Vera Fay Skoog of Twin Lakes became the bride of John Joseph Wolf at a beautiful candlelight, double-ring ceremony at First Lutheran Church in Northridge on Saturday, August 31, with the Rev. Henry Erickson officiating.

The bride was lovely in a gown of alencon lace over taffeta which swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a queen's crown of lace and she carried a bouquet of elfin roses and orchids as she walked to the altar on the arm of her father, John Skoog. Mrs. Marvin Bennett was matron of honor, wearing a pink polished cotton gown with matching sash of taffeta and headpiece of pink tulle. The other attendants were Miss Dolores Finlay, Mrs. George Rowe, Mrs. Gerald McDaniels, and Mrs. Joan Lloyd. All wore dresses of lavender polished cotton with pink sashes and matching headpieces of lavender tulle, carrying nosegay bouquets with pink and lavender flowers. The little flower girl, Kay Lee Hoskins, wore a long gown of white eyelet-over-pink and carried a white basket with pink rose petals. The mother of the bride, Mrs. John Skoog, wore a pastel shade of blue lace over taffeta and a jeweled hat of matching shade. Her corsage was pink Cecil Brunner roses.

CHATSWORTH BANK MANAGER

Many have been watching with eager eye for signs of our new bank's opening. While we as yet cannot print the exact date, we do have an item of interest in that David A. Lathan, presently Assistant Manager at Security First National Bank in Reseda, has been appointed Manager of our Chatsworth Branch when it opens. Mr. Lathan started with the bank in April, 1946, as an escrow clerk at Hollywood and Cahuenga Branch. In 1948 he became Administrative Assistant at the Central and Towne Branch, and in 1952 went to the Reseda Branch as Assistant Manager.

He is a native of Duluth, Minnesota, and attended the Duluth Jr. College. He served four years with the Carlson Raiders in the U. S. Marine Corps in World War II.

"Dave" and his wife Eloise live in Northridge with their daughter, Kim Louise (3). He is a member of the Reseda Chamber of Commerce, is the Chairman of the Commerce and Industry Division of the West Valley Community Chest, serves on the Kiwanis Board of Directors, and teaches a Junior Sunday School class at the Granada Hills Presbyterian Church.

The sanctuary of the Methodist Church was beautifully decorated for the wedding of SHIRLEY MacELVAIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacElvain, and Grant Beckfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Beckfield of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Two large baskets of white mums, gladioli, and stock were placed beside the steps and a similar arrangement centered the altar. The tall white tapers on the altar were lit, as were the tapers in the two seven-tiered caldelabra on either side of the altar. The ceremony took place at four in the afternoon, Saturday, September 21, before only a few guests, relatives, and intimate friends of the families.

Dr. Harold Hayward officiated and Mrs. R. L. Johnson was the organist.

The bride was lovely in an afternoon gown of light blue nylon lace over blue satin. She wore blue velvet cross bands on her head with a nose tip veil and blue satin shoes. She carried a white prayer book with a single white yellow-throated orchid, and was attended by Berniece Mushaney, who wore an afternoon gown of beige lace over white satin, a beige cap and white accessories. She carried two beige cymbidium.

The bride's mother was gowned in blue faille, and wore a large blue hat, wearing a pink carnation corsage and blue accessories.

The groom was attended by Joe Miller as best man and Don Pittman was the usher.

Out of town guests were the sister and husband of the groom; Commander and Mrs. Jack Miller and two children of Coronado; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Ferrel of Bakersfield, aunt and uncle of the bride, and old time friends, the bridesmaid, Berniece Mushaney, and her mother Mrs. Marie Jones of Modesto.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, where a turkey and ham buffet supper was served, topped by the beautiful two-tiered wedding cake.

The bride, who has lived her entire life in Chatsworth, is a graduate of the local grade school, of Canoga Park High, and Valley College. She has been working for several months at Rocketdyne, where she met Mr. Beckfield.

The groom, who has been out here from Pennsylvania for only a year, is a graduate in engineering from Carnegie Tech.

Following a two-week honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and points north, the young people will make their home in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. DITTO became the happy parents of a baby girl Saturday, September 21. She weighed 6 lbs. 2 oz. and was named Georgia. The Dittos have four other children, all boys, who are happy to welcome a little sister. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heynemann.

