ST. MARTIN-in-the-FIELDS Episcopal Church at Sherman Way and Winnetka announce a full schedule of services today, Christmas Eve, and also on Christmas Day. At 3:30 p.m., the 24th, the old traditional Christmas Baptismal Service will be held; at 9:15 p.m. will be the Family Carol Service and Choral Eucharist (Jr. Choir is under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams). Candlelight Service and Midnight Choral Eucharist will begin at 11:30 p.m., with the senior choir under the direction of Mr. Fred Rush. Christmas Day services will be held at 8:00 a.m., 9:15 a.m., and 11:00 a.m., with Holy Communion.

ALICE MORSE, who underwent major abdominal surgery November 21 at Good Samaritan Hospital, hopes to be released today, Christmas Eve, after over a month of confinement there. Several set-backs complicated the seriousness of her condition, which we are happy to report was not malignant. We hope to see her back on her feet again in the very near future.

Here's wishing you a truly happy holiday season. We want you to know that we appreciate your good will and thank you for the opportunity of serving you.

The CHATSWORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL auditorium was filled to overflowing for the Christmas program of the Chatsworth PTA on Tuesday afternoon. Lovely decorations, including a shiny plastic tree, beautifully decorated, graced the auditorium for the festive occasion. The president, Mrs. Richard Culver, presided.

Mrs. Curth Myhre, program chairman, presented Dale Evans Rogers who gave the inspirational message, "Thoughts on Christmas". She told the story of Saint Nicholas and recalled memories of outstanding Christmases in her own life, bringing out the thought that Christmas truly means LOVE, love of God for man and love of man for man. She concluded by singing her own Christmas song, "Happy Birthday, Gentle Saviour", which she composed a few years ago.

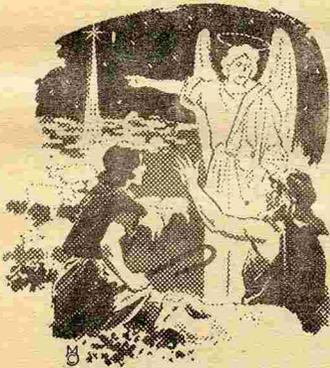

The various rooms then presented Christmas carols and special readings, from various countries, that delighted the audience.

Refreshments were served by room mothers of the fourth grade at the close of the program.

Look ahead to the jolliest Yuletide season. Our best wishes to everyone!

The public is invited to the CHRISTMAS EVE COMMUNION CHORALE at the First Methodist Church at 11:00 p.m. The Christmas Story will be narrated by Dale Evans Rogers, and the chancel choir under the direction of Robert Oril will present the Chorale. Rev. J. Wesley Neal will administer the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

The various rooms of the CHATSWORTH ELEMENTARY SCHOOL had Christmas parties the closing day of school, preceding the Christmas vacation. Ice cream for the event was provided by the Chatsworth PTA and room mothers made the cookies. The children will have vacation until Monday, January 4.

The three Wise Men sought and worshipped Christ--which proves that they were wise men! You too, may hear the angels' song --if you tune in.

KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS

The birthday of our Lord draws near;
The "Day-of-Days" of all the year;
A day of hope and joy and cheer.

Keep Jesus Christ in Christmas!
Let not old Santa crowd Him out
With whiskers gray and body stout.
He helps the world forget about
The loving Christ at Christmas.

The day is Christ's by right divine,
A day no myth should undermine,
A day when thoughts and deeds sublime
Should keep the Christ in Christmas.
When every message, every gift,
Should in some joyous way uplift
One's every thought and make them drift.
To Bethlehem at Christmas.

Beyond all else this day should be
A day of holiest memory,
When all the world should joyfully
See Christ, its Lord, in Christmas.
Give other things in minor place,
But tell to man in every race
The story, on this day of grace,
Of Christ, his Lord, on Christmas.

CHRISTMAS LIST

By Margaret E. Sangster

Give a gift of sharing,
Give a gift of hope;
Light faith's gleaming candle
For the ones who grope
Slowly through the shadows.
Sweeten dreary days
For the lost and lonely.
Give yourself, always!

