FIESTA

SATURDAY'S THE DAY!! The Third Annual Chatsworth Fiesta will get under way promptly at 10:00 a.m. with the Big Parade headed by Grand Marshall "Crash" Corrigan!! The Queen -- who she turns out to be depends on your votes -- will be a featured part of the Parade -- there will be horses -- floats -- music -- everything that we need to start things off with a bang.

The Fiesta Grounds will be at the corner of Topanga and Devonshire behind the Standard Station, and booths will be open all day. Some of them will open in the morning, others will open after the Parade. Among them will be refreshment booths -- hot dogs, cotton candy, ice cream, pop corn, lemonade, punch, tamalies; fun booths including dart game, Bingo, penny pitch, bottle throw, and others; and then there will be a few miscellaneous booths and an exhibit from the Oat Mountain Nike base.

Ball games in the afternoon at Wilkins Field will keep things going, meanwhile spot entertainment will be provided throughout the afternoon at the Fiesta Grounds. The BRIMSTONE BOYS (those desperate characters who held up the Chatsworth Hardware last Saturday!!) will be at their rootin'-shootin' best, climaxing with their show at 6:30 p.m.

Drawing for the prizes which are now on display at Janess Transfer and West Valley Letters will take place at 7:00 p.m. Among them are a portable RCA 4-speed phonograph, Presto Control Master Fry Pan, Roto Broil Rotisserie, Western King Deluxe Barbecue, and "Stroller" Lawn Sprinkler! YOU MUST BE PRESENT TO RECEIVE YOUR PRIZE!! To be assured that your tickets are eligible for prizes as well as to be sure your choice for Queen will receive your vote, HAVE ALL YOUR TICKETS IN CONTAINERS TODAY, THURSDAY.

Dancing at 8:00 p.m. will be as follows: Ballroom dancing in the Women's Club building with Mrs. Earl Muehlenbach in charge; Rock 'n Roll in the Security-First National Bank parking lot, with LIVE MUSIC by Gary Briggs and his seven-piece dance band. This group is directed by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moon, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Russ Riley.

JUNE ELOISE GEORGESON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer Georgeson of 10234 Independence Avenue, became the bride recently of WILLIAM A. SCOVILLE JR. of Tarzana, in a ceremony performed at First Presbyterian Church of Encino.

Wearing a gown of Chantilly lace over satin with a sweetheart neckline and lace gauntlets, the bride carried stephanotis centered by a white orchid. Her veil was attached to a pearl embroidered lace crown. Her sister Mrs. E. C. Bailey was honor attendant attired in pink chiffon over taffeta. Bridesmaids in blue lace and silk organza were Mrs. L. P. VanderHaeghen and Judy Woolman. Jennifer Denyer was flower girl.

The bridegroom was served by Mario Siconna, best man; John Becher and James Denyer ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Canoga Park High, and has been employed with the Bank of America. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Canoga High.

The newlyweds, who were the first couple to take out a June marriage license, are honeymooning at Lake Tahoe.

KAREN REINHARDT wishes to publicly thank Ben Boydston of Chatsworth Lumber, for allowing her to enter his place of business each day to feed an abandoned mother cat and her kittens. She is connected with the Pet Assistance Foundation, West Valley Branch.

The boys in Gary's band are Mickey Hoyle, Rod Adam, Jim Peck, Dennis Tworek, Robin Greenwood, and Bob Georgius. They didn't tell us to say this, but we're going to say it anyway -- they are providing live music free of charge to the Fiesta Committee, but we're asking those who enjoy the dancing to feed their "kitty"! Just a thank-you for their efforts.

Square Dancing will be held in the school parking lot, and will be under the direction of Chuck Hills. Swing your partner!

For very obvious reasons, the Committee asks that everyone please park cars on side streets, and try to keep Devonshire clear. Also, no parking in the school lot!

A thousand pardons from The Grapevine to Standard Station for not including their name in the list of participants -- they are also helping to financially sponsor this year's Fiesta, along with the many others printed in the last couple of weeks.

THE CROWNING OF THE QUEEN will take place on the evening of July 4 at the Devonshire Downs Fireworks Display. Tickets are available for this event at Chatsworth Hardware. Rev. Charles Hughes of the First Baptist Church will be master of ceremonies during our portion of the program, which will be at approximately 8:25 p.m., Dave Latham, manager of the Security-First National Bank, who has laboriously counted the thousands of tickets, will announce the winner, and Keith Andes, motion picture and TV star who makes his home in Chatsworth, will crown the young lady QUEEN of this 3rd Annual Fiesta. Paul Thomas, of Thomas TV, has been chairman of the Queen Contest and will also be on hand to see that things run smoothly.

Well! We hope we didn't leave anything out of this report -- may we just add that you have a wonderful time! If you haven't received a Fiesta Program in the mail you may have one simply by asking one of the merchants who are participating, and they will see that you get one. Have fun.

