Marriage Vows

Last Saturday night at the First Methodist Church a beautiful Christian romance culminated in the marriage of Charleen Beth Janess and James (Jim) F. Roesch. Upwards of 300 guests packed the Sanctuary and witnessed the exchanging of vows of these popular young people, both of whom have been residents of Chatsworth with their families for over 12 years.

Charleen was a vision of loveliness in her full-length white embroidered tulle gown, with bouffant skirt and chapel train, and fingertip veil held by a pearl crown. She carried white spider chrysanthemums. Virginia Kimble was maid of honor and wore yellow embroidered taffeta with white chiffon scarf, ballerina length. The bridesmaids, Brenda LeBlanc, Nancy Kingswood, and Mrs. Don Janess, all wore identical gowns as the maid of honor, except their scarves were yellow. Even precious little Linda Hyland, flower girl, wore a yellow dress identical with the bridesmaids, and she glowed as much as the bride as she led the bridal procession.

Little Pat Janess, son of Charleen's brother Don, performed the duties of ring-bearer. Best Man was John Ahlstrom, and ushers were Don Wokal, Don Janess, and Bill Janess.

Dr. Harold Hayward, recent pastor of the church, assisted the present pastor, Rev. J. Wesley Neal, in performing the marriage ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Don Lilja sang "O Perfect Love" as a duet, Mrs. Lilja sang "Always" as a solo, and later in the service as the couple knelt and the guests bowed in prayer Mr. Lilja sang "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Johnson at the organ.

A reception followed the service in White Oak Hall, followed by the couple's departure to northern California for their honeymoon.

Both Charleen and Jim are graduates of Canoga High. Jim has been employed by Rocketdyne for the past three years, and is a member of the Naval Reserve. Charleen is employed by West Valley Letters and Janess Transfer.

Mrs. Allen Lubig and Mrs. Robert Mason, both sisters of the groom, assisted at the reception in the honored capacity of "pouring" the coffee and punch.

Chairmen who will lead Chatsworth's efforts in the current Community Chest appeal have been announced by Dave Latham, city chairman; Business chairman, Bill Dempsey; Mrs. Anna McKeeby, Residential Chairman.

Thursday, November 6 has been set as the time for their annual turkey dinner and bazaar, and the members are busily at work on the various phases of planning it.

Reports of the Redlands Conference were given by President Mrs. Fred Palmer and Vice Pres. Mrs. Larry Wells, and the missionary secretary, Mrs. Haldor Duncan. Mrs. Joseph Fladwed led the group in learning the new theme songs for the year, and the program was presented by Mrs. R. L. Johnson on the National Fifth Assembly of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

for a dinner Saturday evening, honoring the parents of the Cards Junior Baseball team, who were winners of the summer league series. After the delicious dinner the evening was spent in visiting and reminiscing over the summer baseball season.

Mrs. ESTELLE KEARNS was honored on her seventy-sixth birthday Friday with a surprise luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fred Palmer. Members of the prayer circles of the First Methodist Church were guests. Mr. and Mrs. HUPERT LAMB have recently acquired one of the prize-winning paintings by Florence MacConnell of DeSoto Street. Two of her paintings will be exhibited at the Security-First National Bank in the near future, and two paintings won first prizes at the recent San Fernando Valley Fair at Devonshire Downs.

As of Monday morning of this week, the CHATSWORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL reports an enrollment of 675 according to the Principal, Mrs. LaVerne Lee. During her thirteen-year tenure of office, Mrs. Lee has seen the enrollment double. When she came to our town the elementary school still included seventh and eighth grades and the enrollment was then 350. She states that there is a possibility that the enrollment may triple before relief comes with the completion of the Superior School.

Bus accommodations have been a great problem but have finally been solved by dividing the double session classes geographically: Those west of DeSoto who ride the bus coming in the morning, and those east of DeSoto in the afternoon. The community is fortunate to have Mrs. Lee, who has grown up with the problem, and who is a marvel of efficiency and diplomacy, in charge of the situation.

Mrs. SADIE HARRISON of San Pedro, a former resident, was the house guest of Mrs. Sparkyl Allison for a few days this past week. She came to attend the Janess-Roesch wedding on Saturday and visited friends while here. Other former residents who attended the wedding and remained to visit were the William Fish family of Anaheim and Miss Ruth Millard of Los Angeles. Miss Millard, who is caring for a home in Canoga Park while the owners are on vacation, will be seeing various old time friends.

Serigraphs by ROGER HOLLENBECK, together with work by two other Sountland printmakers, are featured in an exhibition, "Three Serigraphers" at the Lighthouse Gallery, Hermosa Beach, September 20 to October 11. A recent serigraph of Roger's is reproduced in the current issue of IMPRESSION, a quarterly magazine of the graphic arts. His prints are owned by the Pasadena Art Museum and the Los Angeles County Museum.

Mrs. LOUISE BUCHER from Chicago is spending a week with Maggi's, having a wonderful time. She loves our Valley, and this is a return trip as she spent four days here last year.

An EQUESTRIAN TRAILS BUSINESS MEETING will be held at the home of Robert Pierce at 10455 Mason Avenue Thursday, October 2, at 7:00 p.m. This will be a POT LUCK DINNER and if you are interested in joining the club you are cordially invited to attend.

The JOHN NEWMANS, who recently have returned from an 11-weeks tour of Europe, have shared their experiences with several groups of friends in the form of moving pictures. The Jurneckas were their guests last Monday night.

Bill Henry in his BY THE WAY column for the L. A. Times last week paid Al Brain a wonderful tribute; due to the fact that our Chatsworth Rotary Club had no place to meet when the Maggi Sisters were to sell their restaurant, Al bought it, thereby showing his devotion as Rotary President!
