Ball Scores

Jr. Baseball League standings this past week are as follows: The Cards are in first place, with 9 wins and 3 losses; The Dodgers follow with 8 wins and 3 losses; Stars, 7 wins, 5 losses; Yanks, 5 wins and 5 losses; Rockets, 3 wins, 9 losses; Braves, 2 wins, 9 losses.

Picked players from the four teams in the Babe Ruth League (Giants, Indians, White Sox and Cubs) played an ALL Star game against the American Legion team last Sunday with a final score of 9 to 3 in favor of the Legion. Babe Ruth League ends their games on August 1; the Little League ends their games August 8; then will come the play-off games. Trophies and awards will be given out toward the end of September to give all families a chance to go on vacations without missing this event.

BLAZE CONTROLLED

Heavy equipment controlled a blaze at the west end of Chatsworth Street last Thursday, with winds threatening, and a hot sun beating down. Residents in the area are mighty thankful that no buildings were destroyed.

Summer Meanderings

Everyone about town is coming and going these days, and so vacation time is front page news: The PAUL RUFF family on Varied Ave. have returned from a week at Yosemite.....The WILBUR TODDS on Independence split up their vacation with the ladies going one way and the menfolk going thataway. Mrs. Barbara Todd and daughters Nancy and Linda packed their suitcases for a 2-weeks visit with friends in San Diego while Mr. Todd and son Larry went in for extensive hiking and fishing in the lakes north of Sacramento, returning last Thursday and Saturday, respectively.....Mr. and Mrs. Don Birchler of Mt. Prospect Illinois, and their 6 children, arrived July 11 for a week's visit with Mrs. Birchler's mother, MRS. MARJORIE CRAIG on Hillview Ave.....The DR. ORVAL HAAS family have just returned from a sojourn in Wisconsin.....Mr. and Mrs. POLK JENNINGS and daughter Linda have just returned from an extensive trip throughout Arizona, exhausting Indian lore that has always fascinated them and never taken the time for exploration.....Mr. and Mrs. ED HOBERT returned July 20 from a visit to his folks, Mr. (please turn to pg. 8)

The NORTHRIDGE-CHATSWORTH 4H CLUB met at Laurelwood Acres on Topanga last Saturday for a demonstration contest, games, hotdog barbecue, etc. The contest winners were: Team participation (1) Sally Mandel and Wendy Holt; (2) Robert Holt and Gary Cooper. Single member demonstration winners were (1) Pinky Gorman; (2) Karen Porter; and (3) Linda Struck-enbruck. Our 4H club members participated in the Northridge Stampede: the horse project rode in the parade, and all members offered their services to the Kiwanis Club. Karen Fortune, President, has as her family's house-guest an International Foreign Youth Exchange student, Lou Chia Hsiung from Formosa, who will leave on the 27th for a mid-west visit before joining the troupe in Washington, D.C.

Beginning Sunday, August 2, the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH on DeSoto will hold an "abbreviated" early morning service at 9:00 a.m. in addition to the 11:00 a.m. service, for those who wish to "beat the heat".

The Adult Sunday School class of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, with their families, were a colorful sight when they returned from a day at Zuma Beach Saturday, some burned to a brilliant red, some with deepened tans.

This week the Senior High Young people are attending summer camp at Forest Home with the pastor, the Rev. Charles T. Hughes. They will return on Saturday afternoon, no doubt with inspiring accounts of one week "a mile closer to heaven".

Mr. and Mrs. LARRY MURRAY of Box Canyon and entourage (7 in all) had a delightful 48-hour vacation at Catalina last week.

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN BALINT of Chatsworth Stationers and Balint's Beauty Salon, have had as their houseguests Mr. Balint's mother and niece, Mrs. Anthony Kovach and Miss Carolyn Ann Balint of Cincinnati, Ohio, who accompanied the Balints on their return trip from the east, and left by train for home last Monday.

