"GIVE 'TIL IT HELPS"

B Karen Kenworthy, 8, of Brownie Troop 963, reminds
Mrs. Robert Armstrong, 10909 DeSoto Avenue, in doorway, to include Girl Scouts in her giving to Community Chest.
Mrs. Curth Hyhre, left, is typical of 12,000 volunteers
who will ring doorbells in 21 Valley communities for Red Feather residential kickoff November 2.

Statistics show that even a small donation helps. Five cents will buy a glass of milk for a sick child; ten cents will provide a set of crayons for a child in nursery school; thirty cents a
school lunch; fifty cents
vitamins for four days for a sick child; and one dollar
will pay for half the cost of a new crutch for an injured
child! GIVE 'TIL IT HELPS!

Hundreds of youngsters and adults
are awaiting the fun in store for them
on Saturday night, October 31, at the annual Hallowe'en Carnival at Orcutt Park.

Jointly coordinating the gala affair
for the Canoga Park area are the Canoga Park Community Council under the direction of Mr. John de Arrieta and the L. A. Department of Recreation under the direction of Mr. Joe Fogelstrom and Mrs. Lila Schepler.

Jack O'Shea, Honorary Sheriff of Chatsworth, will act as master of ceremonies and will kick-off the festivities with a gigantic bonfire at 6:30 p.m. followed by a pre-school age
costume parade. Fifteen colorful game
booths will delight
the youngsters from 7:00 to 10:00 with
the added attraction of The Mighty Greased Pole for
all challenging
on-comers and The Wrecked Car for
those seeking release

Funeral services for ROY S. EPKINS, 48, of Chatsworth Lake, were held Wednesday, Oct. 28 at the First Methodist Church, with a former pastor, Dr. Harold Hayward, officiating. Mrs. Joseph Fladwed was the soloist and Mrs. R.L. Johnson assisted at the organ. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery. Mr. Epkins passed away very suddenly Friday evening with a heart attack.

Born in Pekin, Illinois, on February 15, 1911, Mr. Epkins came to California with his parents in 1922, where he attended school, graduating from Inglewood High School in 1928. He has been a West Valley resident since 1936. In 1937 he married Margaret Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gray of Chatsworth Lake, and came to Chatsworth with his family to live ten years ago.

He leaves his widow, Margaret, a daughter, Bonnie Lou, two sisters, Mrs. James Christ of San Fernando and Mrs. R. W. Shell of Inglewood, and many other relatives and friends who mourn with the family his untimely passing.

Mr. and Mrs. EDWARD HOBERT enjoyed a recent visit from Mr. Hobert's parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Hobert of Portland, Oregon. Rev. and Mrs. Hobert are wintering in Norway with their daughter and family, and make occasional visits to their son's home here.

Jack o'lanterns, corn stalks and witches will help create the proper atmosphere for the "Witch's Whirl" costume party that the Chatsworth Junior Women's Club is planning for Hallowe'en night. An evening of dancing and fun is in store for members and their friends. Mrs. Rabun Harper, ways and means chairman, and her co-chairman Mrs. Joseph Cicchi, announces that the masqueraders must be prepared for the goblins and spooks that will be haunting Chatsworth Center that evening. Dancing around a life-size witch will highlight the evening festivities. A snack bar will be opened near the hour of midnight. Prizes will be awarded for the most outstanding costumes, and door prizes and favors will be given out during the evening.

Working on the decorations for this gala event are Mrs. Daniel Anderson and Mrs. John Rodine. Others helping to make the evening

Many Chatsworthians have already taken advantage of the highly specialized services of NEIGHBORHOOD TV, former Westshire TV, which has recently come under the new management of Mr. Lucio Frank Villa. Mr. Villa tells us that thanks to the backing of the other Neighborhood branch shop the establishment of this shop was made possible, and it also makes it possible to turn the work out much quicker. Good service is their watchword -- the organization is the largest in the West Valley in its field! Welcome to Chatsworth!

CHUCK ADAMS returned home Friday from a week's hunting trip to Utah with three friends from Van Nuys, having the satisfaction of bringing home a deer.

CANOGA CAVALIERS, the mounted group that took FIRST PLACE in their class in the Canoga Holiday Parade, is offering to you an afternoon of free entertainment. This will be a show of horsemanship with special entertainment planned for the "kid-dies" during intermission. There will be a "Jail-Break" too, so come out and have a real wonderful day... Sunday, November 1, 12:30 p.m., Thunderhead Ranch, 9200 Canoga Avenue. For further information in regard to the Cavaliers or the big Gymkhana call Col. Weisbaum at DI 6-8788.

Mr. and Mrs. GLENN MYER and daughter Glenda were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shigeo Tanaka of San Fernando on Wednesday Oct. 14. Mr. Myer and Mr. Tanaka grew up together in Chatsworth and the occasion celebrated the birthday anniversary of Mr. Myer and Jerry Tanaka, who was born on Mr. Myer's birthday 10 years ago.

Mrs. ROBERT ORIL was honored with a stork shower Wednesday by the Explorers for Christ Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church. The guests had the pleasure of seeing Patty Jo, who was born on October 11. Appropriate games and refreshments concluded the evening.

Mrs. ROY ROGERS (DALE EVANS) entertained with a delightful party Friday, honoring her son Dusty on his 13th birthday. Actually, his birthday wasn't until October 28, but as he would be away at school the celebration was planned for the 24th. Mrs. Rogers was assisted by Mrs. Pearl Wright in the plans and preparations. Nine guests enjoyed the wonderful dinner, cleverly carried out in the Halloween motif. Dusty received many nice gifts from his friends, who enjoyed watching him open them. Following the dinner, the party enjoyed the remainder of the evening at the show.