Give a newsy letter
To a far-off friend;
Give a garden flower
With the book you lend.
Wash the supper dishes,
Help to dust the room;
Give a smile to lighten
Someone's hour of gloom!

Give a gift of laughter,
Give a gift of song,
Give a gift of sympathy
To last a whole life long.
Give a cheerful message,
Give a helping hand,
Tell your sorry neighbor
That you understand!

Here's wishing for you a holiday season sparkling with happy hours, rich in good cheer and good fellowship.

The young people of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH have had their share of Christmas parties this week, with the Junior High group enjoying a Progressive Dinner on Monday night, ending at the church with spaghetti (this group is sponsored by Gene and Anna Douglas); and then on Tuesday the Senior Highs gathered at the home of John and Doug Sincock in Canoga Park for an informal time of holiday festivity.

On Wednesday, young people and adults joined in Christmas caroling in and around Chatsworth, and for various shut-ins, adjourning later in the evening to the home of the pastor, Rev. Chas. T. Hughes, for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. LEROY BLACK III (Alice Ann Ludlow) surprised their respective families one day last week when they arrived unexpectedly for the holidays from Florida, where Leroy is stationed.

BEN NEAL, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Wesley Neal, arrived from Berkeley where he is attending college, to spend the holiday vacation with his family.

LINDA ROGERS is home from school in Wisconsin to enjoy a family holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers.

Several members of the CHATSWORTH WOMAN'S CLUB met Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Guy Clark, remembrance chairman, to fill Christmas stockings and prepare individual Christmas trees for the 22 patients at Villa Maria Sanitarium. Instead of waiting until just before Christmas to present them, the ladies took them over that day so they might enjoy the trees a little longer. They also made a personal visit with each one as they presented the gifts.

The CHATSWORTH GIRL SCOUT TROOP celebrated their 13th birthday Tuesday night at White Oak Hall with a large group of interested relatives and friends present for the ceremony. The history of the Troop, which was established by Mrs. Charles Janess in 1946, was given by Judy Jordan, Officer of the Day. There was only the one troop at that time, but now there are five, including the Mariners and the Brownies. To Mrs. Janess goes much appreciation for the splendid leadership she has given for these fine groups of girls. Lights were added to the Christmas tree one at a time, as each outstanding historic event was related by Judy.

The members and guests were highly entertained with the lovely pictures of the summer trip to Hawaii, made by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Braun and Elsa. Mr. Braun showed the pictures which were narrated by him and by Elsa. An additional treat from the Islands was the Funeral services for Mrs. NELL LUCAS were held Friday morning from the Praisewater Funeral Home Chapel of Canoga Park, with Dr. Harold Hayward officiating. Interment followed in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Lucas passed away in the Lancaster Hospital on December 15 following a lingering illness. She was born in Granby, Missouri, on June 5, 1898, and came to Chatsworth with her husband and family in 1933. This was their home until five years ago when they moved to Llano to be near their son Richard Lucas and family. Mrs. Lucas always felt that Chatsworth was home and was never quite reconciled to moving away, and for this reason the lovely Oakwood Cemetery became her last earthly resting place. During her residence here she made many friends who regret her passing.

She leaves her husband, Luther, her son, Richard, a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Kratz of Reseda, and four grandchildren.

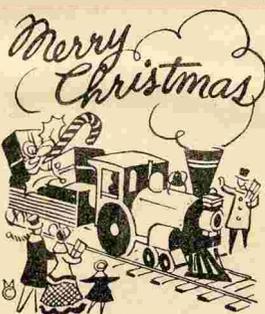

Congratulations to "director" Rev. Charles T. Hughes and the cast of "The Babe of Bethlehem" for a fine performance at the First Baptist Church last Sunday evening. Now the congregation will expect a program of this quality every year!

Just as the star of Bethlehem shone in the heavens so long ago may the spirit of Christmas shine brightly in your heart now and always.

