THE VES APPREHENDED

Three narcotic addicts were apprehended at the corner of Hillview and Devonshire last Thursday afternoon, after they had stolen shirts from J. C. Penney store in Canoga Park. Officer D. Lloyd stopped the men after their license number had been broadcast throughout the West Valley, and within a few minutes three other police cars arrived on the scene to assist him in handcuffing the men and in searching the car. No evidence of narcotics was found in the car, according to Sgt. O. Deryk of the West Valley Police Division. The three men were from Pacoima: Alfred T. Perez, 26, who went to court Tuesday afternoon (Sgt. Deryk's opinion was that he probably would be sent to San Quentin); Ray S. Solis, 20, who is at present serving 90 days in the county jail; and Arnold O. Ortiz, 23, who was released on lack of evidence--he claimed he took the other men shopping and had no knowledge they planned to steal.

Sgt. Deryk has asked the Grapevine to stress to its readers the importance of reporting to the police strangers at the door -- especially if someone asks foolish directions or asks for yard work. The course of action taken is this: after the men knock at the door, if someone answers they make up a quick story or request -- if no one answers they quickly go to the rear of the house and either steal tools or other valuables from an open garage, or go through a window and steal whatever is easiest to move in a hurry. Most popular items are TV sets, vacuum cleaners, and small appliances. It is suggested you write down the serial numbers of such items and keep in a safe place.

If such a stranger comes to your door, GET THE LICENSE NUMBER of their car and immediately call DI 4-0151, Sgt. O. Deryk or Sgt. L. Selby. This is a direct line to their office and they are most anxious to maintain a closer touch with our area!

Barry Lee Krems, 21, who admittedly stole $500 worth of equipment from the SOUND SHOP on August 31, is also in custody and the stolen property has been returned.

Chamber Meeting

The regular general monthly meeting of the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce will be held on Tuesday, November 10, 8:00 p.m., at Chatsworth Center. A report will be heard from the Nominating Committee for 1960 officers and directors, and nominations may (please turn to pg. 3)

The CHATSWORTH LEGION AUXILIARY, meeting at the Legion Building at 9817 Topanga last Wednesday night, was gratified with the fine assortment of gifts for the annual Christmas Gift Shop for hospitalized veterans. The presents, averaging three dollars each, totaled one hundred and fifty dollars.

This is perhaps one of the most outstanding services of the Auxiliary, assisted of course by other Units throughout the District. First, the gifts are purchased and cellophane wrapped, and turned into headquarters by November 1. In this way, contents of the package may be seen and not harmed if handled. The store is then set up in the hospitals so that ambulatory patients may visit it, and a portion placed in a mobile store that goes to the bed-ridden patients.

After the gifts are selected by the patient for all his family-- and some have as many as ten-corps of workers gift wrap them, and package for mailing. Even the postage for mailing is provided by the Units. The effort is truly a great one and brings wonderful happiness to our veterans who have given so much for us.

Mrs. Ruth Ulery, the re-hab chairman, is in charge of this project and was very pleased with the response of the local Unit.

The Unit conducted a very successful food sale Saturday at the Chatsworth Market, as a ways and means project, with Mrs. Katherine Slater in charge.

The MARINE SCOUT SHIP COCAPA-CHAVI of Chatsworth, with the MSS Avax of Northridge and two Jr. High troops, spent an evening recently at White Oak Hall hearing the report from girls who attended Senior Girl Scout Roundup in Colorado Springs last July. Slides were shown, illustrating the Roundup.

HALLOWE'EN was duly observed by the community, and happily, there was little of the usual depredations that generally occur. There were a few soaped windows, and of course the usual "trick or treaters" but most of these were accompanied by adults and were kept in hand.

There were several private parties which kept children and adults happily entertained, as well as organizations that provided group entertainment. The Junior MYF of the First Methodist Church had their party at White Oak Hall on Saturday, and the Seniors met at the home of their counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wardlaw, for their fun and frolic. The Explorers for Christ adult Sunday School class met at Murray's Castle in Box Canyon.

The Junior BYF of the First Baptist Church met at the home of their counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Douglas ("Douglas's Dark Den"), and the Senior group gathered at "Boyce's Bewitched Bedlam" on San Jose Street.

