Warning

Chatsworth has been added to the growing list of towns that have been the victims of the wave of church burglaries in recent weeks.

An attempt was apparently thwarted on Tuesday night as the panel on the office door of the Community Methodist Church had been pried loose, but no entrance was made. However, on Friday night the door on the north porch was pried open and the office door similarly opened. Fortunately no money or anything of value is kept there, so there was no loss.

Police were notified, and adding this evidence to other that they have, it is hoped an end will be put to this practice very soon. Police officers will now patrol the church in their nightly rounds.

This information is given that our other churches may be warned not to leave anything of value in the church buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. DON GOETSCH recently enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Goetsch's brother, Rev. Jack Anderson of Washington, who is serving as the "sky pilot" for men in the lumber camps. Rev. Anderson baptized the infant twin sons of the Goetsch's at the Comm. Methodist Church during his stay, and also spoke before the youth and adults at a union evening meeting, giving an inspiring testimony.

Let not the promises of fine feasting overshadow the true spirit of Thanksgiving Day ... to give thanks to God for our blessings!

"Since man apart from God is but a mal creature, our greatest joys, our satisfactions, come in our relationships.
So I thank Him this Thanksgiving seas sins forgiven, for a Great High Pries with a feeling of my infirmities, for privilege of being a tool in His migh for His guidance, for His ear that he prayers, for His arm on which to lean precious Word in which He speaks to u itly, and for the blessed, blessed he soon coming!

"I thank Him, more than all else, safety. In the past I have known whe to be afraid, but now I know that I a ly and perfectly secure. I feel that come into a safe harbor. Nothing, at nothing, not my own deeds nor those c not the works of devils, not circumst nor so-called fate, nothing can separ from the love of Christ. Pain, sorro reavement can come, shattered nerves can be my lot, death can even put my the grave, but whatever comes, it pas through His tender hands, and so I ca because it comes from HIM! Nothing c me out of heaven. Just these few han to live, these few burdens to bear, a to be forever with HIM. Thankful? My are wet with happy tears. Why He giv this to a poor creature like me I do

STORE HOURS

Sunday thru Thursday
8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Friday 8:30 to 8:00

Saturday 8:30 to 7:00

The ROTARY ANNS (wives of members of our local Rotary Club) held their November meeting at the home of Thelma Dempsey, with feature of the evening a Turkey Raffle. What could be more appropriate at the home of the Dempsey's! No monthly meeting is planned for December, but in its place will be a Bingo Party on December 11 at the home of Marie Trafficanda.

Little (oops - shouldn't say that - she's a big girl now!) LINDA HYLAND on Jordan Avenue underwent a tonsillectomy yesterday at 6:30 a.m. at Northridge Hospital.

GERRY LUDLOW was treated to a sumptuous steak dinner by his mother last Thursday in celebration of his 16th birthday. Mrs. Ludlow also included her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, daughter Alice Ann, and Joanne Straka in this evening of dining out for her son.

DALE (EVANS) ROGERS underwent surgery this morning at St. Joseph Hospital in Burbank.

Two birthdays to talk about: WM. JANESS, of Jordan Avenue, celebrated his 75th birthday last Saturday, while LESTER SWARTZ of Devonshire celebrated his 72nd birthday at the home of his daughter, Lila Schepler, on Sunday.

Copies of the song "Thanksgiving" by Betty Straka are now on sale at Adrien's House of Music, West Valley Letters, Valley Book & Bible Store (in Van Nuys), and also from Charleen Janess. Price 35¢ plus tax.

Mrs. G. O. VIERTEL of L. A., former resident, visited this past weekend with friends Mrs. Margaret Putrick and Mrs. Minnie Lanhahn.
