An Easter Message

The glory of the Easter message shines brightly through every cloud, lifts every heart with its inspiring promise of life eternal. As you attend church on Easter morning, may all the abiding joys and blessings of this glad-some season surround you and your family.

SPECIAL SERVICES at Chatsworth churches this week are as follows:

MAUNDY THURSDAY, 7:30 p.m., the First Methodist Church will hold communion services.

GOOD FRIDAY, 1:30 p.m., united services will be held at the First Methodist Church. Rev. Chas. T. Hughes of the First Baptist Church will bring the message.

EASTER SUNDAY, 5:30 a.m., Sunrise Services will be held at the Roy Rogers Ranch (weather permitting! Otherwise, in the sanctuary of the Methodist Church). Rev. Harshfield of the Congregational Church will bring the message, and the Baptist Church will provide the special music. Go west on Lassen to the end of the street. The Rogers' gate is to the left of the cemetery gate.

EASTER SUNDAY, 10:00 a.m. the Foursquare Church will hold a special Easter Sunday School program immediately following Sunday School. In the evening service Dr. Charles Walken, teacher at Life Bible College, will bring the message.

TWO MORNING SERVICES will be held at both the Baptist Church and the Methodist Church, 8:30 a.m. and 11.

On Friday, March 28, as a Pre-Easter vacation treat, the CHATSWORTH PTA ROOM MOTHERS served home-made Easter decorated cupcakes to all the students and school personnel.

Following the Easter Sunrise Service, a breakfast will be served at White Oak Hall for Methodist church members and their guests. A nominal fee will be asked to defray expenses.

The Canoga Park DEMOCRATIC CLUB plans a gala event at Chatsworth Women's Club, Topanga and Devonshire, on April 26. All West Valley Democrats are invited to the party which will be an evening of dancing, refreshments, and prizes. Tickets may be obtained by calling DI 7-0775, DI 4-3127, or DI 7-9566.

DAVID RILEY of Variel Avenue is enjoying a two-week leave from the Naval Base at San Diego, following his two months of boot training. He expects to be sent to San Francisco following his leave.

Mr. and Mrs. DON FERRELL and four children, Tim, Tom, Larry, and Nancy, motored to the Colorado Friday after school, where they enjoyed a holiday vacation until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. RAY L. JOHNSON, JR., and son Kurt, attended the monthly dinner at the McKinley Home for the Kiwanis Club, which sponsors the school, and for the board of directors of the school. Mr. Johnson is a member of the board of directors. The boys put on the program for the evening and many of them were presented with their sports awards.

John: Hey, you know, yesterday we celebrated my uncle's 103rd birthday!

Frank: No kiddin'! One hundred and three!

John: Yeah-- too bad he couldn't be there though -- he died when he was thirty years old.

KENT ROBERT FITZGERALD, son of Virginia Lynn and Gerald Fitzgerald of Chatsworth Art Studio, took as his bride on March 22 Patsy Elaine Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price of Burbank. The bride wore orange ice voile, carried pink and white carnations, and was attended by Marlinda Fitzgerald as maid of honor. The double-ring ceremony was performed in Las Vegas and witnessed by a few close family members. The groom is with the U. S. Navy, and his bride is making her home in Burbank at present.

CHATSWORTH PTA members having their share of talent was brought to light during the 31st District PTA Arts and Crafts Show. Mrs. Andrew Erickson, mother of Mrs. George Cruse, won a Dist. First Award for her hand-weaving. Other first place awards went to: Mr. John Masters, woodcarving of "The Last Supper"; Mrs. James Pipp, copper enameling; Mrs. Chas. Hills, doll clothes; Mrs. C.L. Kenworthy, braided rug. Second place winners were Mrs. Ralph Roat, cap, Mrs. Dolores Michelon, Mrs. Andrew Erickson, Mrs. C.L. Kenworthy.

The CHATSWORTH AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY will have their annual pre-Easter food sale Saturday, April 5, next to the post office on Topanga.

The Unit hosted the Legionaires and their families in their annual birthday dinner Wednesday night at the Legion building. Mrs. Katherine Slater was chairman for the delicious pot-luck dinner.

Following the dinner the members and guests were entertained by the four Cruse sisters, Karen, Virginia, Mimi, and Kathy, in a group of vocal numbers, accompanied by their mother Mrs. Ingrid Cruse.

The Auxiliary presented the Legion with three safety road signs titled with the Chatsworth Legion Post, as a birthday gift from the Unit.

President Mrs. Aileen Randall presided over the evening.

The recent meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church was presided over by Mrs. Fred Palmer. The program, presented by Mrs. Edward Ahlstrom, was on the subject "The March of Missions in Healing". Dr. Harold Hayward was made an honorary member of the society and was presented with a pin.

Mrs. James R. Haney, chairman of literature and drama for the Sierra-Cahuenga District of the Woman's Clubs, will be the entertainer for the April 8 program of the Chatsworth Woman's Club. Mrs. Haney was the author of the play "A Baker's Dozen", presented at the club last month by the Bradley Chorus. She is also a columnist for the Valley Times. Another enjoyable part of the program will be a group of three vocal numbers by our own Mrs. Helen Fladwed, accompanied by Mrs. Hubert Lamb.

Luncheon will be served before the program by Mrs. Roach and her committee.

At the meeting held last Tuesday Mrs. Kate Sheridan, Mrs. Percy Keith, and Mrs. Edmund Loritz were elected to the nominating committee and a secret nomination of officers was made by the members.

Friends and patrons of W. K. (Buck) WASHBURN will be saddened to learn of his serious illness which has necessitated his admittance to Northridge Hospital. Plumbing calls will be handled as efficiently as possible by his son during this time. Meantime, our prayers are with him for a speedy recovery.

Welcome to our fair city, Chatsworth Auto Parts! The three gentlemen there to serve you are Wm. J. Edwards, Pete Pellegrini, and Don Schoonmaker, all of Glendale. They will sell both wholesale and retail, and will carry nationally advertised brands.

Teacher: "What's a metaphor?"
Pupil: "To keep the cows in, of course!"

The monthly meeting of the CHATSWORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE will be held Tuesday evening, April 8, at 8:00 p.m. President Ben Boydston will preside.

The new Congregational church reports a fine opening service Palm Sunday. A 20-voice Youth Choir from the First Congregational Church of Glendale provided the musical inspiration.

Young people from the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH of Chatsworth are having a busy week! Monday both Jr. Highs and Senior Highs attended the Valley Youth Roundup Skate Party at Northridge, the hall having been rented especially for church groups, and several hundred young people participated; Tuesday is of course the weekly meeting night for the newly-organized Boys