The first meeting of the CHATSWORTH CATHOLIC CLUB was held at Mrs. Marie Trafficanda's on Thursday evening, June 26, and was warmly accepted by the many attending.

Officers elected were: President, Mr. Adrien Tanguay; Vice President, Mrs. Kay Patrick; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Virginia Moon; Corresponding Secretary, Mr. James Hunt; Treasurer, Mr. Tony Rizzotti. Special mention and thanks go to Mrs. Josephine Thomas and Mrs. Kay Patrick for their dedicated effort in forming this Club. Future meetings will be held the last Thursday of the month.

Say 'hello' to them at their Fiesta booth!

The new CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH at Mason and Lassen Streets announces the appointment of Rev. Donald W. Head, Associate Superintendent of the Northern California Congregational Conference, as their new pastor. He arrives from San Mateo July 2, and will take over his duties here immediately. He was a student at University of Pennsylvania, and Colgate-Rochester Divinity School in Rochester, N.Y. and holds Bachelor of Divinity degree and Master of Theology degree.

Rev. Head has been a teacher and leader of youth work for many years. Mrs. Head, who will accompany her husband here, is also a graduate of Elmira College and Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

LLOYD FELLOWS, SR., president of the San Fernando Valley Methodist Union and lay leader of the First Methodist Church of Chatsworth, left last Tuesday on a month's tour of Russia. The trip is being made with ten people selected from various vocations and professions and will be led and directed by Rev. R. J. Prentice, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Alhambra. They will tour the principal cities of Russia and Rev. Prentice will preach in a Baptist Church in Moscow on July 13.

Mr. and Mrs. BILL MILLER are here on a two-week furlough from Minnesota where Bill is stationed at the Air Force Base. They are spending their time visiting between Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harwell of La Crescenta, and Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kimble, with a bit of time on the side for his grandmother, Sparkly Allison.

PAT MAYBIN, a resident of Chatsworth for the past ten years (the Maybins are moving this week to Little Rock, near Palmdale), has just won top award at the 4-H Regional Field Day at Riverside. Her category was Safety and as the representative from the Southern California area she competed against nine counties. Pat won her first award in Safety in March at the Valley Demonstration which entitled her to go on to the UCLA competition. She won there and went on to the Regional, where she won the top award.

In April she won first in the Valley Dress Revue and went on to UCLA where she received a first in the Home Economics Judging Competition.

She is secretary of the Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H, second vice president in charge of programs at the Council Hi 4-H Club, and is a member of the County 4-H Coordinating Council. She is carrying four projects this year, third year sheep, advance clothing, foods, and second year Junior Leader Project.

She was selected by the San Fernando Valley Council to be one of six 4-H members to go to the

Jr. Leaders Conference at Davis June 16-20. A great honor was bestowed on Pat, and a wonderful reward for all her activities, when she was elected at UCLA to be the 4-H Summer Camp Director, July 5 to 12.

In addition to her 4-H activities, Pat is a Senior A at Canoga Park High School where she has been elected to serve on the Girls League Cabinet. She is also active in the youth activities of the First Methodist Church where she has been a member for several years.

The WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE of the First Methodist Church held their final meeting for the summer, their annual picnic, in the patio of Mrs. Edward Ahlstrom's home. The president, Mrs. Fred Palmer, presided. Annual reports of officers and chairmen were heard, showing a year of wonderful growth and activity. The new pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. John Wesley Neal, were special guests for the luncheon.

the WSCS will hold a RUMMAGE SALE Friday and Saturday, July 11 and 12, Mrs. Dan Barton and Mrs. Harry Mooklar, chairmen.

Six and a half years ago during a rainstorm, Mrs. Margaret Ohrmund of Santa Susana lost her diamond engagement ring as she tossed a handful of hay into her horse's stall. Rain water was rushing through the barn, and a week's search failed to disclose its hiding place.

A few days ago, Mrs. Ohrmund's mother-in-law, Mrs. Grace Baldridge, raked up the tarnished ring as she was gardening -- and the strange part is, she found it on Friday the 13th!

Outdoor services continue at the Aaron Iverson Ranch each Sunday at 3:00 p.m. "Shady Oaks Open Air Church" is under the direction of Ray Fightmaster and Edwin Iverson, and this Sunday their speaker will be the Rev. Taylor Whatlay of the Southern Baptist Church in Canoga Park. Go north on Santa Susana, and watch for the arrows directing to the gate.

At the Boy Scout Court of Honor June 30, Bob Huggins, Jr., received the Eagle Scout Award -- the first one in the troop in eight years. Carl Henneman is Scoutmaster of the troop.

Mrs. Glenn Beyer, newly elected president of the CHATSWORTH WOMANS CLUB, held an informal meeting of her officers and chairmen at her home Tuesday to discuss plans for the summer and fall activities of the club. Among these were the booth at the July 5th Fiesta and the annual summer party scheduled for August 16, which are being planned by the second vice president, Mrs. Thomas Davidson, as ways and means chairman, and her assistant, Mrs. Ray L. Johnson, Jr. The first summer luncheon meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, July 8, at 11:30 a.m. at the club rooms.

