Marriage Vows

HELEN JEAN LORITZ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Loritz, was married to Paul David Dodd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dodd of Sherman Oaks in a lovely double-ring ceremony Saturday, September 7, at 3:00 p.m. at The Lady of Our Grace Church in Encino. Father Ignacius officiated at the ceremony and Robert Smart, a fraternity friend of the groom, was the soloist.

The bride wore a bodice of white Chantilly lace with a full skirt of tulle over Chantilly lace, floor length. On her head was a band embroidered with seed pearls from which hung an elbow length veil. She carried white steffanotis and two white orchids in a cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Edward Weaver, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and her bridesmaids were Misses Mary Webster, Sharon Ryan, and Laurie Jordan. All wore matching dresses of coral chiffon with a pink chiffon drape around the neck that hung full length down the back. Each wore a pink velvet headband with a short pink nylon veil, and carried feathered pink carnations in a cascade bouquet.

The groom was attended by Thomas Terrodin as best man, and the ushers were Edmund Loritz, Frank Zinzer, and William Novak.

CARL ARNOLD SPOTTS, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Spotts, took as his bride Connie Marie Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barnes of Canoga Park in a candle light double ring ceremony at the Christ Community Church in Winnetka on Friday evening, September 6, at 8:30 p.m. The Rev. Charles White officiated and Mrs. Donald Lilja was the soloist.

The bride was lovely in a white satin gown with a long train, white beaded crown, and a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet with a white orchid, Lily of the valley, and steffa notis, walking to the altar on the arm of her father.

Marita Spotts, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor, and wore a blue flowered white nylon dress of ballerina length, a blue beaded head-piece with short blue veil, and carried a small bouquet of baby roses and white carnations. Her bridesmaids, Carol Shafer, Claudia Christie, and Sally Scott, were all gowned the same as the maid of honor.

Jim Roesch assisted the groom as best man and James Elia, Robert Shafer, and Douglas Cowle were ushers.

A reception for the 250 guests was held immediately following the

A reception for the 175 guests was held immediately following the ceremony at the Sportsman's Lodge.

The bride is a graduate of Canoga High, and has been a student at UCLA where the couple met. Both will return to college this Fall to complete their courses, the groom in January and the bride in June.

Following a honeymoon trip to Mexico they will make their home in West Los Angeles.

SHIRLEY McELVAIN, bride-elect, was honored with two showers this past week. On Wednesday evening she was guest of honor for a personal shower given by Mrs. Bruce Garoutte and on Thursday evening Mrs. John Semlar entertained with a miscellaneous bridal shower in her honor.

The date for the wedding of Shirley to Grant Beckfield of Canoga Park has been set for Saturday, September 21, at 4:00 p.m. at the Community Methodist Church.

The Santa Susana Chapter of the DAR observed Constitution Week with a special program at Chatsworth Center on Monday at 1:30 p.m., with special representatives of all community organizations present.

The American Legion Post 829 of Woodland Hills posted the colors and led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, while Boy Scout Troop 118 was the color guard. J. C. Hawblitzel, Past Commander of Post 829, read the Bill of Rights. The invocation was given by Rev. Charles Burns, pastor of the Northridge Congregational Church, and the speaker of the afternoon, Ferdinand Mendenhall, publisher of the Van Nuys News, spoke on the "Bill of Rights".

Appropriate music was provided by vocalist Vernon Loomer, followed by a social hour.

Mrs. ANNETTE HUGHES suffered a fall Friday night, receiving a broken hip, thus setting back her recovery from a paralytic stroke. She is in Northridge Hospital.

CYNTHIA MAE GEELHOED made her entrance into the world in a hurry on Friday, September 13, at 4:30 in the morning -- so much in a hurry that papa Wallace was still on the telephone calling Dr. Miner! She weighed in at 7 lbs. 15 oz. and according to eyewitnesses is a perfect little doll. The Geelhoed's, who live at 10414 Variel, have four other children: Neil (11), Wallace (9), Patsy Ann (8) and Esther (2).

The Rev. Mr. D. S. BENNETT, Director of Church Extension of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society, will fill the pulpit at the First Baptist Church for the next two Sundays, morning and evening, in the absence of Chas. T. Hughes, who is vacationing with his family.

The bride was a student at Reseda High School and a member of the Rainbow Girls. The groom was a student at Canoga Park High School and is currently employed at Poolquipt of Van Nuys.

Following a short honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara, the young people are making their home in Canoga Park.

Mrs. EMMA GRAVES, who has been visiting with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Graves of Buttonwillow, plans to visit around with her children for a time. She will make a trip soon to Redding to visit her oldest son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Graves.

GENE SWARTZ was injured, not too seriously we understand, when his car overturned at one of the curves on Santa Susana pass last Sunday evening.

Mrs. AILEEN RANDALL was elected president of the Chatsworth Legion Auxiliary at their meeting a week ago Wednesday night at the new Legion Hall on Topanga Canyon, on the resignation of Mrs. Kay Patrick. Mrs. Randall graciously accepted the office and stated that she appreciated the honor and would fulfill her duties to the best of her ability. Mrs. Ruth Williams was elected vice president to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Randall in accepting the presidency. Both were duly installed following their election.

The routine business meeting followed, conducted by Mrs. Randall, when plans for the fall activity of the Unit were set up.

Mr. and Mrs. CALVIN BAKER of 10323 Independence Ave. announce the engagement of their daughter Dolores to Norman Steffen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steffen of Whittier.