Hallowe'en decor, costuming, appropriate games and stunts, music and singing brought fun and pleasure to each group's activities.

Mrs. DURK HASKELL was called to L. A. Tuesday by the serious illness of her father, Carl Johnson of Montrose, who had been removed to Queen of Angel's Hospital. On Thursday he underwent major surgery. Viola remained with her mother for a few days, returning home on Sunday evening.

A Visitation Evangelism Mission will be conducted November 8, 9, and 10 by members of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, under the direction of Rev H. Leslie Christie of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society.

A dinner is planned preceding each of the day's visitations, to be held at the church, and served to the visitors by ladies of the church.

GEORGE SCHOELL held a delightful "Open House" for those who assisted in his recent move from House of Hanlon, on Hallowe'en night at his apartment on the grounds of Chatsworth Garden Nursery. Guests came in costume, and highlight of the evening was a midnight tour of the old Chatsworth Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES JANESS had as a recent visitor Miss Elizabeth Boyer and her mother from Michigan. Miss Boyer is a former school friend whom Mrs. Janess had not seen for twenty years.

October 30 was the date of the CHATSWORTH ETI CORRAL 54's Hallowe'en dinner, held at the Coe Ranch and attended by approximately 60 members and friends. Janet Fleming was the lucky winner of door and rattiest costume for female prizes, while Al Campbell won the prize for the male costume. Home-made spaghetti, salad, and garlic bread really hit the spot and luckily, though it was cold, the wind held off and all went home fully and happy.

Mrs. EDDIE JOHNSON held a toy party at her home recently for a group of friends. Conducted by Teri Summers, guests were given an opportunity to select toys and gifts in the quiet of the group

At their regular meeting on November 10, members of the CHATSWORTH WOMAN'S CLUB will be privileged to hear Grant C. Butler, noted writer, sports announcer, and TV commentator, who will speak on the subject, "Saudi Arabia, Mystery of the Middle East." Mr. Butler, a graduate of the Air Force Intelligence School, was a combat reporter with the U.S. Ninth Air Force in France and Germany where he recorded actual missions in bombers and fighters for rebroadcast on the NBC Army hour and other networks. He has been a frequent member of TV and radio panels recently, discussing Middle East affairs. As head of the Field Public Relations Division for the Arabian American Oil Company in Saudi Arabia, he knows his subject well and presents it with humor, keen insight, and objectivity.

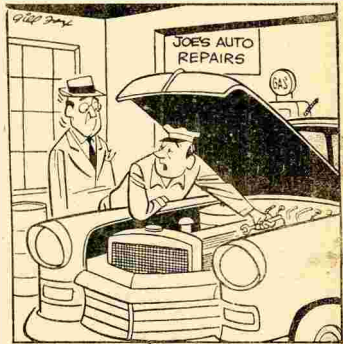

Newcomers to the community are cordially invited to attend. Call DI 1-3202 for reservations. The program will follow the usual 12:30 luncheon, served by Mrs. Robert Cooley and her committee. The president, Mrs. Dale Pinkerton, will preside.

Club members and friends enjoyed the Fashion Show at Queen's Arms Restaurant in Encino last Tuesday. Many lovely door prizes were awarded the lucky ticket holders. Mrs. Wm. Mandel and Mrs. Thomas Davidson, co-chairmen, were assisted by Mrs. Robert Liddle.

The ANNUAL BAZAAR and DINNER given by the Womens Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church will be held on Thursday, November 21, at Chatsworth Hall, 21340 Devonshire. The committee is serving a ham dinner this year because the date is so close to Thanksgiving, when turkey is the usual piece de resistance.

The ladies will have booths displaying home-made aprons, pillowcases, dish towels, and other handwork, novelties, attic treasures, baked foods, homemade candy, including many things that will be suitable for Christmas gifts.

The sale will open at 4:30 p.m. and continue throughout the evening, and dinner will be served from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

The affair is open to the public and all are cordially invited to attend.

LYLE BENNETT, Chatsworth artist, is having a one-woman exhibition of 23 of her oil paintings at the Canoga Park Women's Club, which will continue through November.

On October 22 the artist addressed the regular luncheon meeting of the club on the subject of painting, illustrated by references to her works, which range from realism to the non-objective. She has exhibited in many shows and has won a number of awards.