JONREED LAURITZEN, local author, is now working on a book at the Huntington Hartford Foundation, where he plans to be located for about six months with occasional visits to his home here. His latest book "The Young Mustangers" was given a fine review in the book section of a recent edition of the Los Angeles Times.

A fiesta and barbecue was held at the RAN-CHO SAN ANTONIO on DeSoto Sunday the 15th to raise funds to enlarge and improve the facilities. It is sponsored by Knights of Columbus.

Imagine towering Redwoods of your own, water from a spring, and lots and lots of room for your horses. Such a place is the ED HANNEL'S, former residents who now live midway between Santa Cruz and Los Gatos. The Roscoe Harris's and Robert Werren's visited with them this summer, renewing friendships.

Mr. and Mrs. JAMES KIMBLE, son Ted and his friend, Bob Davis, have returned from a vacation trip that took them on a tour of the National Parks in California and on to Reno to visit with relatives.

The CHATSWORTH COMMUNITY COUNCIL was organized last Thursday evening with representatives from 12 organizations present. All organizations or interested citizens who wish to make Chatsworth "a better place to live" should have a representative and/or alternate at the next meeting which will be Wednesday, October 16. Put this date on your calendar now!! Details will follow. For further information call George Lorbeer, DI 8-6114 (Mon. or Wed. evenings preferably).

Mr. and Mrs. LEVE JACOBSON of Tujunga, former residents, visited here Sunday, attending the Methodist Church where they met many old time friends.

Mrs. Aileen Randall, president of the Legion Auxiliary, in company with Mdms. Ruth Ulery, Virginia Somerville, Hildur Berkemeyer, and Enid Wendt, attended the recent 20th District meeting at Saugus recently.

Miss FRANCES SHAW, who suffered a slight heart attack Wednesday, was in the hospital for a few days for special care and observation, but is now at home where she is continuing to convalesce.

Mr. and Mrs. S.R. EWALT had as dinner guests recently Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grether and four children of Van Nuys. The Grether family has since moved to Santa Clara, as Mr. Grether has been sent to the Sunnysvale plant to work. Mrs. Grether is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson and have many friends in Chatsworth.

The DEDICATION SERVICE of the Chatsworth Foursquare Church, 10210 Canoga Avenue, will be held this Sunday, September 29, at 2:00 in the afternoon. There will be special music for the occasion, followed by a dedicatory message delivered by Dr. Earl W. Dorrance, Supervisor of Foursquare Churches in the Southern California District. A wonderful service is anticipated. Our community is fortunate, indeed, to have servants of God such as Carl Burns and his wife Georgine ministering to our spiritual needs.

Mrs. ANN SMITH, mother of Mrs. Leroy McCulloch, is now at home convalescing following a stay in the hospital for a setting with a steel pin on her hip, which was broken in a fall a couple of weeks ago.

The SYD WALKER'S and son Bobby visited son Tom at Fort Ord, who is receiving basic training for Guided Missiles.

in Minnesota and has served with the U. S. Navy. He will resume his duties as a Deputy Sheriff upon their return. The popular young couple will be at home to their many friends at 8577 Remmet Street in Canoga Park.

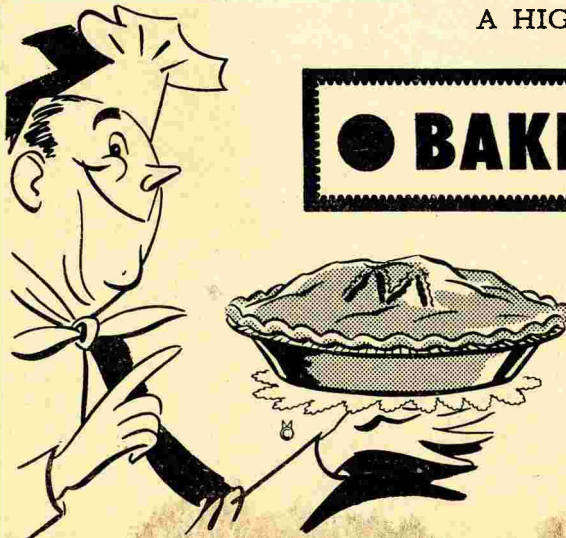

MRS. ANNETTE HUGHES has been moved from Northridge Hospital to Villa Maria Sanitarium, where she will be happy to receive friends.