The ROMEO TOGNAZZINIS have sold their Devonshire Street home and after 25 years in Chatsworth will move to Santa Maria after the first of the year, where they have purchased a new home.

The Tognazzinis have many friends who will regret their leaving. Mr. Tognazzini has in the past been very active in community organizations, and among his various activities have been President of the Civic Club (now disbanded), Past Commander of Chatsworth Post American Legion, (he also holds a life membership in the Legion), a member of the 40 and 8, and the Elks Club.

Applications for extra CHRISTMAS CARRIERS for Chatsworth will be accepted starting November 1, and will continue until sufficient applications are received. Forms may be obtained at the Post Office, 10316 Santa Susana Avenue.

On November 2 the CHATSWORTH JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB will spend a "night in the Orient", announces Mrs. Joseph Pupillo, International Affairs Chairman. Two movies will be shown, "Festival" and "Kimona", which screen the customs and the way of living for the Japanese people. Mrs. Pupillo plans to have a musician who will play a Japanese string instrument.

Donations for "Kits For Kidies" will be accepted that evening. This fund provides aid for refugee children of Hong Kong and Viet Nam.

Oriental cookies and tea will be served by Mrs. Phillip Legendre and Mrs. Robert Lukas.

Dodger pitcher LARRY SHERRY, outstanding player in the 1959 world series, made a return visit to the club foot clinic at Orthopaedic Hospital recently, a Community Chest service. He didn't remember the October 4, 1935, visit, when, at the age of two months, he entered the hospital for treatment of club feet. He remembers only returning later, for check-ups. But almost 24 years later, climaxing an athletic career that started on the sand lots, progressed through John Burroughs Jr. High and Fairfax High diamonds, Sherry played outstanding baseball to win the world series for Los Angeles.

At Orthopaedic Hospital he talked with Mrs. R. E. Hinman of 10110 Jordan Avenue, who had brought in her son Scott Edward, 11 months of age, for treatment. Sherry reassured her and other mothers present. He told them that regardless of family circumstances or accidents of birth, their children are being given every chance modern medicine and a concerned public can provide for them.

The public's stake in tomorrow citizens - and athletes - a hospital official said, is insured by the Community Chest. Because Orthopaedic Hospital is one of

GUIDED WITH THE EYE

The Lord very sweetly says, "I will guide thee with Mine eye" (Ps. 32:8); but how can He guide us thus unless we walk near enough to Him to catch the glance, and take the direction of His eye? from oppressed mischief-making, vandalism and destruction. At 8:00 o'clock the Grammar School and Junior High level youngsters will parade before the judges who will again present their rewards for the prettiest, funniest, spookiest, and most original costumes. Throughout the evening vendors will offer hot dogs, soda pop, coffee, do-nuts and cider. Climaxing the evening of entertainment will be the decorative Teen Dance from 9:30 to 11:30 in the auditorium where the teenagers will dance and drink pop to their hearts' content.

Among the list of volunteer workers contributing their efforts are: Mmes: Jack O'Shea, Fay Thomas, Harlan Curtis, D. M. McElvain; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Newman, Mrs. Carl Henneman and Mrs. George Ol-

The SAFETY COMMITTEE of CHATSWORTH PARK PTA is urging all parents to take extra precaution this Saturday night. Hallowe'en is a time for fun, but the safety factor of the fun should not be forgotten. For this reason, the "trick or treat" custom is being discouraged here as our lack of adequate lighting, sidewalks, paving, etc.. is hazardous to small children. Neighborhood costume parties are especially encouraged, but if none are planned then parents are urged to take advantage of the Orcutt Park carnival activities.

The last period of a four-week study class on Africa was presented Tuesday, Oct. 6 at the FIRST METHODIST CHURCH by the missionary chairman, Mrs. Larry Wells. Instruction for the class was given by the pastor, Rev. J. Wesley Neal, and included not only historic facts but his own first-hand knowledge of the country, acquired in trips there this past spring and the year before. Slides of his many interesting visits to missionary stations and of other points of interest, are included in the class.

Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service from the Agoura Methodist Church, St. John's Methodist Church, and Granada Hills Methodist Church participated in the class, which proved most interesting and valuable to all.

Mrs. ESTELLE KEARNS commemorated the occasion of her 77th birthday recently with a delightful dinner party. The festivities were further enjoyed when her daughter, Mrs. James Wood, showed pictures of present-day Bombay, India, where her husband is still employed and from which she has recently returned.

The METHODIST MEN of the First Methodist Church assisted by the Women's Society of Christian Service and the MYF groups of the church, sponsored a barbecue Sunday following the second church service, on the new church grounds at 10824 Santa Susana Avenue. The men were chefs for the barbecue and provided delicious steaks. The balance of the dinner was assembled with various other dishes being brought by the guests.

The affair was designed to acquaint the membership with the new property as well as to acquaint the membership with each other in a social way. The proposed master plan for the grounds was on display, and a tour of the grounds and the parsonage was made for those who had not seen it before.

Music was provided by Bob Oril, accordion, Larry Murray, guitar, and Ed Ahlstrom, bass fiddle, during the dinner hour, and later in the afternoon Ronnie and David Neal on the guitar and bongo drums.

Carla Schoonhoven was master of ceremonies, announcing the various events. Clever and spectacular games were planned by Mrs. William Schepler, concluding with a tug of war between the boys and girls over a deep hole filled with water. The girls won, helped by some strong men!
