VIOLA HASKELL was the "Surprised Shopper" at SHOPPING CART MARKET Monday, when the spotter from Powder Room Toilet Tissues was in the store and spotted her with some of their merchandise in her basket. The surprise came when the company paid for her entire grocery order, which came to $12.93! Friend Haskell was so surprised, in fact, that as she left and tried to say good-bye, she couldn't even remember Fran's name.

RUTH and ADRIEN TANGUAY are the happy parents of a baby boy, Adrien Connolly Tanguay, Jr., who was born Sunday, November 23, at the Northridge Hospital. Little Adrien weighed 6 lbs. 6 ounces. The Adriens are formerly of Adrien's House of Music. Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. ROY ROGERS were hosts for the Explorers With Christ, the adult Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church, for their monthly business meeting and social time Saturday night, with fifty-seven members present to enjoy the wonderful hospitality of their hosts.

Mrs. James Woodman, president of the class, conducted the business meeting when plans for the Christmas activity were made. The Plaza Center, a home mission project of the Methodist Conference, will be the object of their interest this year, with each member taking the name of some youngster there for whom to purchase a gift. In addition, broken toys will be mended by men of the class under the chairmanship of Bob Oril, and these will be presented to the Center. The class will also assist with the Christmas baskets which the church provides to selected needy families each year.

The new Baptismal in the recently dedicated Chapel at the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH south of Devonshire on DeSoto was used in the first baptismal service last Sunday, when fourteen candidates followed their Lord in Believer's Baptism. Prior to this, the Canoga Park Church has loaned the use of their Baptismal.

There was a special "Victory" note in the ringing of the bell at FIRST METHODIST CHURCH this week. Dr. Donald Goetsch, Chairman of the "Building for Christ" capital funds campaign, announced that the church had reached and surpassed its goal of $45,000 for building a new church plant at 10824 Santa Susana Ave.

"We are grateful", Dr. Goetsch indicated, "to our many friends in Chatsworth who have helped make our effort a success. And we are particularly indebted to our co-workers in the other churches of Chatsworth who have prayed with us that we might reach our goal."

First Methodist Church, which has a 78-year record of service in the community, will construct an entirely new plant at the new location. Program and attendance have outstripped facilities at the former site, making the move necessary.

Robert Field, Jr., of the firm of Austin Field and Fry, AIA, will draw plans and supervise construction. Field's firm built the Los Angeles City Hall and other well-known Southern California buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. WALTER POPE have as their house guest Mrs. Pope's sister, Mrs. Hastings of Montana, who enjoyed the holiday with the family.

Open Sundays 'Til Christmas

A TRUE STORY revealing the power of the Gospel, "SUICIDE MOUNTAIN", will be shown this Sunday evening at the First Baptist Church. The dramatic film was made in Japan, and the scenery is breathtaking. The service will begin at 7:30 p.m.

LINDA ROGERS, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Roy Rogers, left Monday for Kenosha, Wisconsin, where she will enter Kemper Hall, an Episcopal Girls' Finishing School. Linda graduated from Sutter in June and entered Canoga Park High School in September. She plans to return for the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Rogers will return tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. WARREN DAVEY moved into their lovely new home last week, on Farralone.

Mrs. LESLIE HADLEY was hostess for the annual Reciprocity Tea of the Santa Susana Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. KATE SHERIDAN left Wednesday afternoon for Fresno, in company with her nephew, where she saw her son Frosty play in the Thanksgiving Day football game as a member of the Fresno State College team. They enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner afterward with Frosty and his room mates.

"When it seems hardest to pray, pray hardest."
