GOOD DEED FOR THE DAY

Serious damage could have been the result of the fire at Town & Country Cafe Monday night, had it not been for its early discovery by four Chatsworth Boy Scouts who were returning from a Scout meeting. Jeff Burkhart, Jim Hyland, Jerry Stricklin, and Joaquin Valdez are all members of Apache Patrol, Troop 26, and as they walked past the cafe and smelled the smoke they stopped to look in the window. A flame on the stove spelled danger to these lads, who quickly hailed the police car driving by, who, in turn, called the fire department. The fire had accidentally been left on under a pot of gravy.

Quick thinking and alertness on the boys' part should certainly be acknowledged, and we're thankful the fire department arrived in time to put the fire out quickly. In these days of juvenile delinquency it's good to take time out to say "Thanks, kids, for being on the ball!!"

WINGS OVER JORDAN, an internationally known choir featuring negro spirituals, will appear at the First Methodist Church Sunday, June 15, at 7:15 p.m.

A cordial invitation is issued to anyone interested to attend.

FIESTA SPONSORS

We trust you've been asking for your tickets as you make your purchases between now and July 5, which entitle you not only to vote for the Fiesta Queen of your choice but also entitle you to participate in the drawing for prizes on that evening.

The following merchants have FINANCIALLY backed this year's Fiesta, by their contribution of $30 each toward the various expenses that something of this sort entails -- our way of thanking those who have dug deep down into the old sock to perpetuate our annual Fiesta, is to patronize them, and ASK FOR TICKETS so they will know you're interested in the Fiesta: Town & Country Cafe, Chatsworth Paint & Wallpaper, Colleen's Feminine Fashions, Sunset Cleaners, Chatsworth Art Studio, Chatsworth Auto Parts, Sunset Liquors, Florence Shaw Realtor, Dr. Thomas Newland Veterinarian, H & H Fruits and Vegetables, Dr. Haas and Kinsman, Chatsworth Plumbers, Chatsworth Nursery, Curtis Automotive, Jack the Barber, Doris's Cafe, Dr. E. M. Miner, Onea's Art Gallery, Thomas TV, Chatsworth Ice Cream Parlor, Chatsworth Pharmacy,

Mr. and Mrs. JOSEPH D. WAGONER (Colleen's Feminine Fashions) announced the engagement of their daughter SUE to GARY GRILLO, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil F. Grillo, at a family dessert party on June 3 at their home in Northridge.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Van Nuys High School, as is her fiance who is currently in the Airborn Division of the U.S. Army.

The young couple plan a late summer wedding at the First Presbyterian Church of Encino.

Another happy engagement announcement comes from Mr. and Mrs. NORMAN L. HAAG of 9801 Shoup Avenue. Their daughter NORMA LOUISE is betrothed to JAMES ANTHONY PARISH, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Parish of 20327 Stagg Street, Canoga Park.

Both youth people are graduates of Canoga Park High, class of February, 1958.

The WIERREN families of Chatsworth, Newhall and Sepulveda enjoyed an early Thanksgiving (yes, Thanksgiving!) dinner at the W. H. Ryon home in Studio City. Mrs. Ryon, the former Sylvia Werren, annually has the family Thanksgiving dinner; however, the Ryons are flying August 7 for a 2½ year stay in Japan, so will be away when that holiday is here. Mr. Ryon is affiliated with Lockheed.

OUTDOOR CHURCH SERVICES will begin Sunday, June 22, 3:00 p.m., at the Aaron Iverson Ranch on Santa Susana. More about this next week -- signs will be posted at the entrance with proper directions.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley NORDFELT of LAURELWOOD ACRES Goat Dairy, have just returned from a two weeks tour, their destination being a School for Judging in Gaithersburg, Md. (outside Washington D.C.) conducted under the auspices of the American Milk Goat Record Assn. and the University of Maryland. Mr. and Mrs. Nordfelt were among a class of twenty-two interested in becoming judges of livestock. They also visited the famous Chimney Rock Herd of Toggenburg goats at Rutherfordton, N.C. One day was spent at Elyria, Ohio, visiting the offices of The American Milk Goat Record Assn., watching the process of registering purebred animals.

As Betty Nordfelt also has her famous French Bulldog Kennels, she was interested in visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. West and their famous dogs. Their Champion Bouquet Nouvelle Ami holds the record for being the greatest winning French Bulldog of all time. Jo-Jo, as he is called, carries mostly Laurelwood blood lines. Chatsworth and the Nordfeldts can be justly proud.

On their arrival home, they were pleased to find a delicious barbecue going on at which they were the feted guests -- put on by Ted and Barbara Johnston, Pinky and Bill Garman and some of the other Laurelwood employees.

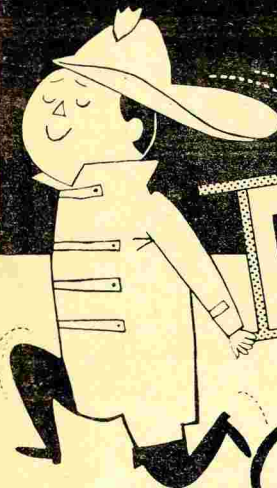

To wind up the year's activities, the Chatsworth PTA has scheduled a tea for Friday, June 13, at 2:15 p.m. at the school. Members of the old board will entertain the new board and faculty. On Saturday, June 28, the board members and their husbands are to have a swim and potluck dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lorbeer.

Word has been received of the death of JOHN W. FLINT of Yuba City, a former Chatsworth resident, who passed away with a heart attach on Saturday, May 31. Mr. Flint had had several attacks in recent years, but apparently was much improved lately. Funeral services were held Thursday, June 5, from the Presbyterian Church in Marysville. Mr. Flint was stricken while en route to visit a real estate client. He was found in his car which was driven to the side of the road, indicating he felt the attack coming.

Mr. Flint was manager of the Chatsworth plant of the Armacost Nursery for many years. He was always vitally interested in the civic welfare of the community and was an active member of the First Methodist Church, where he was the choir director and served in many other official capacities.

He was a clever impersonator of Harry Lauder and was much in demand as an entertainer for various church and civic organizations in the valley. His many friends in the vicinity will regret to hear of his untimely passing. He leaves his widow, Emma, two daughters, and three grandchildren.

Welcome!

Another newcomer to our Chatsworth business family is Libby Sonners, who will hold the Grand Opening of her dress shop at 21818 Devonshire, LIBBY'S FASHIONS, this Saturday, June 14. See her ad for special features she will offer!

Libby and her husband live in Van Nuys, and have a daughter, Stephanie Lynn, who is six years old. She has lived in southern California practically all her life, and during the time she lived in San Francisco she owned and operated a dress shop there.

The new shop will be beautifully decorated in the provincial motif, and she will specialize in medium-priced sportswear and dresses.

Mr. Sonners is formerly a salesman, and is entering into this business venture with his wife.

Several of the SUB SCOUTS received awards at the Cub Pack meeting Thursday at the school auditorium. Robert Casindas received a wolf badge and assistant denner stripe; Steve Ragusin and Richard Hummel, denner stripes; Kim Jurnecka, assistant denner stripe; Jan Jurnecka, two-year pin and one year perfect attendance pin; Tom Dicus and Leo Johnson, silver arrow on wolf. New bobcats welcomed into the pack were James Dawson, Donald Wade, Chris Wangsgard, and Earl Shelton.

Bill Slater was awarded his Webelos plaque with all his awards recorded.

The June meeting will be a picnic on Sunday, June 22, at Tapia Park in the Malibu Mountains.

The boys enjoyed seeing the movies of their spring trip to the snow at the conclusion of their meeting.
