Gone from our Midst

Two outstanding Chatsworth citizens left our midst this past weekend when this life was left behind and a new life in eternity begun.

Judge DAVID FULWIDER passed away Friday evening as the result of a chronic heart ailment. Funeral services were held Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Lorenzen Chapel in Reseda, with private interment in Oakwood the following morning.

The story of Judge Fulwider's life and of his service in his chosen profession will appear in next week's issue.

WALTER P. LOHMAN, long-time Chatsworth Real Estate broker, passed away at his Owensmouth Ave. home last Saturday morning, after living a very active and full life, enjoying every minute of it and living it to its fullest. He scarcely knew sickness until his recent illness commenced September 1.

He was born in St. Louis, Mo., on August 14, 1882, and came to Los Angeles in 1904. In his younger years he was the organizer of two banks in the Middle West, instrumental in the formation of Stocks and Bonds Companies, and was responsible for the construction of a bridge and a church with his sales of stock. He was in the Real Estate business for the past 40 years, 25 years of which he handled insurance for New England Mutual Life.

At one time he was a rather well-known amateur golfer, and proudly displayed his trophies at his home.

Besides his many, many friends who will miss seeing him about town, he leaves a daughter, Mary Louise Lewis (near San Diego); a daughter, Loxi Lohman, and son Young Walter Lohman.

Memorial services were held at the First Baptist Church on Monday, at which Rev. Charles T. Hughes of the local church, and Dr. Alger W. Geary, Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles Baptist City Mission Society, shared in officiating. Interment followed at Oakwood Cemetery.

Our sincere condolences to both the Fulwider and Lohman families on this separation from their loved ones.

SHARON ALWARD was shot in the face by boys playing with B-B guns on Stony Point last Saturday, 1" from her eye. Reseda boys were taken into custody by police. They also shot at her, hitting her leg, as she ran from them. Ed McDermott was witness on the police report. Police state it is not only against the law to shoot B-B guns, but it is against the law to possess them!

MITCHELL KAVITZ, son of our Chatsworth mail man, will play for the Reseda Rams Midgets Thanksgiving Day. The boys range from 10 to 13 years old, and 90 to 120 lbs.-- Mitchell is 12 years old, 100 lbs., and plays end.

The Drumstick Bowl, newest of gridiron attractions, will have its inaugural day this Thursday when two of the Reseda Rams Pop Warner Football Conference eleven host a double-header at Pierce Jr. College Stadium, 6201 Winnetka, Canoga Park. First game is between the Reseda Rams Midgets and West Covina Tigers at 11:00 a.m., and at 1:00 p.m. the Reseda Rams Bantams will oppose the Las Vegas Golden Hornets.

The Midgets and the Tigers go into this match both undefeated... since the teams play a short quarter of 12 minutes, total elapsed time for both games should be only 3 hours and should help work up appetites for big Thanksgiving dinners!

Tickets for the event are on sale for $1.00 adults, 25¢ children. For further information please call DI 4-2625.

Mrs. Ruth Williams, president of the CHATSWORTH LEGION AUXILIARY, conducted a routine meeting of the Unit last Wednesday at the Legion Building on Topanga. No meeting was held this week as the date fell on Thanksgiving Eve.

The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 9, and all members are urged to be present as this will be the only meeting in the month of December.

Dr. THOMAS HENDRIX, professor of medicine at John Hopkins University, was in Los Angeles this past week to give a two-day series of lectures at the Medical School at UCLA. During his stay he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Johnson, Jr. Dr. Hendrix's wife is the former Sonia Aurusel, a cousin of Mrs. Johnson. Dr. Hendrix is a graduate of Canoga Park High School.

The WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE of the First Methodist Church held their monthly meeting Wednesday at White Oak Hall, with the Thanksgiving devotional brought by Mrs. Larry Fulmer.

When we pray and our prayers are answered, how often we forget thanksgiving. The enemy of your soul and mine steals in again at the door of an ungrateful heart. God is pleased with no music here below so much as with the thankful songs of His children. Prayer goes into God's presence to take something away, but praise and thanksgiving go into His presence never to return. Let us put our thanksgiving into the present tense and let our hearts be continually grateful for every blessing.

