WEST VALLEY LETTERS

CHRISTMAS LIST

By Margaret E. Sangster

Give a gift of laughter,
Give a gift of song,
Give a gift of sympathy
To last a whole life long.
Give a cheerful message,
Give a helping hand,
Tell your sorry neighbor
That you understand!

Give a newsy letter
To a far-off friend;
Give a garden flower
With the book you lend.
Wash the supper dishes,
Help to dust the room;
Give a smile to leaven
Someone's hour of gloom!

Give a gift of sharing,
Give a gift of hope;
Light faith's gleaming candle
For the ones who grope
Slowly through the shadows.
Sweeten dreary days
For the lost and lonely.
Give yourself, always!

Here's wishing you a holiday in tune with all the best things of life. May your home ring with the happy sounds of laughter, music and merry-making.

We'd like to deck your Christmas tree with life's loveliest ornaments . . . enduring love and friendship, good fortune, good health and much happiness.

CONGRATULATIONS!

A beautiful wedding Sunday, Dec. 15 united CLAYTON FERRERO of Chatsworth Street, and JAN HAENKE of Northridge in holy matrimony. The Reverend Donald Snyder read the marriage vows at the Church of the Resurrection in Canoga Park

Jan wore a full-length white satin gown with lace panels and seed pearl neckline, and a Swedish crown with seed pearls. She carried red roses.

Matron of Honor, Beverly Chenard, wore red velvet, and carried a poinsetta with white mums. The bridesmaids, Grace Ferrero, Sonia Wooley, and Delores Baker, carried white muffs with poinsettas, and were gowned in red velvet.

Johnny Ferrero assisted the groom as best man, and the ushers were Rudy Dotta, R. Franco, and Leonard Chenard. Flower girl was Debbie Ferrero, ring-bearer was Richard Belanger, and soloist was Mr. Robert Garret.

A reception for about 300 guests followed the lovely wedding, and was held at Chatsworth Hall.

The young couple, both well known in Chatsworth, are both graduates of Canoga High. They plan to make their home on Chatsworth Street upon return from a honeymoon about Christmas time.

Our very best wishes for a future chock-ful of happiness!

The Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H CLUB members held their annual Christmas dinner meeting Friday, Dec. 6, at Chatsworth Center. Ninety-four dinners were served to members, parents, and friends, and Mrs. Gerald Jack was chairman of the dinner. The room was decorated with a life-sized Santa Claus, a Christmas tree, and boughs of red berries. Clothing was collected to send to the Indian Center in Los Angeles.

Donna Wassmouth reported on the Club's visit to the Northridge Kiwanis Club meeting on Thursday. This club and the Chatsworth Woman's Club are co-sponsors of the club.

Later Donna, with Laurie Bowman, Dean Lamb, Nancy Mandel, Karen Porter, and Sara Hitchens, gave project reports, and Bill Downs and Roger Howard gave their County winning demonstration on electricity. The leader, Milton Porter, gave a short review of the year's progress to date.

The program for the evening was put on by the Jr. Leader project with Laurie Bowman talking on "Projects and How to Choose Them"; Alden Billitti on "How to Fire-proof materials"; Pinky Garman, "Stairsteps to the Stars, explaining ranks and awards; and Sandy Brewster on "A Junior Leader's First Home Visit. Karen Fortune explained the 4-H uniform & where, when, and how to wear it.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of Christmas carols, with Mrs. Hubert Lamb at the piano.

The choir of the Chatsworth METHODIST CHURCH, under the direction of William Little, will present their annual Christmas Cantata in the church sanctuary on Sunday, Dec. 22, at 7:30 p.m. This year they are presenting "The Babe of Bethlehem", and a coridal invitation is given to everyone interested to attend.

The annual Christmas program of the Sunday School will be given on Friday evening, Dec. 20, with Mrs. Val Wangsgard in charge. After the presentation of the program in the sanctuary, Santa will appear at White Oak Hall to present boxes of candy to all. The children are bringing gifts of small coloring books, toys, etc., for the children at Gen. Hospital.

