Eleanor Patricia Fairbank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fairbank of Chatsworth, became the bride of Bernard Gregory Seeley of Sherman Oaks, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Seeley of Norwalk, Conn., on Saturday, June 8 at 10:00 a.m. The ceremony took place at Our Lady of the Valley Church in Canoga Park with Father Hurley officiating. Mrs. Wm. Taggart was the soloist, assisted by Mrs. Hosley at the organ.

The bride wore white chantilly lace and tulle over satin, with a chapel train, high neck, long sleeves of chantilly lace, a fitted bodice and full skirt. A pearl crown held a finger-tip veil of sequins and lace, and the bride carried white orchids and stephanotis. She was given away by her father.

Her Maid of Honor, Irene Colina, wore a yellow organza gown and carried talisman roses. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Richard G. Page and Frances Verke, also wore yellow organza and carried talisman roses.

Bernard A. Seeley, father of the groom, assisted as best man and ushers were Norbert McKnight and Harold Fairbank, brother of the bride. Kathy Brooks, the flower girl, wore mint green tulle over taffeta. Paul Taggart was the ring bearer.

Mrs. H. S. Fairbank of El Paso, Texas, grandmother of the bride, made it a 3-generation occasion.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the newly-remodeled home of the bride's parents, which was a bower of loveliness. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner, and climaxed the champagne and punch luncheon.

"Patti" has been a Chatsworth resident for many years, and is a graduate of Canoga Park High School and Pierce College. She is a member of the FBIA and Lettergirls Club. The groom, a graduate of Wright Technical School, is a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Following a honeymoon trip to northern California, the young people will make their home in Sherman Oaks.
