Rogers-Rose Nuptials

CHERYL DARLENE ROGERS, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers, Chatsworth's Honorary Mayors, became the bride of GEORGE WILLIAM ROSE, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Rose of San Jose, at St. Nicholas Episcopal Church in Encino February 14 at 8:00 p.m., Rev. Harley Wright Smith officiating.

Cheryl was gowned in empire white satin with a short Irish Lace jacket, and a pearl tiara held her bridal veil with chapel train. She carried white orchids with a prayerbook. Her Maid of Honor was her sister, Linda Lou, who, along with the six bridesmaids, wore a ballerina-length top, white accessories, and carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations.

Assisting the groom was his brother, "Bud" Rose, as Best Man, and the little ring-bearer also did his share. Six ushers seated the guests.

Dodie and Debbie Rogers were precious as flower girls in white organza ballerina-length; both are Cheryl's sisters.

Tom Fox, brother of the bride, sang "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by the church organist.

The bride attended Kemper Hall school in Kenosha, Wisconsin, and is a graduate of Canoga Park High. The groom is a graduate of San Fernando High School and City College, presently employed as a surveyor with a Woodland Hills contracting company.

Approximately 500 guests attended the reception at Encino Community Center to offer their congratulations to this wonderful and popular couple.

Following a "top secret" honeymoon they will be at home to their many friends in Granada Hills.

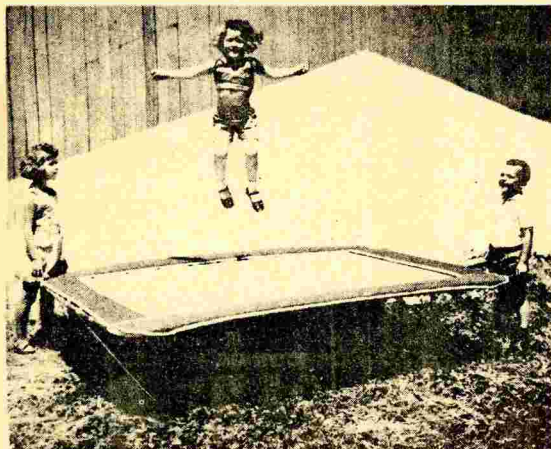

Our best wishes are extended for many, many years of happiness!

Plans for the AMERICAN RED CROSS CAMPAIGN locally were formulated this week at our Security-First Nat. Bank. The 1958 goal will be $1,185 general chairman Dave Latham announced, a figure of $341 greater than last year's achievement.

Mrs. Harold Sunde, Mrs. Robert Cooley, and Mrs. Florence B. Shaw were named district chairmen for the campaign. The campaign will begin February 28 and Red Cross officials predict Chatsworth to make another fine showing as they did last year in obtaining the Martin Pollard Trophy for achieving 108% of the quota.

CHARLOTTE BERKENKAMP of Northridge Road, was lady Singles Champion with 195 x 200 and winner of High Lady title in the Mint Handicap with 96 x 100 at the Sahara Gun Club's Tournament in Las Vegas.

Achievements noted in the past year for the CHATSWORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE are as follows:

Payment of the Chamber's portion of the mortgage on Chats. Center.

Work on the long-continuing project of traffic lights, begun some years ago. Lights now are promised at Devonshire and Topanga.

Opposition to the Chatsworth Redi-Mix concrete batching plant in Santa Susanna Pass.

Opposition to the United By-Chemical Co. dump in Santa Susanna Pass.

Inviting Arrow-Rock Co. to take out membership in the Chamber.

Continued work on a park for the community.

Opposition to development of Devonshire and Winnetka area as a shopping center.

Voted financial support to Chatsworth Jr. Baseball League.

Little LARRY BLIGH (son of the Shopping Cart Bligh's) came thru like a trooper last Friday, when his tonsils were removed at Encino Hospital. Mighty fine boy, that Larry.

