WEDDING BELLS...

Mary Lou Kenney became the bride of Brian D. McGinnis at the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Hollywood Saturday afternoon with Father King officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Kenney and the late Elmer Kenney, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGinnis.

The bride wore a lace and net gown with high neck and long sleeves and a shoulder length veil with a small crown; she carried white orchids and lilies of the valley. Her sister Sandra was maid of honor and she wore rose taffeta, carrying red baby roses. The bridesmaids, all gowned in pink taffeta and carrying pink roses, were Melinda and Wendy Mercher, and Rosalie McLaurin.

The groom was attended by his brother Michael as best man, who flew here from Honolulu to be present. Ushers were Robert Bender, Robert Plantz, and Robert Campbell.

A reception for the 200 guests followed at the home of the bride's grandparents in Hollywood.

Both young people attended the local elementary school, Sutter Jr. High, and Canoga Park High School. Mary Lou was Queen at last year's July 4th Fiesta. The groom has been attending Valley College and is employed with the Standard Oil Co. They plan to make their home in Van Nuys.

Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. James Woodman entertained at an Open House Sunday evening from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. at their ranch, celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. About one hundred friends and relatives came to honor their hosts, among them Mrs. Woodman's aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. James Jellison of Santa Barbara. Mr. Jellison, the only brother of Mrs. Woodman's father who had passed away, gave her away as a bride at the ceremony 25 years ago. Other relatives from a distance were her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Romines and family of Arizona.

May many happy years be ahead!

Ball Scores

The Junior Baseball League standings remain close. The Dodgers lead with 5 wins and 1 loss; the Yanks and Cards are tied with 4 wins and 2 losses; the Stars have 4 wins and 3 losses; the Rockets have 1 win and 5 losses; and the Braves no wins and 4 losses.

The Pony League had no games this past weekend. The Chats. American Legion team won their game Saturday against the Anhauser team by a 10 to 2 score, but lost to Burbank Sunday by 20 to 9. God blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it--vacation time too!

The CHATSWORTH SUMMER THEATRE is gratified by the response of the public to their appeal for membership in their founding organization, The Cornerstone Club. Although all seats have been taken for both Friday performances (July 10 and 17) of The Solid Gold Cadillac, there are still plenty of good seats available for both Saturdays (11 and 18) of the same play, and the rest of the season. Season memberships are still open up to the 18th for all 4 plays.

The Theatre is very proud of its 1959 crop of teen-age apprentices, who are readying their own production of Puss in Boots to be given at four special matinees for children on Tuesdays, July 14, 21, 28, and Aug. 4 at 3:30 p.m.

John Straka appears in the leading role of Jack; Puss is played by Jan Vonverdo; Princess, Mary Bonnett, Simi; King, Tommy Denson; Aunt, Tony Knowles; Ratzel, John Pfeiffer, Servant to Ogre, Karen Rudisil; Woodcutter, Jeff Leaper; Lord and Lady, Lynn and Terry Nau; King's servant, Julia Lakey. Technical staff includes Allen Pettebone, Nick Dardenna-Ankringa, Sherry Ericson, Roxanne and Sherry McCrary.

The young people are working under the direction of Steve Denson of Woodland Hills, brilliant young Occidental junior, who has won awards at the college for directing and lighting. He is also the originator of the unique Valley Christian Players, now in their 2nd successful tour of California churches.

The Rev. and Mrs. CHARLES T. HUGHES and two sons of the First Baptist Church have returned from a relaxing week camping out at Big Sur. Members and friends will welcome him back to the pulpit this Sunday morning.

The ROTARY CLUB will hold its annual election party Saturday evening at the Country Manor in Calabasas, when Al Brain will be demoted from his position of presidency of the club. New president will be Gay Minardi.

The July meeting of the CATHOLIC CHATSWORTH CRUSADERS CLUB has been postponed to July 16 at 8:00 p.m., at the home of the Trafficanas, 16516 Owensmouth.

Clever invitations to "The TRAVELLING TROUBADOUR DINNER" called members of the Methodist Church choir to a celebration in their honor recently, in appreciation for their splendid contribution to the worship services of the church. Mrs. Frances Mahieu and committee planned and carried out the progressive dinner, which was followed by an evening of games and fun at White Oak Hall.
