Woman's Club

Mrs. Frederick W. Spencer, president of the Sierra-Cahuenga District of the Federation of Woman's Clubs, was one of the special guests entertained by the Chatsworth Woman's Club on their Federation and Reciprocity Day last Tuesday. Other official guests were Mrs. Fred Wilson, first vice president; Mrs. Bonnie Burton, financial secretary; and from the local club, Mrs. Guy Clarke, federation and reciprocity chairman who introduced all the guests; Mrs. Harold Sunde, scholarship chairman; Mrs. Scott Bradley, music chairman; and Mrs. Kate Sheridan, legislation.

Other guests were presidents of various Valley Clubs.

The president, Mrs. Arthur Young, presided, and presented Mrs. Spencer, who brought greetings from the District, and gave dates of interest ahead for members.

Mrs. Leslie Hadley, the program chairman, presented Mrs. Hubert Lamb and Mrs. Kate Sheridan in a group of three two-piano duets. The surprise feature of the afternoon was the Bradley choral group, which for this performance had turned dramatic and presented the humorous play, "The Baker's Dozen" by Haney, directed by Mrs. Bradley. A delicious luncheon concluded the meeting.

CHAMBER MEETING

Sam Ball of the Bureau of Engineering of the Department of Public Works here in the Valley was the guest speaker at the recent Chamber of Commerce meeting which was presided over by President Ben Boydston. He gave a resume of the various steps that must be taken in the Department once an application has been received regarding streets, curbs, sidewalks, etc., and why it takes so long for action to be realized.

Polk Jennings, Postmaster of our Chatsworth Post Office, gave an informative and interesting talk on plans for the new Post Office. While the exact site has not as yet been announced, he promises the new building will be modern in every detail and will be a credit to our community.

Several new committees were set up during the meeting, among them a business men's committee for the purpose of promoting better business in our town, and is headed by Hank Watson. We hope to see great things from this group!

The MISSIONARY SOCIETY of the First Baptist Church of Chatsworth will hold an evening meeting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Charles T. Hughes, 9758 Penfield, this Friday evening. Jane Gahs, General Mission of the L. A. Baptist City Missionary Society, will be guest speaker.

COLLEEN'S FEMININE FASHIONS on Devonshire (see ad page 7) wishes to thank the many friends and well-wishers who sent greetings and flowers on their recent opening. The store was a bower of loveliness, and several Chatsworth residents happily became the recipients of door prizes, as follows: A dress to Judy Stollings and also to Lillian Schep-ler, a Joyce Stevens blouse to Thursal Roat-cap, a sweater to Joe Mussack (not for him though, we'll bet!), pedal pushers for Mrs. Jack Haupt, 3 pairs of hose to Mrs. R. B. Byerley, and a bra each to Bernice Carlson and Marjorie Wassmouth.

MRS. DAVID FULWIDER, who underwent serious major surgery on her hip sockets last week, is reported to have come through the operation very successfully. She will be hospitalized for a month or longer at St. Joseph's Hospital in Burbank.

MRS. ROBERT COOLEY has received special care in the hospital for several days due to an infected thumb

A meeting of the SAN FERNANDO VALLEY GOAT SOCIETY was held Monday night, March 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson of 9650 Farralalone.

Extensive plans were made for the show which will be held on June 8 at Laurelwood Acres. Anyone having a buck from a small kid to an old buck is invited to enter it in the show. It will be an all-day affair and those attending are asked to bring their lunch. Coffee and soft drinks will be served by the club. A cordial invitation is offered to the public to attend. Anyone desiring further information may contact Vernon A. Hill, DI 0-5030, who is the show chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. EARL RUSH entertained with a reception Sunday afternoon, honoring their newly married son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rush of Rosamund. The fifty guests were relatives of both sides of the family, many of whom met either the bride or the groom for the first time. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe DelGraso of Rosamund.

The hosts served a delicious buffet supper with the traditional wedding cake, and the newlyweds were pictured in the cutting of the cake and other events during the afternoon. They received many lovely gifts which they opened before the admiring guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Rush are living in Rosamund, near Edwards Air Force Base, where Mr. Rush is stationed and Mrs. Rush is employed.