The CUB SCOUTS will hold their annual Blue and Gold dinner tonight at Chatsworth Hall at 6:30 p.m. This is a pot-luck dinner for the Cubs, their parents, and families.

Dr. Louis Haselfeld, Cubmaster, is planning several interesting program events including a dog act by Billy Watkins. Awards will be made to the boys who have made their necessary requirements.

Tuesday night the METHODIST MEN held their annual five-dollar dinner, proceeds of which will be used to send Boy Scout Troop 26, which the group sponsors, to summer camp, and to also send the young people of the church to summer camps and institutes.

The program for the evening featured Max Terhune, famous western star of the Range Busters series.

Mr. and Mrs. PAUL EATON and family of Van Nuys, formerly of Chats., moved last week to Santa Clara. Mr. Eaton has been sent to the plant at Sunnyvale. Mrs. Eaton was formerly Pauline Wilkins.

Mr. and Mrs. BILL HENRY returned from Washington, D.C. last week, and hope to be here for a couple of months, soaking up our Calif. sunshine. Mr. Henry is one of our noted residents. He was named Theta Sigma Phi's winner of the Printer's Devil award last November. The award was made by Madelyn Push Martin, writer for the "I Love Lucy" TV show, and was given "for distinguished service in the field of journalism and to the community."

He received his formal education at Los Angeles High School and Occidental College, also attending the University of Sidney, Australia, and has received many honorary degrees.

He has been sports columnist and editor, feature writer, and war correspondent for the L. A. Times for many years, and is currently its Washington columnist. His "By the Way" column is daily reading fare for thousands of readers. But with all this he is happiest when he can spend time at his "By the Way" ranch in Chatsworth, watching the progress of his grove and gardens, enjoying his family.

HOWARD MORROW of Morrow Shoe Repair became something of a hero last week, when he was instrumental in the rescue of a school bus full of children which was snowbound in one of those east coast blizzards we've been reading so much about. He picked up the "May Day" call (radio ham lingo for dire emergency) on his set and in turn relayed the information back to another operator who got help to the stranded bus. How about that -- all the way to Chatsworth and back again!

REV. GEORGE RICHMIRE, who was pastor of the Chatsworth Methodist Church in 1940 and 1941, passed away in the Santa Monica Hospital Wed., February 12, after a brief illness, at the age of 83. Rev. Richmire had been retired from active ministry for several years. He lost his wife while serving this pastorate, but later married again. He leaves his widow, Ann, a son, George, and two daughters, Pauline and Mrs. Laura Luckenmeyer. Interment was at Santa Monica.

Guest speaker at the COVENANT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 10332 Santa Susanna Blvd., this Sunday morning will be the Rev. Edward F. Murphy of the Gospel Outreach Mission Board, who is a missionary appointee to Argentina. Don't miss his messages, both at the Sunday School hour and Morning Worship Service.

Chatsworth welcomes Colleen and Joe Wagoner, who soon will open our first dress shop at 21735 Devonshire! Watch for their Open House announcement in a forthcoming issue of The Grapevine -- door prizes, refreshments, the works!!! The new shop will carry styles for teen-agers, misses, and also half-sizes; lingerie and sportswear, too.

BROWNIE TROOP 1381 is participating in the Girl Scout Cookie Sale for the first time this year. The troop, led by Mrs. Joan Faskin and Mrs. Kathleen Turquand, was organized last June and is sponsored by the Chatsworth Rotary Club. The girls participating are Leslee Spencer, Nancy Todd, Nancy Snook, Debbie Crouch, Katie Miner, Georgia Redonet, Carrie Vincent, Clara Lynn Koller, Marian Moon, Kathy Turquand, Linda Johnson, Gayle Cook, Becky Lorbeer, Kathleen Stricklin, Susie Faskin, Sandra Payseno, and Gloria Golden.

The girls with their leaders have also recently taken a train trip from Moorpark through scenic Simi Valley and the Santa Susanna Pass into Northridge.