Our Pilgrim Fathers offered humble praise
At every meal, regardless of the fare
Before them spread.
Whether their tables held small bowls of maize
And little else, each said a grateful prayer
With low-bowed head.
Today our marts have marvelous supplies
Of foods of every sort as well as flowers
To grace our boards.
Then should we not like Pilgrims voice our thanks
E'er we partake, and own what now is ours
Was first the Lord's?
—Sara L. Hamilton

It is the will of God that you and I should give thanks, not merely during this season of the year, but daily, yes, hourly, as we walk along life's way. In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made known unto God (Phil. 4:6).

Thanksgiving services in the Churches...

In President Eisenhower's Thanksgiving Proclamation, he says "...Let us gather in Sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes....to express our gratitude for the inestimable blessings of God."

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. the regular Mid-Week Service at the First Baptist Church will give way to a service of Thanksgiving and praise. Appropriate devotionals, hymns, and personal testimonies will make it a time of great spiritual blessing. On Wednesday morning Rev. Charles T. Hughes of this church will be guest speaker at Vanowen Baptist Church in North Hollywood at 10:30 a.m.

Below, you will note the Valley View Baptist Church invites you to a special service at 10:00 a.m.

For the first time in many years, the First Methodist Church will not hold a service on Thanksgiving Day.

A near capacity crowd filled the banquet room at Rand's Roundup restaurant last Saturday evening, when the CHATSWORTH MASONIC SUPPER CLUB held their first Wives Dinner Night.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Mr. William A. Burke from the district office of the FBI, who gave an organizational breakdown of the bureau, commencing with its inception and tracing its growth through the years. He pointed out that the bureau is the investigative agency of the Justice Dept. and clarified many points of duty. Mr. Burke pointed out that in the bureau a great deal of other than criminal investigations are performed, such as identification in case of accidents and other civil disasters. Of course it is necessary that one's prints be on file in order to get a high percentage of identifications in such instances as these. All armed forces personnel, all governmental agency people and all people working in plants providing anything toward the defense effort already have their prints in file.

All Master Masons living in the Chatsworth area are invited to attend the monthly supper club meetings. A card to Howard Morrow, Chatsworth, with your name and address will put you on the mailing list.

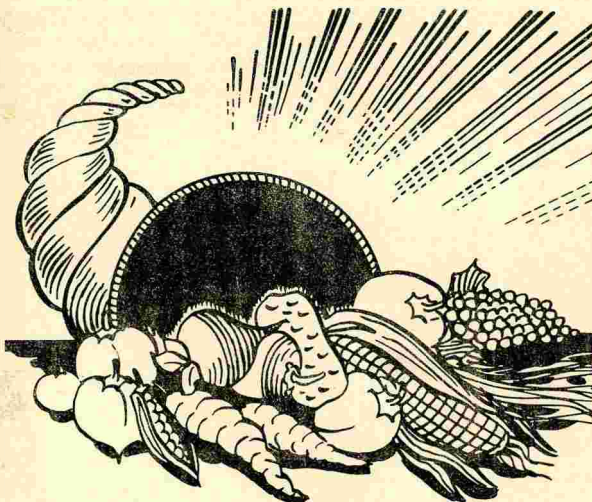

Mr. and Mrs. EDDIE JOHNSON were honored with a surprise stork shower Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Honey. The affair was planned by the Generators Sunday School Class.

About thirty members of the CHATSWORTH GIRL SCOUT TROOP 1381 with their leaders attended an overnight camp Friday at Camp Achille in the Malibu Mountains. These camps are planned so that the girls may obtain their various achievement ranks in camping.

Members of the WESTLEY FELLOWSHIP of the First Methodist Church honored Jim and Charleen Roesch with a surprise housewarming following their devotional meeting at the church Sunday, presenting them with a driftwood candelabra especially designed for the Christmas season. It was a token of friendship and appreciation for their fine work in the Fellowship.

