Gone On Beyond

Mrs. Annie L. Crawford, 5-year resident of Twin Lakes where she has lived with her daughters, Mrs. Edna Holland and Mrs. Aileen Carroll, suddenly was called home to be with the Lord last Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m. as she was visiting with friends in Beverly Hills.

Mrs. Crawford was 87 years old, and lived a mighty interesting and exciting life, travelling as a girl from Mississippi to Texas in a covered wagon, and is named in a Texas history book as one of the most successful women who ever travelled there via covered wagon. Several years ago she came to Calif. and lived in Beverly Hills with her daughter, actress Georgia Carroll and her son-in-law, actor Kay Kayser, followed by her last move out here to Chatsworth.

While the family grieves this separation by physical death we can rejoice in the promise of God that His children will forever live with Him.

Services were conducted Tuesday morning at Oakwood Chapel by Rev. Charles T. Hughes of the First Baptist Church.

The regular meeting of the NORTH-RIDGE - CHATSWORTH 4-H CLUB will be held Friday, May 3, at 7:30 p.m. at Chatsworth Center. Demonstrations will be given by Gary Avey and John Campbell on electricity and by Karen Fortune and Craig Aven on beef.

Missile Project

The Nike underground missile operation up on Oat Mountain to the north of us honored four of our Chatsworth citizens at a cafeteria-style G-I luncheon last Friday. Jean Saal and Ben Boydston, representing the Chamber of Commerce, and Griff McKeeby and Bill Dempsey, representing the Rotary Club, enjoyed (along with the eats) a complete tour of the plant. They tell us there will be an Open House up there on the mountain May 18, with the whole town invited, and they will even provide the bus transportation for us!

Auxiliary Meeting

Commander James Nofziger of the Chatsworth American Legion Post 662 was present at the meeting of their Auxiliary Wednesday night to explain the reasons for selling the Legion Hall and to present future plans, assuring the Unit that their interests will be fully considered in all that is done.

Finance officer Romeo Tognazzini stated that other property will be purchased and another building, more suitable for the small groups of the Legion and Auxiliary, will be erected as soon as possible. Meetings will continue in the hall until June 1, after which other arrangements will be made.

LANCE WANGSGARD was brought home Monday from the French Hospital in San Luis Obispo where he spent a week recovering from a concussion suffered in a fall from a playground slide. The accident occurred the first of last week while his family, the Val Wangsgards of 10347 Owensmouth were vacationing in that vicinity. Meanwhile brother Chris came down with the measles, and last Tuesday morning was rushed to the hospital when he suffered convulsions. Little Niel is being cared for by relatives during this time of trial.

GUS PRATTE of Lassen Street underwent a delicate stomach surgery last Monday at Northridge Hospital and is coming along well.

Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD LUCAS and RICKY and SUZETTE of Llano visited this past weekend with Mrs. Lucas' sister and husband, the Frank Johnsons of Canoga Park, and with Mr. Lucas' cousins, the Ray Cooks and the Wayne Cooks of Chatsworth. The Lucas family formerly lived here.

MIRIAM CLARK of Santa Susanna celebrated her 12th birthday Saturday with a group of friends who arrived on horseback. Races and riding provided entertainment for the guests, with refreshments as an added attraction.

On Monday night the second dinner meeting of the MEN'S BROTHERHOOD of the First Baptist was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended, when Dr. John Prevoll, pastor of the Vanowen Baptist Church and formerly a professor at California Baptist Theological Seminary, presented a program of colored slides and spoke of his missionary travels around the world.

Mrs. GERALD JACK left by plane Friday for Indiana where she was called by the serious illness of her mother.

The adult Bible class of the Community METHODIST Church had their April meeting in the banquet room of the Golden Bull, where they enjoyed a steak dinner and an evening of fellowship.

Durk Haskell was honored as one year older, and dutifully blew out his candles as all sang "happy birthday".

LOST EMPHASES

"There have been men before now," said the teacher, "who got so interested in proving the existence of God that they came to care nothing for God Himself...There have been some who were so occupied in spreading Christianity that they never gave a thought to Christ. Man! Ye see it in smaller matters. Did ye never know a lover of books that with all his first editions and signed copies had lost the power to read them? Or an organizer of charities that had lost all love for the poor? It is the subtlest of all the snares."—C. S. Lewis.