The JOSEPH WAGONERS and daughter Mary Dee have returned from 2½ weeks in Oklahoma City and St. Louis. They greatly enjoyed a visit with a daughter Joy Dee and her family in St. Louis, and also daughter Sue and husband who came to join them from Clarksville Tennessee.

After a 3-week delay waiting for her visa to be o.k.'d, JUDY WERREN finally left for Japan on July 18. Going the shorter "Great Circle Route" by Northwest Orient Airlines via Seattle and Anchorage, she arrived in Tokyo 26 hours after leaving Los Angeles. She is now residing in Gifu with her aunt and uncle, the W. H. Ryons.

EINAR ERHART HOEGBERG, former resident of Variel Avenue, succumbed to a heart attack July 13 in West Los Angeles. Interment was at Hollywood Memorial Park on July 17.

Saturday, July 18, the WESLEY FELLOWSHIP of the First Methodist Church held a Bar-B-Que which turned out to be a "Going Away Party for President Gene Bernhard, who will go to Marine Reserves Training Camp in Virginia for 6 wks. Gene was contestant in the make-believe quiz program -- he won the $64,000 (no money involved!) which turned out to be a smart sport shirt. The $64,000 question?? "How much dirt is in a hole 1 ft. square and 18" deep?"

Currently playing at the CHATSWORTH SUMMER THEATRE is William Inge's rollicking comedy, "Bus Stop", which will be repeated for two more performances on Friday, July 31, and Saturday, Aug. 1. Milton Parsons' fast-paced deflection highlights the fun and at the same time deftly probes beneath the surface to bring out the warmly human phases of each character. A well-known theatre, film and TV personality, Mr. Parsons makes his first local appearance with a brilliantly witty and poignant portrayal of the complex Dr. Lyman. Gladys Richards gives an expertly comical and appealing account of Cherie; Bob Sampson of Canoga Park is both amusing and likeable as the bull-headed young cowboy; in the role of his cowboy pal, "Black" Jack O'Shea is a picturesque and sympathetic figure. Blonde, glamorous Jeannette Brown scores as the hard-boiled but warm-hearted proprietor of the cafe; Sally Ann Parsons is youthfully genuine and sparkling as her helper; Chester Foster imbues the sheriff with strength, dignity and homespun wisdom; and Charles Stuart is a handsome and ingratiating bus driver.

The public is cordially invited to attend-- for information and reservations phone DI 1-1448. (Presented at end of Tulsa on Farralone) and Mrs. P. H. Hobert of Portland, Oregon, introducing them for the first time to their little granddaughter, Kathleen....The ED HAUSER family on Owensmouth keep an active household. Mama Alma, on the job at Beauty Round-Up in Canoga Park, fell and severely sprained her right ankle necessitating a cast which will make her home-bound for several weeks. This occurred the day after son Jackie returned from his siege at Good Samaritan Hospital. Navy-man Chuck was home last weekend for a visit with his folks before being transferred to Memphis, Tennessee, for 20 weeks..... The FRANK VERNA family on Romar have had as their guests for the month of July Mrs. Rae Sanson and son Ronald from Weymouth, Mass..... HARRY MOOKLAR heard that the fish were that big on the McKenzie River in Oregon, so the whole family took off last Friday for a week in that area.....HERB SLATER has complained that he never gets his name in the Grapevine, so there you are, Herb--capital letters, yet... ..The ROBERT SAGERIS of Farralone Avenue have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sagert of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gielau of Denver, Iowa, who arrived on the 20th for a two-weeks visit. Also at their home they have Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sagert of Waterloo, Iowa, who arrived on the 17th and plan to make their home here in Southern Calif.

An authentic Hawaiian Party was held at the WOMAN'S CLUB last Saturday night when the Jr. Womans Club arranged a catered luau which preceded dancing and fellowship through the entire balmy evening. Hawaiian decor was carried out in the clubhouse and ladies were resplendant and comfortable in their Hawaiian moomoos.