LESTER SWARTZ was honored on his 74th birthday Tuesday with a family dinner at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Schepler.

The EARL ALEXANDERS JR. are enjoying a visit from the Alexanders Sr. of La Porte, Indiana.

There are now three Y-INDIAN-GUIDE Tribes in the immediate Chatsworth area. All out of the Chatsworth Park school. The Natick tribe began last year, and now the Havasupi and the Seneca. The third group under Chief Martin S. Smith and son Dean, Paul Stahl and son Larry, Ray Pritchard and son John, and Niel Ogimachi and son David. Both new tribes were organized by James Koller, who is also acting as sponsoring chief.

The Y-Indian Guides is a branch of the YMCA, and is basically for the purpose of fostering companionship between father and son at an age where the boys are most impressionable, from 6 to 9. The group makes it a point that a father spend more time with his son in individual, group, and in more family activities. Even the busiest father, if he makes a real effort, can find a little time here and there to devote to his boy, who looks forward to such periods with pleasure.

The whole program can be summed up in the pledge and the aims:

PLEDGE: We, father and son, through friendly services to each other, to our family, to this tribe, to our community and country, seek a world pleasing to the eye of the Great Spirit. AIMS: To be clean in body and pure in heart; to be pals forever with dad/son; to love the sacred circle of my family; to be attentive while others speak; to love my neighbor as myself; to seek and preserve the beauty of the Great Spirit's work in forest, field, and stream. SOUTH SEA TRIP:

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bradley recently returned from a six and one half week trip to the South Seas, an outstanding event in their busy, eventful lives. The following is their personal account of the trip, in brief, written by Mrs. Bradley.

"Leaving Wilmington on a Palatial Cruise Ship, we enjoyed seven full days at sea with captain's parties, bridge parties, canasta parties, cabaret shows, picture shows, hat contests, costume contests, church services, orchestra concerts, swimming, gymnastics and almost every kind of entertainment and recreation one could name.

"We finally arrived at Papeete, the capitol of Tahiti, where the picture "South Pacific" was filmed, made of the gay native prints and to buy hand-carved mother-of-pearl jewelry and other articles. The island is a French Protectorate and the schools are under the direction of the Catholic Church. However, the Mormon missionaries are also very active in all this region and brought groups of their converts aboard ship to dance and sing their lovely native music for us. We saw Sterling Hayden's yacht moored alongside the one modern warship which constitutes the entire Tahitian Navy.

I'm afraid the white race has taken advantage of the "Dolce Far Niete" beauty of the native life, and neglected the discipline and tabus which kept it clean and wholesome." (this article will be continued in next week's issue!)

A buffet supper served under the oldest oak tree in the San Fernando Valley on the estate of Mrs. W.L.P. Althouse in Chatsworth was the setting for a surprise presentation of the D.A.R. AMERICANISM MEDAL to Mr. Herbert J. Delves. This is an award given to an adult naturalized citizen for outstanding ability in trustworthiness, service, leadership and patriotism and was given him for his work with Cubs, Boy Scouts, and youth groups in his church, and for bringing to the attention of the D.A.R. in San Francisco the deplorable situation when swearing in new citizens in that city a number of years. Mr. Delves was born in Nelson, British Columbia, of English parents. The chairman of the supper committee was Mrs. Leslie Hadley, assisted by Mrs. Elmer Solomon, Mrs. Robert Boggis, Mrs. Vernon Peden and Mrs. W. B. Kennamer.

Next month the Santa Susana Chapter will hold its regular meeting on Wed., Dec. 2, at the L. A. Indian Center, 2920 Beverly Blvd. Mrs. Herbert J. Delves will preside, and the program will be arranged by Mrs. Stevie Standingbear, who is in charge of the Center, a non-profit organization helping the migrant Indians with direct temporary relief and welfare referral. Preceding this will be a no host luncheon at 12:00 noon at the Rams Horn Restaurant, Encino.
