BATTER UP!

At long last, the much awaited day has arrived for nearly 200 Chatsworth boys AND their parents!

This Saturday, June 6, will mark the opening day of the brand new ball park at 21350 Dupont St., two blocks south of Devonshire and half a block east of Canoga Ave.

This will be a BIG DAY for our boys. All our young baseballers will be there in uniform; a band and color guard will raise the flag for the first time; our glamorous girls who are running for Chatsworth Festival queen honors will be there selling souvenir programs containing the pictures of all the teams as well as a complete schedule of games for the season - and plugging their own contest as well!

Look for surprises, too! Who will throw out that first ball? Come out and see! Saturday, June 6 at 1:00 p.m!

After the opening ceremonies the first two baseball games of the season will be played - Braves vs Dodgers in the first game, Cards vs Stars in the second.

Come early - stay late. Hot dogs - sno cones - soft drinks - pop corn! Bring the whole family!

FESTIVAL HI-LITES

Chatsworth has a history that is as colorful as any community in the Valley, and the Rotarians intend to let the rest of us know all about it when we celebrate our 72nd Anniversary June 13-14.

The general chairman of the Festival is Dr. Robert Kinsman. Assisting him are George Schoell, Publicity; Bill Beaver, Queen Contest; Concessions, Dr. Louis Haselfeld; Construction, Warren Davey; Permit and License, Wes Nordfelt; Parade, Mike Ragusin; Barbecue, Harold Frost; Booths, Bill Dempsey; Labor Pool, Cliff Parchman; Finance, Dave Latham; Entertainment, Hank Crowley; Festival Program, Dr. E. M. Miner.

Floats in Saturday's parade will be fashioned by merchants, each to illustrate his business. One of the marching bands will be the Staff Band of the Salvation Army of L. A. An honor guard from c Battery, 4th Missile Battalion, 65th Art. of Chatsworth, will also march.

In addition to prizes for the Queen listed last week, the Chatsworth Art Studio is giving her a paint set and six hours of lessons.

Complete program with acknowledgements will be found in the Festival Program to be distributed to residents and businesses.

The 28th annual MAY TEA of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Chatsworth was held on Thursday, May 28, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. in White Oak Hall. Past presidents were honored, and pastors' wives from other churches and presidents of women's organizations of the community gave special reports.

The program featured the wife, Mrs. J. Wesley Neal, who gave a travelogue on her recent trip to Europe. Mrs. Joseph Fladwed was presented in a group of vocal solos.

Funeral services for FRANK LINTNER of Van Nuys, 76, a former local resident, were held Saturday afternoon at Praisewater Mortuary in Van Nuys. Mr. Lintner has been completely paralyzed and unable to talk for the past 8 years as the result of a stroke. Interment was in Forest Lawn.

He leaves his widow, Mary, a son, James, a grand-daughter and grandson.

EARLY RISERS will get pancakes and sausage Sunday, June 7, when the CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF CHATSWORTH, Lassen and Mason, will hold its first annual Pancake Breakfast from 8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. Everyone is invited to attend, but reservations must be made by calling Mrs. Marylyn Taber, DI 4-4235, or Mrs. Helen Graham, DI 5-0966.

BROTHER CARLOS DOLAN of Rancho San Antonio was presented with a scroll from the Chatsworth Rotary Club recently, "in grateful appreciation of his faithful leadership of youth and outstanding service to the community of Chatsworth. The citation went on to read "May he enjoy continued health, happiness, and success and may he always be secure in God's grace." Also present was Brother Norman, who will become the new director of Rancho San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. GAY MINARDI, and Mr. and Mrs. RAY HULLMAN are attending the Rotary Convention in New York June 7-11. They left on May 28, and will return by plane after the Convention.

EGREMONT CHATSWORTH, a French-English Day School, will hold its first graduation program Wednesday, June 10, at the Egremont Encino auditorium at 10:00 a.m., when 8 children from the pre-primer class will graduate to the first grade in caps and gowns and will receive diplomas. All children from Egremont Chatsworth will participate in the program with each class singing various songs. The kindergarten class will present part of their program in French; the pre-primer class will do a native dance to the music "Zulu Warrior" by Johnny Richardson.

Mrs. Marion H. Burbridge, Director of the 3 Egremont Schools, will introduce the program. Cynthia McAdam, pre-primer graduate, will lead the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance. Bradley Lieberman and Deno Miller, kindergarten class, will say the "Lord's Prayer". Following the program awards will be presented to those children for perfect attendance and outstanding achievement in French.

Egremont Chatsworth, located on a 3-acre lemon grove at 19800 Devonshire, opened its doors for the first time last September. Egremont Encino was founded in 1945 by the late Mrs. Margaret F. Bovee.

All parents and friends are invited to attend Egremont Chatsworth's first pre-primer graduation ceremony.

Mrs. GRACE BALDRIDGE, her granddaughter Niyla Nemetz and a girl friend, returned Saturday from 3 weeks in Honolulu. They sailed May 9 on the Matsonia.
