Traffic Accident

Reginald A. Nannie, age 33, of 9946 Jovita Place in one of our new tracts, was instantly killed last Saturday, when his car went over an embankment at Devonshire and Vanalden, striking a eucalyptus tree. Police said the back part of the car folded over the smashed front end, and Mr. Nannie had to be pried out of the car.

Mr. Nannie, a carpenter, is the father of two small daughters.

Season Closed

The closing activity of the season for the Jr. Baseball League, the Barbecue and Fun Day at Wilkins Field Aug.17, proved to be a successful close to a successful season. The day climaxed with the presentation of awards at 7:00 p.m. Bill Ford, the umpire, acted as master of ceremonies, and first presented Mrs. Juliet Wilkins, whose generosity made possible the field for the boys activities. She was presented with a corsage and a kiss by little Marcia Melrose.

The Indians, winning team of Chatsworth in the Babe Ruth League received their statuettes followed by the Cards, winners of the Jr. League. Then, to the surprise of the boys on the remaining teams, all were presented with a smaller similar trophy. This was made possible by a local man, and ardent fan of the Leagues, who couldn't stand to have any boy who played so faithfully all season go without an award! He prefers to remain anonymous and is known to the boys only as "Mr. Santa Claus". Any boy who was not present for any reason to receive his award, may receive it be contacting Rod McKenzie.

MURRAY NATHANSON in the Signature Homes Tract is interested in starting an Indian Guides group in conjunction with the West Valley YMCA in Reseda. With his son Jeff and several of his friends, they are still in need of several youngsters 6-7 years of age, in the first grade. HEAR REV. CARL BURNS OF THE FOURSQUARE CHURCH every Sunday afternoon on your radio, 1490 on the dial, from 3:30 to 4:00 p.m.

TERESA CALZARETTI (one of the Maggi sisters) is recovering at home from surgery which she underwent August 5 at St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica.

The CHATSWORTH ROTARY CLUB held its Third Annual Picnic last Sunday 24. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ragusin graciously gave the use of their home where the Rotarians and their guests (67 in all!) enjoyed a delicious meal prepared by their wives. The children were thrilled with the pony rides. The Winner of the General Electric Fan donated by Gay Minardi was Tom Evans of San Fernando, who bought his lucky ticket from Cliff Ahlstrom's Texaco Service Station.

CARL SPOTTS, who left in July for Germany as a member of the Security Police of the Army Military Police, enjoyed a three-day visit to the World's Fair at Brussels. This was a part of a specially arranged tour for service men. Carl, who was a student at Canoga Park High School, has completed his high school course since he has been in the service, and will receive his diploma with the next graduating class, even though he will not be here in person. He will be joined by his wife sometime in September. Being stationed in Miesare, near the border of Switzerland, France, and Belgium, it will be possible for the young people to visit many places of interest on leaves during his expected two and one-half years stay there.

Synonym: A word to use when you can't spell the other word.

FRANKIE DICKINSON was surprised and honored by several of his friends last Friday evening, when a swim at the Chilson pool in Woodland Hills turned out to be a birthday party in celebration of his sixteenth birthday. Some of the more serious gifts such as shirts and a watch had him all "shook up", after opening such teen-age "gifts" as a toy truck, baby pacifier, and card reading "happy birthday 5-year old!" These kids -- honestly! We love them all though, in spite of everything.

A $20 gold piece was lording it over a penny. "I've been in the pockets of kings, and in the bodices of queens," boasted the gold piece. "I've been on the gambling tables of Monte Carlo. And what," sneered the gold piece to the penny, "have you done?" Replied the penny humbly, "Well, I haven't missed church in 20 years."

Over two hundred Valley young people swarmed over the church and grounds at the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH last Sunday evening following the church service for their monthly get-together of the Valley Youth Sing. Mrs. Janet Witmer baked hundreds of cookies in addition to many which were donated, and she with her corps of helpers made and served gallons of punch. Rev. Hughes of the local church led in the singing, Vanowen Baptist brought the Devotional, and Panorama Baptist provided the special music.

EDITH and HANS NEWMAN and their three children of Lassen Street have returned from a 10-week tour of Europe. They flew to Copenhagen from Los Angeles via the Polar Route, visited with Mrs. Newman's mother in England, and friends in Austria. Mr. Newman obtained a Volkswagon which they used in travelling through the many countries they visited.

LLOYD FELLOWS SR. returned last week from a six-week tour of Russia and other European countries with a group of laymen and ministers. He has his picture in a Swedish newspaper, but we can't read what it says about him! He had very interesting experiences visiting churches in various countries, and all who would enjoy hearing about them are invited to attend services at the First Methodist Church this Sunday, where he will speak at both the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. services.

Members of the Chatsworth Women's Club enjoyed a coffee hour and swim Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Liddell, as a Ways and Means project for the club.

The INDIANS of the BABE RUTH LEAGUE will have a father and son game Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at the Rancho San Antonio. This promises to be a lot of fun. All the dads who pulled so valiantly for their boys all summer will now have to pull together to see if they can show the boys up and win the game!

PAT CASTRO is home on a 15-day furlough from Fort Lewis, Wash., where he has been stationed for several months. Pat is now serving with the Military Police.

In response to many inquiries regarding the health of Dr. HAROLD HAYWARD, former pastor of the First Methodist Church, we are happy to say that he is making a good recovery, and is feeling quite himself again, minus forty pounds. He has done some substitute preaching for pastors on their summer vacations. He and Mrs. Hayward enjoyed a recent visit to Albuquerque, where he preached for his son, Rev. Richard Hayward, Chaplain of the Air Base there.

Mr. and Mrs. JAMES KIMBLE and son Ted, in company with Mr. Kimble's daughters, Jeanette and Virginia, enjoyed the past week at Balboa. This week Jeanette and Virginia continued their vacation at their grandmother's cabin at Big Bear.

Mrs. H. M. DITTO had an exciting time one day last week, when she discovered two rattlesnakes in her back yard. She decided she could handle the smaller one and quickly put an end to him, but the larger one looked too formidable, so she called on Mr. Adrien who was in the house giving one of the boys a clarinet lesson. Together they killed him, and he proved to be one of the largest ever seen in this area!