Several members of the local Brownie Troop attended the birthday celebration given for them Saturday at the Shrine Auditorium by the May Company. Over 1500 little girls from troops throughout the southland enjoyed the wonderful show that was planned for them.

On Sunday the Brownies, Girl Scout Troops, and the Mariners, attended the First Methodist Church in a body. Several girls assisted in the candle lighting, the worship service, and the ushering. Dr. Harold Hayward, the pastor, preached a sermon for them on the subject "Counting on Whom?"

Mr. and Mrs. EDDIE JOHNSON and Mrs. and Mrs. CHARLES JOHNSON enjoyed dinner out and a showing of "Around the World in 80 Days" Monday night in a joint celebration of the birthdays of Mrs. Eddie Johnson which occurred March 7, and of Charles Johnson, which occurs March 29.

JOE STUART, brother of Mrs. Carlous Dorman, returned to his home in Illinois last week after spending six months in the southland, visiting relatives. Much of the time he spent with Mr. and Mrs. Dorman. On Sunday Mr. Dorman's sister, Mrs. Jessie Martin of Illinois, arrived for a few weeks visit.

JONREED LAURITZEN has returned from his six-month stay at Huntington-Hartfore, where he has been working on his latest novel. He is now using as his studio the guest house on the ranch, recently vacated by his sister and niece, Mrs. Miriam Clark and daughter, who moved north several weeks ago.

LYNN MCLEAN entertained a group of her teen-age friends for a party at her home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. VICTOR COOK and family returned to their home in Oregon last week after several months stay in Chatsworth, their former home.

The Chatsworth LEGION AUXILIARY entertained the 20th District President, Audrey Conley, at their meeting Wednesday night at the Legion Building. She brought greetings from the District and talked on the coming Poppy Day. She also stressed that members are urgently needed, especially among the younger women, to make sure that the work among our veterans will be carried on after the older members can no longer serve.

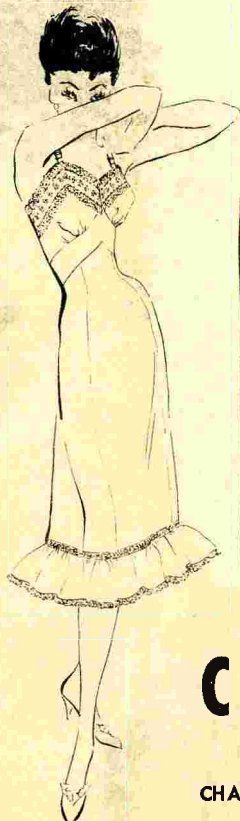

Delicious refreshments were served after the meeting, from tables decorated in the St. Patrick motif.

Mrs. Aileen Randall, president, presided, and announced the annual birthday dinner for the Legion on Wednesday, March 26, at the Legion Building. Mrs. Katherine Slater is the chairman of the pot luck dinner, to which legionnaires and their families are invited.

Another date of interest ahead is the annual pre-Easter baked food sale of the Unit April 5.

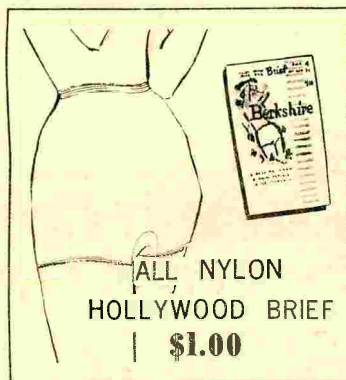

Mrs. Frank Michael, mother of Mrs. GERALD JACK, returned to her home in Indiana last week after a two-month visit at the Jack home.

God does care! Give Him a chance.

Drummond says: "God has a life plan for every human life. In the eternal counsels of His will, when He arranged the destiny of every star and every sand grain and every grass blade and each of those tiny insects which live but for an hour, the Creator had a thought for you and me."

Mrs. WAYNE COOK was honored on her birthday Monday with a birthday dinner, with stuffed pigeon as the piece de resistance, given by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cook. Her husband and the three Ray Cook children were other guests.
