Hot Lunch

"Luncheon is Served" on Monday, November 30, 12:00 noon, at the Chatsworth Center by the Chatsworth Junior Women's Club. This luncheon is for anyone desiring a good lunch! It will be a three-course prepared by two excellent cooks for $1.25 per person. Business men of Chatsworth are especially invited.

All ticket holders for the luncheon have chances of winning some nice gifts. Tickets may be purchased at Colleen's Fashions, 21735 Devonshire, or by contacting Mrs. James Cicchi, DI 1-2845.

RED FEATHER REPORT

Chatsworth has achieved 16.18 per cent of its $1,643 quota in the Community Chest appeal, according to Dave Latham of Security-First National Bank, city chairman.

"Much of the responsibility for raising the quota in our community rests on the shoulders of the residential workers. We know how much the funds are needed to support the 165 Red Feather agencies and feel certain we will be able to put our community over the top," Mrs. Wm. Dieck, residential chairman, said.

Currently the Valley has raised 30.82 per cent of the $222,250 overall goal.

"Give 'til it helps!"

Chamber Candidates

Candidates for officers and directors of the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce for the year 1960 have been announced as follows, and will be elected at the next general meeting on Tuesday, December 8, at 8:00 p.m.: Honorary Mayor, Roy Rogers; President, John Sixsmith; Vice President, Harlan Curtis; Secretary, Tom Newland; Treasurer, John Konigsfeld. Directors (only 11 can be elected): John Balint, Lewis Bliss, Jay Boyce, Warren Davey, Bill Garman, Charles Janess, Robert Kinsman, Robert Lombardi, C. A. Palmer, Florence Shaw, Roger Vance, George Vincent, Oran Wells. Building Management Committee: Bill Dempsey.

Voting by proxy is prohibited, but voting by absentee ballot is permissible. Absentee ballots may be obtained only by individuals who must be absent from the county, or who have disabling illness. Application for absentee ballot may be done in writing to the Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 134, or you may call the Secretary at DI 1-1858 and make an appointment to receive a ballot.

PLEASE SUBMIT GRAPEVINE AD COPY BY SATURDAY FOR NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE DUE TO THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY. The paper will be dated Wednesday, November 25.

Members of the CHATSWORTH WOMENS CLUB and their guests were delightfully entertained and thoroughly informed on the Middle East situation when they had as their speaker Grant C. Butler, who spoke on "Saudi Arabia Mystery of the Middle East". From his first-hand knowledge, obtained as head of the Field Public Relations Division for the Arabian American Oil Company in Saudi Arabia, Mr. Butler discussed the subject by way of the customs of the people; their religion; their way of handling crime which includes instant beheading for murder and the cutting off of a hand for stealing; their political life; their refugee problem; and their desire for peace and understanding. Mr. Butler stated that the cultural and spiritual side of America must be presented to these people so that they may know we have other aspirations than making money and war materials. In all our efforts to bring about peace there, he concluded, we should live by the words of the Master, the carpenter who lived

2,000 years ago, who said "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength...and thy neighbor as thyself".

The Fall theme was used in the decorations on the tables for the delicious luncheon served by Mrs. Robert Cooley, chairman, Mrs. P. J. Keith, co-chairman, and their committee, Mmes. Warren Johnson, Donald Pittman, John Carmichael, Harold Kline, Edmund Loritz, Will Wilkins, Charles Turner, Tracy Althouse, and Robert Boggis.

Thursday, December 3, is scheduled for another polio clinic at White Oak Hall, 10051 Topanga, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. These clinics are sponsored by the Jr. and Sr. Women's Clubs to assist in the general polio inoculation program.

Mrs. Dale Pinkerton, president, presided over the meeting, and the program chairman, Mrs. Glenn Beyer, presented the program. *

W. E. EVANS, well known and beloved resident of Chatsworth for 20 years, passed away at Good Samaritan Hospital November 12 after a brief illness. Interment was at Forest Lawn on November 16 following services at Wee Kirk of the Heather.

