Escape Injury

Mr. Fred Allen of Variel Ave. escaped injury last Sunday when the brakes failed on his car as he prepared to stop at Shopping Cart Market, and crashed into the phone booth which in turn shattered the large plate glass window at the front of the store. The phone booth was demolished and will have to be replaced. Luckily there was no one in the booth at the time of the accident.

Pat Murray and Danny Flores, clerks, had just a few moments before been enjoying their noon snack at the front counter, and had left to wait on customers at the other register when the "walls came tumbling down". They are thanking their guardian angels for removing them from a position of disaster in the nick of time!

NEW SECOND VICE PRES.

Charles "Chuck" Janess of Janess Trucking and Transfer, who is always so vitally interested in the affairs of our town, was elected Second Vice President of the West Valley Associated Chambers of Commerce this week. They know a good man when they see one -- congratulations!

Rubbish Dump Defeated

Civic-minded citizens of our town who signed petitions or sent in coupons from the Grapevine protesting the proposed dump on the Santa Susana Pass are heartily thanked by Charles Janess, head of the Zoning Committee of the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce. Our efforts were not in vain, for the United By-Products request to establish such a project was disapproved by the County Zoning Board.

Those who appeared at the hearing last Thursday called attention to the increased traffic hazard on Topanga Canyon, lack of water and of dirt needed to compact the rubbish to comply with county regulations, and also the left-turning trucks on the narrow winding road.

Christmas Plans

The CHATSWORTH AMERICAN LEGION Post are planning their annual Christmas party for the elementary school age children of the community on Saturday, December 20. Complete information regarding the affair will appear in the next issue of the Grapevine. The Legion is generously assisted in its promotion by other community groups.

An automobile which overturned three times after it struck a shoulder on the edge of Lassen Street west of DeSoto Avenue injured two passengers, JOHN G. HEPPEL, JR., of Chatsworth, and SAMUEL VANDENBERG, JR., of San Jose. The couple were riding with John George Hepple of Chatsworth, who was not hurt.

The spinning back wheels of a car driven by CHARLES AGUSTA MAISON, 69, was given by police as the cause of a fire in his car which caused his death. The accident occurred last week on the Porter Estate. Witnesses told police that Maison was attempting to break a cable by ramming it with his car. Maison was a resident of Northridge.

Completing 24 years, 1 month, and 7 days of services with the U. S. Marines on November 1, CHIEF WARRANT OFFICER ARTHUR AHLSTROM retired to go into civilian life again. Mr. Ahlstrom spent his youth in Chatsworth and attended Canoga Park High School. At present he is here assisting his brother Cliff with his service station. Cliff recently underwent surgery for a hernia and is making a good recovery.

Mr. Ahlstrom spent four tours, a total of seven years, in Barstow since 1943 and plans to return there with his wife, and go into the insurance business. He has enjoyed seeing many of his old friends and meeting new ones.

IT'S FUNNY . . . AND YOU'LL LAUGH AT . . .

YOUNG PILLARS by Charles M. Schulz

"I thought she was saving my letters because she liked me. . . . Now, I find out it's because the church is having a paper drive. . ."

If you laugh daily at Charles M. Schulz's nationally known and read cartoon character . . . PEANUTS . . . or even if you don't, YOU'LL laugh aloud when you read his new 64-page volume entitled YOUNG PILLARS. With the same gentle humor that has made him so famous, Schulz is able to lift a not so gentle LAUGH from even the most strait-laced reader. Page after sidesplitting page of YOUNG PILLARS presents to each of its readers today's church youth as they really are, youngsters who spend their days being happy, human and hilarious. . . in churches, homes, and schools all over America. YOU may be one of these teen-agers, and maybe you aren't, but whether you buy, borrow or give YOUNG PILLARS as a gift . . . be sure to READ it. You'll find that the author who has captured over 30,000,000 daily readers with his PEANUTS, will have captured you with his YOUNG PILLARS.

A Bible Quiz team from the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH will compete with Christ Community Church on Winnetka this Saturday night at the VALLEY YOUTH ROUNDUP at 14800 Sherman Way in Van Nuys. The team came out first in last month's contest, and if they win this time and also next time, they will be awarded a special gold trophy. Team members are Mike and Ann Lauritzen, John and Doug Sincock, and Furmin McDaniell.

Special speaker for the evening will be Rev. Kenny Poure, who is an evangelist with the "Accent on Youth Crusade", a BIOLA project.

In the way of special music, Ray Brown of Glendale will be soloist. Ray is the nephew of the Curly Alward's, and also sang recently at the opening services at the First Baptist Church here.

Young people from our area are asked to meet at the church, 10025 DeSoto, at 6:30 for transportation.

We have learned from a reliable source that DON JANESE finally learned his code and received his "ham" license. For those who spend their spare time at their sets, his call number is now WA6DJA. Have fun.

Dilemma

Right now, somewhere, a woman is trying to make up her mind whether or not to let a surgeon perform on her only child an operation that might take his life.

A mother is wondering how she is going to tell her son that she knows he is the thief the police are searching for, and that when the law knocks on their door, she will have to tell the truth;

A man whose teen-aged son didn't come home all night is just walking through a door marked "City Morgue";

A beautiful and respected wife whose marriage has lost its meaning is standing on a street corner, flirting with the man she knows will destroy her fidelity;

A man is sitting in his bedroom toying with a loaded pistol while his wife shrieks to him from the bottom of the stairs to come down immediately and explain his insolence in having sneaked to his room instead of listening to the scolding he so richly deserves;

A young woman in a maternity hospital is being hurriedly wheeled into the delivery room from which, she knows, not mother AND child, but mother OR child, will be wheeled out;

A tired doctor is shaking his head and saying, "Polio, Bulbar."

AND I HAVE BEEN LYING here in my warm bed, yawning and stretching and deciding against going to church this fine Sunday morning, since I've nothing in particular to pray for.

—From The Lutheran

"I see in your church convention," said the old farmer, "that you discuss the subject, how to get people to attend church. I have never heard a single address at a farmer's convention on how to get the cattle to come to the rack. We spend our time in discussing the best kind of feeds."—Quote Magazine

LAMP TO MY FEET

Thy Word is a lamp to my feet;
Only a lamp, but enough
To show me the next step ahead,
Each pitfall, each place that is rough

Not a great searchlight which shines
To the very end of my road;
But if I follow His lamp,
Each step brings me closer to God!

At the November meeting of the CHATSWORTH WOMEN'S CLUB the club voted to sponsor the Junior Woman's Club for women 18 to 35, which is in the process of organization.

The Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. Thomas Davidson, reported that the recent Fashion Show of the club was a fine success financially.

For Christmas projects, the members brought their annual donation to the December 9 meeting for the personalized Christmas gift for veterans in the hospitals. They also voted to support the Woman's Club Federation project for milk and sandwiches for needy children overseas. The Christmas program Tuesday featured the "Woodlandaires", a woman's chorus, which presented the story of the composition of "Silent Night".
