Fellow Chatsworthians:

The following is being printed to enlighten many of us on the aims of our Chatsworth Youth Foundation:

The Chatsworth Youth Foundation is on its way and in February, 1957, it was incorporated as a non-profit organization. The best way to acquaint you with the aims of this organization is to quote the following paragraph from the Articles of Incorporation.

"To promote the welfare of youth generally and particularly in the area in and around the City of Chatsworth, Los Angeles County, California; to provide, maintain, operate and manage a youth center and facilities and to provide supervised youth recreation, athletics, cultural education and other activities; to promote an active interest in good government in civic affairs, to inspire respect for law, to promote patriotism, and to aid and encourage development of youth."

Membership in the Foundation is open to anyone for an annual fee of one dollar, WHICH ENTITLES YOU TO VOICE YOUR OPINION BY YOUR VOTE. We, the people of Chatsworth, are convinced that this dollar will be the best investment you can possibly make---IN AMERICAN YOUTH!

IF YOU WISH TO BE IN THE FIESTA PARADE write to Bob Pierce, Fiesta Parade Director, 10455 Mason Street, or call Jean Saal at DI 8-3929.

July 4th Fiesta News

Vote for your favorite candidate for Chatsworth Fiesta Queen by purchasing your tickets from her! Those seeking this honor are Susan Pettebone, Charlene Janess, Nancy Mandel, Sharon Wright, LaVerne Parker, and Marcella Maher. Tickets bought from the girls cost $1.00 for 12 ten-cent tickets, and along with being a vote cast for queen also entitles you to drawings for two prizes -- one being a Schwinn bike (boy's or girl's), and the other a portable television set. Fiesta programs will be available at various spots around town beginning July 1, price one thin dime! Purchase of a program may win you a table radio, as this entitles you to be in on the drawing.

The second annual Fiesta is sponsored by the Chatsworth Youth Foundation for the purpose of raising funds for a future youth center for our town, said center to have Club Rooms, swimming pool, tennis courts, and a Jr. League baseball diamond, all of which may be used by all the local youth groups for meetings and recreation.

Officers of the Foundation are Leonard Chenard, Pres.; Chas. W. Janess, Vice Pres. and public relations; Jean Saal, Secretary. More about the Fiesta next week!

SARA HITCHENS and KAREN PORTER won the regional contest of the 4-H Club at San Antonio College in Pomona June 1, with a demonstration entitled "Waste Basket Revolution". Both girls won a gold medal and a ten-dollar check. Home furnishings is their project and they had previously won the local contest at Sylmar, and the county contest at UCLA, prior to their Saturday winning, making them three-time winners and final winners for the entire region from Santa Barbara to San Diego.

The Hale's of HALEDOG E KENNELS will appear on the T.V. show "Panorama Pacific" on Friday, June 21, at 7:30 a.m. This appearance with their two English Setter champions and two young pups will be for the purpose of advertising the Harbor Cities Kennel Club show which will be held at Long Beach later in the month. The Bride

A candlelight double-ring ceremony united Joy Nowlin and Ray Murray in holy Christian matrimony last Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Chatsworth, with Rev. Charles T. Hughes officiating. The service was particularly stirring and deeply significant, as both young people have dedicated their lives to full-time Christian service.

Joy was a radiant bride in full formal nylon net and sheer lace, with long sleeves of chantilly lace and shoulder-length veil, carrying a white Bible with lilies of the valley and white rosebuds. She was given in marriage by her father, Gordon Nowlin.

Marlene Lievense, close friend of the bride from the east, rendered two solos accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Draper - "The Lord's Prayer", followed by "The Wedding Prayer", preceding the ceremony. After vows were exchanged and the couple were kneeling in prayer, Miss Lievense sang "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us".

Mrs. Louise Nowlin, mother of the bride, was gowned in old rose lace, while the groom's mother, Mrs. Opal Murray, wore pink lace, both with appropriate corsages. Maid of Honor, Marlene Lievense, and bridesmaids Sue Nowlin and Pat Ritter were lovely in full formal gowns of mint green satin, carrying pink carnations and rosebuds. The flower girl and ring-bearer were Ella Williford and Russ Williford, the groom's niece and nephew. The groom's attendants were Wayne Murray as best man, Norman Barclay, and Harry Farra.

The church was filled to overflowing with friends and relatives of the young couple, and the reception was held in the church social hall following the ceremony.

The Nowlin family have been residents of Chatsworth Lake for five years, and the groom's family resides in Huntington Park. However, the romance began at Northwestern Bible Institute in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where both were preparing for Christian service. The new Mr. and Mrs. Murray will spend the summer in Huntington Park, and in the fall both will enroll in the Baptist Western Seminary at Portland, Oregon, for further study before embarking into the work the Lord has waiting for them.