Hank Crowley, of CHATSWORTH FLORIST, has been enjoying a visit from his mother, Mrs. RETTA CROWLEY of Chilliwack, British Columbia. Mrs. Crowley arrived about three weeks ago and will return home July 6.

The CHATSWORTH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE will meet Tuesday, July 8, at 8:00 p.m. sharp at Chatsworth Center Building. Dr. E. M. Miner, chairman of the By-Laws Committee, will lead the discussion of the fifth draft of Proposed Revision of By-Laws of the Chamber. Paul Roest, former president of Canoga Park Chamber and Attorney, will be present for legal counsel. This is a very important milestone meeting in our Chamber, and all members are most urgently requested to attend.

Have you noticed the lovely mural by VIRGINIA LYNN that she has placed outside at her Art Studio at 21820 Devonshire?

Hearing for a fire station at Devonshire and Corbin will be held at the American Legion Hall, 14541 Sylvan Street, Van Nuys, on Tuesday, July 8, at 1:00 p.m.

Dr. and Mrs. HAROLD HAYWARD were honored with a farewell reception Thursday night at White Oak Hall with all the church organizations assisting in the planning and in the gift of a beautiful portable AM-FM radio, as a small token of the love and appreciation of the members. A tribute was given by Mrs. Morich on behalf of the ladies of the church and by Charles Janess on behalf of the men. Jake Jacobson of La Crescenta, a former member and resident, read an original poem "Adios" (to God we commend you) which he presented to the Haywards after the reading.

Dr. and Mrs. Hayward recalled many memories of their happy years here, which both consider the happiest pastorate in their years of preaching.

Mrs. Joseph Fladwed sang "Bless This House" accompanied by Mrs. Katharine Johnson.

Refreshments were served by the WSCS as the members personally greeted the Haywards.

Mr. and Mrs. GERALD TAYLOR are happy and thrilled over the birth of a baby girl, Deborah Lee, born June 25 at the Woodland Park Community Hospital. She weighed 5 pounds and 8 ounces. The Taylors have five boys, and this is their first baby girl.

Funeral services for MRS. SADIE JOHNSON, mother of Ray L. Johnston, were held Monday afternoon in Los Angeles. Mrs. Johnson has been in ill health for some time and has been critically ill for the past month. She passed away on Wednesday, June 25. Sympathy of their many friends goes out to the Johnsons in their bereavement.

A few changes take place in the standings of the Jr. Baseball League as series progresses week by week. Standing as of last Saturday are as follows:

AMERICAN LEAGUE	NATIONAL LEAGUE
Cards 1000%	Stars 833%
Yanks 500%	Braves 714%
Dodgers 286%	Rockets 429%
Trojans 286%	Eagles 000%

The Pony League teams had a bad day Saturday, with both teams losing, the Orioles to the Moorpark Yankees by a 20-9 score and the Indians to the Simi Dodgers by a 24-9 score. Due to the distance of travel to the games at Simi and the conflict with the Jr. League games, the teams aren't getting much support. Perhaps some more encouragement from their hometown friends will stimulate their game.

OUR TROUBLES

We give our troubles a shaking for fear they may go to sleep; we run them around the square that they may not grow weak from lack of exercise; we air them constantly lest they die for want of oxygen; we massage them and train them to keep them fit; we bathe them, shampoo them, marcel them, dress them, brush them and do all in our power to keep them always presentable; whereas a little wholesome neglect is what they really need.—"Alabama Baptist!"

REV. JOHN WESLEY
NEAL, newly appointed pastor of the First Methodist Church, will preach Sunday morning, July 6, both the 8:30 and the 11:00 a.m. services. Rev. Neal comes from the Epworth Methodist Church in Los Angeles. He received his AB and MA degrees from Long Beach State College and his master of Theology at the Southern California School of Theology. His wife, Wanita, has received her credentials for teaching school, but is not active in that capacity. They have three boys, Ben, who is in college; David, in high school; and Ron, in Junior High.

The family moved here Wednesday into the parsonage on the new church property on Santa Susana Avenue.

Installation of the new officers of the CHATSWORTH WOMAN'S CLUB took place in a lovely and unusual ceremony Tuesday at the club rooms with Mrs. Guy Clark, a club member, as the installing officer. A maypole centered the stage with each of the officers to be installed, holding an alternate green and pink streamer, the club colors. As each appeared before the installing officer to take her duties of office, the pole was wound with the streamers. Each officer received a floral corsage.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Arthur Young, was congratulated on her splendid year of leadership and was presented with a beautiful antique pitcher by the members of her board.
Mrs. Young in turn presented the gavel and president's pin, to Mrs. Glenn Beyer, the incoming president, who expressed her appreciation for the honor paid her in her election and pledged her best efforts in her office.

The meeting concluded with a collect by the religion chairman, Mrs. R. L. Johnson.
