DEEPER LIFE CRUSADE

You are cordially invited to attend a DEEPER LIFE CRUSADE at the First Baptist Church, 10025 DeSoto Avenue, EVERY NIGHT Sunday through Friday, October 18-23 at 7:30 p.m., at which Rev. Bill Yaeger, popular pastor of Valley Park Baptist Church (above) will be guest speaker.

Messages will be aimed primarily at Christians, emphasis being to help lead to a more mature Christian life.

In addition to congregational singing of some of our great old hymns, special music will be featured at each meeting. On Sunday the local church choir will sing, plus a special "musical package"; on Monday and Tuesday Rev. and Mrs. John Parker will be guest singers; Wednesday, Mrs. Elena Walsh; Thursday, Rev. Fred Fels and his "magic violin". Friday, the Valley Baptist Ministers Quartet Charles Hughes, Bill Yaeger, John Parker, and Grant Yeatman.

A NURSERY ATTENDANT will be provided at each meeting!

A special Fellowship Dinner is planned by the ladies of the church for the opening day, this Sunday, October 18, which will not only inaugurate the week of special meetings but will be the first time the new kitchen facilities in the new building are used.

Come for dinner Sunday at 6:00 -- stay for the meeting at 7:30 -- and then make a date for each night this week!

Surprise Wedding

A MEXICAN DINNER will be served at White Oak Hall on Saturday, October 17, by the ways and means committee of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church. The chairman, Mrs. Dan Barton and the co-chairman Mrs. Harry Mooklar, will be assisted by Mrs. Ramon Avila, culinary artist in Mexican foods.

LLOYD FELLOWS was removed to the Valley Hospital last week for rest and recuperation from a heart attack, the 2nd in recent months.

Mr. and Mrs. DON PAUL and family moved this past week to Llano in the Antelope Valley, after 15 years of residence in Chatsworth. Mr. Paul's work has been there for several years and he has commuted daily up to this time.

The family has been an integral part of the community life and active in the Methodist Church. They were tendered several going-away parties: Ricky was honored by a group of friends from Canoga High, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schepler for an evening with several couples who have enjoyed social activities through the years. Mrs. Paul was guest at the recent WSCS meeting, when she was presented with one of the picture plates of the church as a token of appreciation and friendship.

Those who have been workers in the Jr. Baseball League know there has been no more dedicated person in this work than Mr. Paul, who was specially honored on opening day. Mr. and Mrs. Paul were also interested in scouting, and Mrs. Paul served her time as den mother.

We'll miss them!!

A carload of young campers from the PHALANX FOR CHRIST BOYS CLUB of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH spent an invigorating night at 6,000 feet in the Upper Chilao Area of the San Gabriel Mountains recently. In their sleeping bags were Jeff Brown, Fritz Cooper, Ken James, Allan James, Tom Grycel, Phil Schwartz, and J. B. James, the adult of the crew. The night was spent with a buck and doe in camp, with plenty of appetite for breakfast over the campfire and exploring the beauty of God's mountain area.

ELMER "POP" KENYON, manager of Alward's Stony Point Mobilgas Station, is recovering at West Valley Community Hospital from major surgery performed last week. We hope it won't be long before we see his cheery smile and hear his southern drawl back on the job.

BETSY CROMEN was the honored guest for a surprise party recently on her 15th birthday. The party was planned by her brother Gene, and proved to be a complete success. The 12 young people present enjoyed the usual party fun and refreshments, and Betsy was remembered with many nice gifts.

Egermeier's Picture-Story Life of Christ

This old favorite now features a completely new, colorful cover design and a beautiful four-color jacket. Sixty-one fascinating stories, selected from the New Testament section of the famous "Egermeier's Bible Story Book," are combined with seventy-nine delightfully-large, full-page pictures illustrating incidents in the life of Christ. This truly is a superb picture and story-book. Thirty-five of the pictures are in four colors. While the stories are written in a style captivating for children, the book is one that always is enjoyed by adults, too. Jesus is made real and vivid. Young minds are impressed by these simple stories which teach the principles of Christian conduct. De luxe binding. 300 pages. Size 6x9 inches.

Chatsworth can well be proud of the fine new building on the grounds of the Chatsworth Elementary School. Those who have not seen it might well take a few minutes to visit the addition to the plant.

The school was on full day session the week after it opened, with a fine corps of teachers. The names of the teachers, with their classes, follows: Mrs. LaVerne Lee, Principal; Mrs. Doris Lynch, Kindergarten; Mrs. Bette Hughes, Kindergarten and B1; Mrs. Margaret Burgess, B1; Mrs. Eloise Overlin, B1, A1; Mrs. Edith Holliday, B2; Mrs. Dorothea Verner, B2, A2; Mrs. Ioline Cleveland, A2, B3; Mrs. Frances Reding, B3, A3; Mrs. Dorothy Armstrong, A3, B4; Mrs. Agnes VanNoy, B4, A4; Mrs. Marlys Stokenbruct, A4, B5; Mrs. Elaine Bates, B5, A5; Mrs. Thersa Glenn, A5, B6; Mrs. Helen Burke, B6, A6.

Mrs. Eleanor Damren is the school clerk and the custodians are Edward Koslov and Arnold Hanson.

Much credit is due our splendid principal for her very efficient management of the many details attending the opening of school, with its week of half day sessions and its subsequent full day schedule.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. (KELY) JOHNSON returned home last week from a ten-day vacation trip with their daughter's family, the Ray Cooks of Wimer, Oregon, and found them well and enjoying their new home.

On their return trip they stopped in Merced to visit Mrs. Mary B. Bryant, and Mr. Johnson's cousin, Marrell Johnson, who took him on a two-day hunting trip on Ebbet's Pass. Nice camping trip, but no luck! In Fresno, they stopped to visit with the Chester Fultons and family. All these friends are former Chatsworth residents.

JIMMY BAER, TIM FERPELL, and RICKY PAUL, who started Kindergarten together in Chatsworth and went through most of their school years together, are now re-united at Palmdale High Schools, since their families have moved to Antelope Valley. Harry Maybin and Tom Ferrell are also attending Palmdale.