We're singing out with a cheery greeting, with a hearty wish that the holidays will bring you many happy hours, and with sincere thanks for your patronage and good will.

'TIL CHRISTMAS

HERE COMES SANTA CLAUS!! The Chatsworth American Legion Post will hold their annual Christmas Party for the children of the community on this Saturday, Dec. 21, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m., at Chatsworth Hall on Devonshire.

Santa will be there, and 'round the Christmas tree will be candy and gifts for all the children.

The program will be put on as usual by Leslie's Dancing School.

All boys and girls pre-school and through elementary age are invited to join in the festivities. See that your child doesn't miss this outstanding annual event!

Tell the advertisers you saw their Christmas greeting in the Grapevine.

Mrs. SARAH MANNY of 21431 Mayan Drive will entertain the United Spanish War Auxiliary presidents of 1954 at her home on Sunday. Mrs. Manny was president of Van Nuys Auxiliary U.S.W.V. in 1954-55. A turkey dinner will be served, and there will be a gift exchange after a short meeting.

AHLSTROM'S SERVICE

The 91st birthday anniversary of MARK WHITE on Saturday was celebrated quietly at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Iverson of Topanga Canyon Blvd. with a family dinner. Even at this age he is an avid reader and keeps up with the news of the day through his TV. Serious illness this past year has kept him confined to his home, but he is much improved now. We believe that he is Chatsworth's oldest resident, and the community offers hearty congratulations to this "grand old man".

For Those Who Care

The annual Christmas program will be presented at the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH on DeSoto Sunday evening, Dec. 22, at 7:30 p.m. Boys and girls of the Sunday School will have a part, and the newly organized church choir under the capable direction of John Schultz will provide the Christmas music. "THE OLD. OLD STORY" in song and silhouette, was presented by the Bradley singers as the program for the annual Christmas meeting of the Chatsworth Woman's Club Tuesday, with Mrs. Scott Bradley directing and Mrs. Hubert Lamb at the piano. Members of the chorus are Mmes. Edith French, Mary Cartwright, Verna Young, Viola Cook, Helen Fladwed, Ruby Campbell, Helen Furubotten, Gladys Miller, and Thelma Ewalt.

Mrs. Mina Wilson was narrator

for the candle lighting service which preceded the Christmas breakfast and Mrs. Gladys Miller narrated "The Old, Old Story", which was presented following the Breakfast. Mrs. Joseph Jurnecka, Art Chairman, made the scenes which were silhouetted with the live actors from the Canoga Park Junior Woman's Club, Mmes. Lou Prock, Gene Hemstreet, Katie Owens, Wanda Dearden, and Mary Henneman.

The program was truly inspiring and left all those present with the thought that even with all the commercialism of Christmas there still are those who "keep Christ in Christmas".

The tables were prettily decorated for the luncheon with arrangements of white styro-foam bases with appropriate figurines, candles, and snow covered branches, all of which were made by the Philanthropy Chairman, Mrs. Bruce Garoutte, and were later sold for the benefit of the philanthropy fund.

The club voted to purchase and decorate a Christmas tree for the Lohman School and to provide a wheel chair for a crippled boy, and also gave their annual donation for gifts for hospitalized veterans.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. R. E. Crouch and her committee. The next meeting will be Jan. 14, 1958.

THE CHRISTMAS HEART

Lord, let me keep a Christmas heart,
That, 'mid the tumult of the throng,
Still hears the echo, clear and sweet,
Of angels' song!

Lord, let me keep a Christmas heart,
That hears and sees another's need,
And strives each day to follow Thee
In word and deed!

Lord, let me keep a Christmas heart,
To light with joy the children's eyes,
And know the Christ Child, though He come
In humble guise!

So may I know the joy within
The wise men, coming from afar,
Knew, when at last, o'er Bethlehem
They saw Thy star!

So may I keep Thy birthday, Lord!
In all I say, in all I do!
A Christmas heart of faith and love
The whole year through!
