CONGRATULATIONS!

John F. Ahlstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ahlstrom on Lassen Street, took as his bride Saturday evening lovely Lois Ann Nicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nicks of Adam Road. The Rev. Kenneth Olson performed the candlelight ceremony at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection in Canoga Park.

The bride's floor-length princess style gown was organza and lace with a fitted bodice; a pearl crown held her silk illusion fingertip veil, and she carried lilies of the valley, stephanotis, and a white orchid with prayer book. Maid of Honor Virginia Kimble wore white taffeta and carried a large heart-shaped bouquet with dolphin blue carnations. Bridesmaids were Marilyn Nicks, Sharon Lane, and Ann LeBlanc, and they were dressed almost identical with the maid of honor.

Bill Nicks, Gene Bernhard, and Jerry Ahlstrom ushered, and Dave Embertson assisted as best man. Sharon Kay Nicks in white taffeta was flower girl, and Russell Ahlstrom did his share as ring bearer. Don and Doris Lilja, at their usual excellence, were soloists. Following the church reception the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Monterey and northern California. The bride and groom are both graduates of Canoga Park High School, and John is now attending Occidental College in his Senior year.

Court of Honor

Post 26 of Chatsworth, Boy Scouts of America, who received their Charter last February, held their first Court of Honor Tuesday, September 8, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coleman, honoring boys who have advanced rank. Eagle Scout Bob Huggins Jr., Vice President Pro-Tem, presented four Merit Badges to Jeff Burkhart, and after obtaining Merit Badges, Ronald Coleman received Star Scout Award.

The boys were honored by the parents as well as the Post.

Funeral services for Mrs. MARTHA HOWELL, who passed away suddenly with a stroke on Monday, September 1, were held Thursday from Praise-water's Chapel in Canoga Park with Dr. Harold Hayward officiating.

Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Howell was born in Kansas in 1891, but following her marriage had lived in Chatsworth since 1917 except for a few years residence in Santa Ana, until she moved a couple of years ago to Simi.

She leaves her son Gene, a granddaughter, Babette Samaturo, and a great grand-daughter Gina, a brother, Will Wilkins of Granada Hills, and many friends who deeply regret her passing.

Mrs. RETTA CROWLEY passed away at Villa Maria Sanitarium September 2, following an illness of several months as the result of two strokes. Mrs. Crowley came to Chatsworth from British Columbia last June to make her home with her son Hank Crowley and his family, and was only here for two days when she suffered the first stroke.

Rev. James Murray officiated at the funeral service at St. Martins in the Field Tuesday, and interment was at Oakwood.

Mrs. Crowley leaves her three children, Hank, Terence, and Kathleen, and their families. Our sincere condolences.

MERLE HESETT was married to JOYCE LAMBRIGGER of Pacoima in a lovely wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon at the church in Pacoima. Merle has been making his home with the James Woodman family for the past two years, while attending Pierce College.