Mr. Evans practiced law for 50 years, and once represented the old 9th District, the largest populated district in the U. S. He was one of the early developers of residential and business properties in Glendale. For the past 20 years he has been a well known breeder of Tennessee walking horses in Chatsworth, at his Evans Stock Farm.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Ford Harris, Jr., and a grandson, Wm. G. Harris. Mrs. Harris was also recently bereaved upon the death of her 21-year old son Jonathan. Mr. Evans also leaves two brothers and a sister in Kentucky.

Recently returned from a 2½ month trip in Ohio visiting with relatives and friends are Mr. and Mrs. LYNN BURGETT. They greatly enjoyed the colorful Fall and were fortunate to have good driving weather en route.

REV. CHARLES T. HUGHES of the First Baptist Church will conduct a three-day Deeper Life Crusade at the Valley Park Baptist Church at Nordhoff and Sepulveda, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Nov. 18, 19, and 20. You are cordially invited to attend the meetings, each of these nights at 7:30 p.m.

The DEVONSHIRE DEMOCRATIC CLUB will hold its regular meeting tonight, November 19, at the home of the Val Martineau's, 10453 Lassen (near Mason) at 8:00 p.m. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. John DeRoo, County Committeeman, Vice Chairman of the 41st Assembly District Council and past president of both the Granada Hills Democratic Club and 41st Council.

In line with the principal aim of the club, which is to provide a more informed electorate, Mr. DeRoo will speak on the aims and purposes of the California Democratic Council of Democratic Clubs.

All registered Democrats in the area are invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. CECIL WOODALL, former residents now living in Northridge, welcomed a baby boy to their home on October 28. He was named Warren Cecil and is a constant thrill to his 3-year old sister, Debbie.

Mrs. Woodall's mother, Mrs. Wm. Sinclaire, came over from Hawaii, where her husband is working with the Lockheed plant, to spend a short time with the Woodalls when mother and baby came home from the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclaire are also former residents.

Other former residents who have recently had new arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. TRUMAN BARLOW of Utah, who welcomed their 3rd child, another little girl, on November 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonreed Lauritzen are the proud maternal grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT DAVIS of Sacramento welcomed their first child, a baby girl, Michelle Jeannette, born November 7, weighing 8 lbs. 12 ounces. Mrs. Davis is the former Lois Partout.

Money measures men—their capacity and their consecration. In some instances money masters men. They become its slaves. In many instances money multiplies men. Through the ministry of the money he earns and gives, a Christian labors on every continent, preaches in a thousand pulpits, teaches and trains tomorrow's leaders. He ministers to multitudes in the name of Christ.

A new youth group has recently been organized in Chatsworth, the INDIAN Y GUIDES, who meet every other Wednesday night at the homes of the various members. Dr. Robert Kinsman is the Chief of the tribe which has been named the Havasupi Tribe. Boys six to nine are eligible for membership.

Members are trained in Indian lore, camping, and in love of family life, especially a closeness to their father. Fathers are required to attend the meetings with the boys. Members are Jack Wardlaw and son David; Dan Golden and son Bill; Larry Viole and son Brad; Ken Schmachtenberger and son Tom; Charles Johnson and son Mike; and Dr. Kinsman and son Robert. The boys all have adopted Indian names in keeping with their total Indian theme.

LARRY MURRAY was honored with a surprise going-away party Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. James Woodman at the Wee Woodman Rancho, on the eve of leaving for a month of hunting at Canum Lake in Canada. The guests enjoyed the game of "Travel", with winning awards going to Mrs. Charles Janess and Joe Adamski.

Musical numbers were enjoyed with Bob Oril on the accordion, Ed Ahlstrom on the bass fiddle, Larry Murray on the guitar, and Mr. Lewis on the mandolin. Community singing completed the musical part of the evening.

Mr. Murray was presented with a 35 mm camera as a going-away gift from his friends.
