Two Lovely Weddings

LEROY G. BLACK II took as his bride ALICE ANN LUDLOW June 20 at the First Baptist Church of Van Nuys, with the Rev. Charles T. Hughes of Chatsworth officiating. Leroy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Black of Northridge, and Alice Ann is the daughter of Dr. H. L. Ludlow and Mrs. Johnson Ludlow.

The bride wore a white embroidered silk organza dress with short sleeves, tight bodice, full ballerina skirt, and short full veil. She carried a stephanotis and gardenia spray with a white orchid. Maid of honor Judy Aalberg wore delphinium blue silk organza with matching veil and hat, and carried delphiniums in shades of blue in a spray. Bridesmaid Shirley Tackaberry was dressed identical with the maid of honor.

Bob Shankland assisted as best man, with Herb Baker, Bill Claire, and John Santori as ushers, and Corey Cate as ring bearer.

The reception was held at the Blue Room of the church with 350 guests, after which the couple departed on a honeymoon trip to San Diego, where they plan to make their home.

Alice attended S.F. State College and is a member of W. H. Jr. Rifle Club. Leroy attended S. C. Univ. with NROTC scholarship, and presently is an ensign in the U.S. Navy.

RICHARD E. KRANZLER, son of Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Kranzler of Reseda, and FRED A. JOHNSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.V. Johnson on Owensmouth, were united in holy matrimony on June 26 at Christ Community Church of Winnetka, with Rev. Charles A. White officiating.

The bride wore a corolla white satin princess gown, embroidered with alencon lace at the scooped neckline and bodice, with alencon lace panels down the skirt of the dress which ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a sweetheart cap of alencon lace, with a drop pearl. She carried heart of stephanotis phalaenopsis. Maid of honor Varita Johnson wore a ballerina length gown of aqua chiffon over silk organza and carried heart of pink carnations. Judy Hutchison, Virginia Adkins, and Nancy Kranzler were bridesmaids and Kay Kranzler was flower girl; Samuel Adkins assisted as ring bearer.

John Kranzler attended the groom as best man, and ushers were John Deyoung and Don Atchley.

Reception for 200 guests was held immediately following the ceremony in Nelson Hall. The couple left for Sequoia and Yosemite following the reception.
