friends who have come to see her. Mr. McConnell was discharged from the Home two weeks ago and is now resting at his home on DeSoto.

Straight from the horse's mouth-- (that means official confirmation!) Roy Rogers has purchased the American Legion Hall as a business investment. Plans are still indefinite but the hall will probably be rented out to various organizations much as is the present practice.

Remember BOB NESBIT? Bob thoughtfully remembered his old friends the R. L. Johnsons this Easter (that's Katharine and Kelly) with a gift from Florida--a foot-long baby alligator, which is now reclining in a washtub in the Johnson bedroom. Has to be kept warm, you know--our southern Calif. weather is too cold outside!
