DIG DEEP

Mrs. Homemaker, today is your day. Your chance to invest in your community. Your chance to show you care enough to share.

Sometime today a Community Chest worker - your Red Feather neighbor - will ring your doorbell and ask for your contribution to the cause that supports 167 agencies. Welcome her. Dig in the cookie jar and donate a few dollars - just from you. Sure, we know your husband gives at work, your children give at school - but what about you? This is your opportunity to say "thanks" to the services that make your community a better place in which to raise your family. This is your day. Your day to make certain that "children are not kept waiting", waiting for hospital and clinical care, waiting to join a Cub Pack or Brownie Troop, waiting for day care while their mothers are working. Unless the Chest raises an additional million dollars this year children, and adults too, will be kept waiting because agencies won't have enough money to meet the needs of the people. How much will your contribution help? $1.75 will buy seven hot lunches for a malnourished school child; $6 will buy a 1/2 hour pool treatment for a crippled child. DO YOUR SHARE!!

The HOLY SHEPHERD LUTHERAN CHURCH announces its first services to be held on November 16 at Chatsworth Hall, 21340 Devonshire.

Pastor P. H. Fleischmann comes from Chicago, Illinois. Before his parish ministry he was a Wage Analyst for the government serving Headquarters Six Service Command in Chicago and the Office of the Secy of War. He received his academic training in Kansas, Nebraska, and Missouri, and was graduated from Wartburg Seminary, Dubuque Iowa, in 1947. He has been in the parish ministry for 12 years. Pastor and Mrs. Fleischmann have two children, Joan Gail, 15, and James Paul, 8, now enrolled in the Chatsworth and Canoga Park Schools.

For any further information regarding the new church feel free to call him at DI 8-4508.

CHUCK HAUSER left Saturday for a two-weeks cruise to Pearl Harbor with the Naval Reserve. He flew United to San Francisco where he joined the group.

Some reports have reached us of juvenile vandalism Hallowe'en, but damage was not as widespread as in years past, thanks to the many supervised Hallowe'en parties.

Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM JAINESS have arrived home from Cedar City, Utah, near where they were involved in a serious automobile accident as they were returning from a vacation in their former home of Rochester, New York. Their car swerved into an oncoming truck as Mr. Janess was blinded by the afternoon sun. Both were badly shaken up, with Mrs. Janess receiving the more serious injuries, cuts, and multiple body bruises. Fortunately neither received any broken bones and are deeply grateful things were not more serious. The car, which was badly demolished, is now in the process of repair. The Janesses were brought home by their son Chuck, who travelled to Cedar City by bus Thursday, and brought them back in a rented car.

The October meeting of the CUB SCOUTS was a Halloween party held at the school auditorium Thursday evening. On Sunday the Cubs with their Dads attended the Rams football game at the Coliseum, another red-letter day for the boys.

Officers and crew of the MARINER SCOUT SHIP COCAPACHAVI had an exciting day last Saturday at the U.S. Naval Base on Terminal Island. The day was planned by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schepler, mates of the ship, and transportation was furnished by Thelma Freedman and Henry Braun. The girls were escorted all about the base by Seaman Caldwell, cruised about the harbor on a Navy utility boat, ate in the Navy Mess Hall, and made a tour of a hospital ship. This week the girls will assist in serving the Turkey dinner given by their sponsors, the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church.

More than 1,000 Methodist Men from Southern Calif. and Arizona will gather at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles for luncheon today to hear Gerald Kennedy, Bishop of The Los Angeles Area of The Methodist Church. Representing our local church will be Lloyd Fellows, Lay Leader, Max Beach, Ralph Staver, and the Rev. J. Wesley Neal.

LOLA PALMER has suffered a three-weeks illness resulting from a thorn of a date palm in her index finger, left hand. Since that time the poison from the thorn has caused gangrene to set in, and her doctor is trying very hard to save the finger. We certainly pray that amputation will not be necessary.

Among the many Hallowe'en parties over the past weekend were three which were sponsored by groups of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. The Junior High group, directed by Freda Johnson and Judy Hutchison, enjoyed their festivities in the gayly decorated social hall at the church. The Senior High group, headed by Andy Zaffuto, Youth Director, gathered in costume at the Lauritzen's, and the very first adult costume party of the church was held at the Al Lathrop home in Reseda.

Mrs. Monte Wiseman, with twelve years experience in wallpaper, is opening a wallpaper studio at 21814 Devonshire (where Adrien's House of Music formerly was located). Her shop will be informally decorated western style, and you can sit and sip coffee as you leisurely peruse her selections.