Congratulations and God's blessing on two wonderful young people!

The second annual DEMOTION PARTY of the Chatsworth ROTARY CLUB will be held this Saturday, June 22, at 8:00 p.m. at the Chatsworth Center Building. Rotary is unique in that instead of installing new officers, the old ones are demoted! Retiring officers are: Griff McKeeby, pres; Hank Crowley, v. pres; Cliff Parchman, secy; Harold Frost, treas; "Curley" Alward, sgt-at-arms; Bill Dempsey and Ray Hultman, board members. Incoming officers: Bill Dempsey, pres; Griff McKeeby, vice pres; Bill Beaver, secy; Harold Frost, treas; John Konigsfeld, sgt-at-arms; George Schoell and George Hall, Board of Directors.

Promotion exercises for the largest class ever to leave the Chatsworth Elementary School will be held Friday morning, June 21, at 9:00 a.m. Space does not permit printing of the many names, but our best wishes go with our boys and girls as they grow another step and enter Junior High. A promotion party is planned at Chatsworth Center after the exercises, at 11:30. This will also be a luncheon, and all A-6's are invited--so, kids, don't pack a lunch that day!

Welcome to Virginia Lynn from Woodland Hills, who, with her husband Joe Lessley, is opening an Art Studio at 21617 Devonshire. Along with handling paintings and artists materials, she will teach children's classes in oil painting.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church had as their last meeting for the summer a pot-luck picnic at Orcutt Park Tuesday, June 18. Mrs. Marg Hughes, the Pastor's wife, brought the closing devotional of the year until the group convenes again in the fall. Mothers brought their children and a gay time was enjoyed by all.

Dale Evans Rogers will be the speaker at the 11:00 o'clock worship hour of the Community Methodist Church Sunday, June 23, in the absence of Dr. Harold Hayward who is attending the annual Methodist Church Conference at Redlands this week. Members of the choir will assist in the worship service.

On Tuesday, June 25, the Methodist Men's Club will have their annual five-dollar dinner to raise funds to send the MYF group and the Boy Scout troop, which they sponsor, to summer camp. Dr. Hayward will be chief chef.

Jack O'Shea, president of the club, has arranged to have as the speaker the well-known evangelist and gospel singer, Redd Harper. Reservations should be in by Sunday, June 23, so the cooks will know how many to plan for.

The last board meeting for the year of the Chats. Elem. School PTA was held Monday in the school auditorium, bringing to a close the remaining business of the past year. The June Tea was held Friday, June 14, from 2:00 to 4:00 at the Jas. Armstrong home.

NEW POST OFFICE BUILDING FOR CHATSWORTH

Proposals for furnishing new quarters for the Chatsworth Post Office, on a lease basis, will be accepted until July 6, 1957, according to Postmaster T. P. Jennings.

Approximately 3500 square feet of floor space, or a building four times the size of the present location, is desired.

Proposal forms and specifications may be obtained from E. L. Mayfield, Postal Inspector in charge of the project, at Room 701 Federal Building, 312 No. Spring Street, Los Angeles 53, Calif.

Mrs. Scott Bradley installed the new officers of the Chatsworth Woman's Club in a delightful ceremony Tuesday at the club rooms. Each officer received her symbol of office from last year's officer, as she took her pledge. Those taking their oath of office were pres., Mrs. Arthur Young; first vice pres. Mrs. Robert Cooley; sec. vice pres. Mrs. Leslie Hadley and assistant, Mrs. Bruce Garoutte; 3rd vice pres., Mrs. Walter Rasmussen; recording secy, Mrs. Glen Beyer; corr. secy, Mrs. Harry Jensen; financial secy, Mrs. Russell McElvain and assistant, Mrs. P. J. Keith; treas., Mrs. Carl Carter; directors, Mdms. Wm. McGinnis, G. K. Baile, and Annabel Baker; bldg management comm., Mdms. Robert Boggis, Kate Sheridan, and Mrs. Young. Also installed were two appointed officers, Mrs. Sheridan, parliamentarian, and Mrs. R. L. Johnson, historian. Highlight of the meeting was the unveiling of a painting of Mrs. Grace Hageman Armstrong, founder, first president, and president emeritus of the club. It was painted by her step-daughter, Mrs. Irma Attridge of Beverly Hills and was a gift of her husband.

Vacation Bible School

"Pioneering With Christ" is the theme of daily vacation Bible School to be held at the First Baptist Church beginning this Monday, June 24, through July 3. Classes will be in session from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, with many expected to participate.
