Trophy Awards

Charles A. Holt, Jr., (Sonny) won two out of nine trophy awards at the Annual Shark Derby put on by the Gopher Flats Sportsman's Club on August 24. Sonny caught twenty-three fish, the largest number caught by any one person, and also caught the largest dog fish shark, an eight-pounder. This derby is held each year to keep down the number of shark, both because some kinds are a menace in the waters and because each one eats its own weight in fish each day, which depletes the fisherman's quarry.

The edible fish caught are given to welfare organizations and the non-edible ones are used to make fertilizer.

Sonny will be presented with his awards at a banquet of the club at Riverside Rancho on September 26. He is entering Santa Barbara State College this week, but will return home for this special occasion.

Sonny's dad, Charles, Sr., also won himself a little special honor this summer when he won the Schenley trophy which is given each week for sixteen weeks, for the largest fish caught in barracuda, tuna, sea bass, and albacore. In the week of July 27 Mr. Holt caught

Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H

The Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H Club received their share of honors at the Devonshire Downs 51st District Fair, which closed Monday, September 1. The club received awards for the best poultry display by a club and the best food display by a club.

Karen Porter was the big winner with five trophies and a medal. She won the coveted Home Economics Sweepstakes presented by the North Hollywood Kiwanis; the Home Furnishings display - a perpetual trophy presented by Designers Fabrics; a trophy for Bred Pony Mares; Goat Showmanship; and the Junior Round Robin. The medal was for her first place goat showmanship.

Johnny Cota took the twin trophy, the Agriculture Sweepstakes, presented by Studio City Kiwanis, and medals for both Southdown ram and ewe, and a trophy for Junior sheep showmanship.

Sara Hitchens received a trophy and a medal for best Alpine goat, and took third in Junior Goat Showmanship. She also received a medal for Best of Breed California Rabbit.

CORRECTION: Last week the GRAPEVINE reported that the members of the Board of Directors for the Chatsworth Junior Baseball League are Ray Hultman, Dennis Tanis, Sr., and Don Paul. Our story should have said these men are the newly elected members of the Board. The re-elected members are Otto Groth and Leonard Chenard. These men, along with the officers, go to make up the nine-man Board which is responsible for the successful operation of our Junior and Babe Ruth League programs.

The JEANS & JUMPERS Square Dance Club is rararin' to go after their summer vacation and would like to call attention to a change of place and day for their dancing. They will now dance at the D.A.V. Hall, 6543 Corbin, Woodland Hills, on the second and fourth Thursday of each month at 8:30 p.m. Brownie Brown of Yucaipa will call for the opening dance Sept. 11, and Max Wolf will be caller on Sept. 25. An evening of fun is promised to all that attend. Door prizes, too.

Monologue: A conversation between a man and his wife.

DOROTHY WATTS is noted for her versatility both in her artistry with flowers and in her ideas for party-giving. Last Saturday night proved no exception when a group of friends gathered at her pool-side to honor CHARLEEN JANESE with a linen shower. The "shower" turned out to be a realistic downpour of rain, besides the gifts, and virtually made the posy-dotted pool a gleaming jewel. The shelter beside the pool kept everyone nice and dry though, and the atmosphere of a real shower made for more fun.

BOB WALSH was elected President of Equestrian Trails at their meeting held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hayes. Robert Pierce was elected vice president; Mrs. Pat Elliott and Mrs. Paul Sleury, recording and corresponding secretaries; Mrs. Phyllis Cyrus, treasurer; and Mrs. Roma Coe, trail coordinator. The recently organized Chatsworth Corral is a part of the statewide Equestrian Trails, Inc., whose purpose is to find riding and hiking trails for riders and hikers. The club has 40 interested members who meet once a month.

KATHY KIMBLE returned home Sunday night after spending the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Barker of Holiday, Kansas, who operate a cafe and service station. Kathy had an exciting experience one during when, as she was in front of the cafe, a man came toward her pointing a gun. He forced her inside the cafe beside her grandmother, and then asked for the car keys. Mrs. Barker said she didn't have them, but that Mr. Barker, who was out in the pasture, had them with him. The gunman forced Mrs. Barker to get down on her knees, and Kathy cried out, "Don't you hurt my grandma!" The man then turned the gun on Kathy and in that split instant Mrs. Barker slipped out into the back room to get their pistol. When the man left the room to try to find her, Kathy went out the front door and got her grandfather. He came into the room, struck the man on the arm, knocked the gun from his hands, clipped him on the back of the head knocking him out, and then called the police who took him into custody. Just like a television show!! And it happened to one of our own girls!

We are happy that it turned out this way and no one was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. SYD WALKER and son Bob recently made a short vacation trip to Renton, Washington, to visit their son Tom who is stationed there. Tom had a three-day leave, which wasn't long enough to come home and see his parents, so they motored north to spend the time with him there.

Register for voting TODAY at Chatsworth Beauty Shop.

The WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE of the First Methodist Church will begin its Fall activities after a two-month recess on Wednesday, September 17, at 10:00 a.m. at White Oak Hall. President Mrs. Fred Palmer will conduct the business at this hour, and at 11:00 Mrs. Larry Wells, program chairman, will present the program. Luncheon will be served at noon by the Esther and Love Circles, honoring the Ann Johnson Circle as special guests for winning the attendance contest last year.

The last OUTDOOR MOVING PICTURE at the Aaron Iverson Ranch for this summer season will be presented Friday night, September 12, at 8:00 p.m. The film to be shown is "Angel in Ebony", selected as the best religious moving picture for the year 1954. It has been shown by various churches in the community before, but many have not had the opportunity to see it, and those who have seen it before will be happy for the opportunity to see it again. A musical program will be presented at 8:00, followed by the presentation of the film.

Other guests at the Woodman home recently have been Mr. Woodman's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Woodman, their son Larry and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Phkl Morgan, and little daughter, Marill.

ten, and grades one to three.

It is planned to add an additional grade each year until the 6th grade has been included. Registration for this year will be limited to eighty pupils. The school course will follow the standards of other Episcopal Day Schools, with emphasis on the Three R's. Religious teaching and worship will be included in the program. The School is being undertaken as a community project, and enrollments are not limited to the Parish or the members of the Church.

The 1958 COMMUNITY CHEST drive in Chatsworth will be headed by DAVE LATHAM, manager of our Security First National Bank. Last year Dave was a division chairman in commerce and industry, achieving 139% of his goal.
