HELP!

Chatsworth received much notoriety via radio and Valley newspapers last week due to the predicament of Mrs. Bennett of Chatsworth St.

On her way to school last Thursday morning (Mrs. Bennett is a schoolteacher) she attempted to cross the wash on Chatsworth St. between Canoga and Variel in her little MG and was lifted off the road into its swirling waters. Fortunately Mr. Clifford Coe was up and about in the wee small hours of early dawn, and yelling for assistance from Mr. Earl Ulery they threw her a rope and brought her to shore. Her purse containing valuable papers, etc., is either hidden in the mire or still travelling on. The car was extricated from its watery grave late in the afternoon. This was certainly unpremeditated action as she dressed for school that morning; we regret this happening to her, but are thankful she is still with us!

Mr. and Mrs. ROY ROGERS and family spent a couple of days in the snow at Big Bear during the vacation last week. They came out on Thursday and were a little in doubt for a time if they could make it.

LARRY TODD'S Big Pine excursion a week ago Sunday ended with a sprained knee and ankle in a skiing attempt, so now mama is running his paper route for a time!

ONONDARKA RIDERS

This Sunday, April 13, make a date with yourself at 1:30 p.m. to visit the Rancho San Antonio "Boys' Town of the West" on DeSoto, and enjoy with the boys a show by the Onondarka Riders, who are said to be the best Drill Team on horse back in the country. This is an all youth group, and they ride with no saddles or bridles.

They do all kinds of thrilling formations and jumps at high speed, and it is an exciting sight to see the daring close riding they do. The program includes Onondarka Riders Precision Drill Team, a Jumping Show, and Horseback Games and competition.

NOW-- here's your chance to also do a little something for the boys at Rancho San Antonio. You know, they have their own horses too, which were given to them by kind friends. But funny thing, the horses get mighty hungry! So you are asked to bring a sack of oats or a bale of hay (or two, or three!) to sit on while you view the show -- and then leave your "seat" when the show is over as a donation for the boys' horses.

Our local feed store, Chatsworth Feed, DI 8-3512, will be happy to help you, or Merrell's Feed & Saddlery, DI 7-4057, who has been a faithful advertiser in the Grapevine for about three years.

This week plans were formulated for the month-long Chatsworth fund-raising campaign for the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY. Heading the business and industry division for our town is Dave Latham, who announced the "blitz" volunteer crew as George Schoell, Cliff Parchman, Gay Minardi, Hank Crowley, Thomas A. Newland, D.V.M., and Frank J. Sherwood.

Dave issued a campaign opening appeal, "to fight cancer with a checkup and a check."

They're an enthusiastic couple and offer complete laundry and drying cleaning service with all clothes insured against damage and loss -- "guaranteed satisfaction" Jack sez!

MRS. HAROLD FAIRBANK, president of Canoga Park High School PTA, invites all West Valley folk to a Talent Show put on by students at the Monroe Auditorium on the high school campus, 6850 Topanga Canyon Blvd., on Friday evening, April 11, at 8:15, entitled "An American in Paris". Tickets are being handled by PTA Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. Wes Billitti. Tickets will also be available at the door. Proceeds will be used for welfare needs in the West Valley.

If you have had four or more weeks instruction in SQUARE DANCING and need a refresher course, call EM 1-8866 for information. Such class will be held Wednesday nights 8:00 to 11:00 p.m. at Chatsworth Center, and is sponsored by Do C Dandies. Caller and instructor will be Art Steiner.

JANIE BARTLEY celebrated her eleventh birthday on April 1, with a slumber party. Guests were Pat Matheney, Virginia Padgett, Alice Kline, Susan Moon, and Judy Christensen. The date being April Fool's Day, there were many occasions for practical jokes, such as the wrapping of Janie's gifts in multiple boxes and wrappings. The girls enjoyed a late night snack, a sleepless night and breakfast together in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS MILNER and family motored to Tucson to spend Easter vacation week with Mrs. Milner's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM FISH and two sons of Anaheim were visitors in Chatsworth Sunday and attended services at the Methodist Church where they met many of their former friends.

Mr. and Mrs. EARL ULERY enjoyed a recent visit from Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jurgens of Illinois, and their daughter Janet who is attending USC. A visit with her and also some friends in the Southland was the object of the Jurgens' trip to California.

Mrs. DAVID FULWIDER, who has made a marvelous recovery from her recent hip surgery, was able to be brought home last week to continue convalescence. She had anticipated at least two more weeks in the hospital plus sanitarium care.

Mrs. DANIEL EATON (Marian Fleming), recent bride, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower Friday afternoon at the home of her foster parents Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers, by the Explorers for Christ Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church. Other guests were teachers of the Sunday School Dept. with whom Marian had been associated as a teacher. The table was centered with a bride and groom under a lace parasol, in a field of green midst eggs and tiny chickens.