The annual Christmas program of the FIRST METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL was held in the sanctuary Sunday evening. A lovely pageant telling the Christmas story in Scripture and song was enacted by children from all departments of the school. Much credit is due Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sagert and their committee for the many hours spent in planning, preparing costumes, and in rehearsing for the pageant, and to the children who did so well in its presentation. After the program, all adjourned to White Oak Hall where Santa appeared and presented bags of candy.

At the morning Sunday School hour, all the members of the school brought White Gifts for the King, and two tables were laden with canned goods and staples which go to one of the church mission homes in this area. The church groups are all sharing, as well, in filling seven baskets to bring extra happiness to seven families at Christmas.

Mrs. LARRY MURRAY entertained with a delightful Christmas party at their Murray's Red Lion Castle honoring Checks Warner, a multiple officer of the First Methodist Church, and Larry Murray. Mr. Warner has just returned from a 2-month visit with relatives in the East; Mr. Murray has been back a couple of weeks from a 3-week hunting trip in Canada. He was successful in getting a 1200 pound moose, and had his share, over 300 pounds, frozen and shipped home.

Guests at the party were entertained with games and music. A trio, Mr. Murray at the piano, Ed Ahlstrom on the bass fiddle, and Paul Ruff on the drums, played many favorite songs. Mr. Murray showed pictures of the trip, taken with the camera presented to him before he left.

Refreshments in the Christmas motif concluded the delightful evening.

With a sleigh-load of hearty good wishes, we greet you at Christmas. May your holiday joy be great and long-lasting.

JIMMY McDANIEL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce McDaniel of South Carolina, took as his bride at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon Judith Ann Hutchison, daughter of Mr. William Hutchison of Wisconsin. Judy has made her home in Chatsworth for some time, and Jimmy is stationed at our nearby Nike base on Oat Mountain.

Rev. Charles T. Hughes officiated in the ceremony, with Mike Douglas as ring bearer and Mrs. Anna Douglas soloist. Mrs. Dorothy Draper was organist.

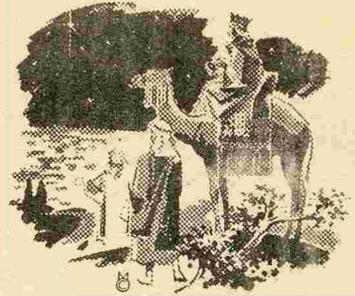

The bride was lovely in a cohill white satin princess gown, re-embroidered with alencon lace at the scooped neckline and bodice, with alencon lace panels down the skirt of the gown ending in a chapel train. The fingertip veil was held in place by a sweetheart cap of alencon lace, with a drop pearl. She carried a white orchid on a Bible, with tear-drop pearls on streamers.

Matron of Honor Freda Kranzler was dressed in mint green silk organza with matching veil, and carried a fan of white carnations with green streamers.

The groom was attended by Ferman McDaniel as best man, and ushers were John Heidke and Bill Davis.

Judy is a graduate of Canoga Park High and was a member of Vibygor (Scholarship). Jimmy is a graduate of Blacksburg High in South Carolina and is now with the U.S. Army.

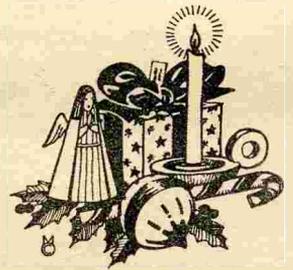

Following a reception at the home of the bride on Lassen Street, the happy young couple departed for a honeymoon trip to Lake Arrowhead.

The WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE of the First Methodist Church enjoyed an interesting Christmas program presented by the chairman, Mrs. Orville Mitchell. It was the story of Christmas in many lands, and included a Posada, when all the members and guests went to several doors, as Joseph, seeking shelter for Mary, the Mother of Jesus. This custom comes from Mexico and is enacted over several nights, indicating the journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Gifts of toys for the children of All Nations Foundation were brought by the members.

A delicious luncheon carrying out the Christmas theme was served by members of the Esther Circle, who also used the same motif in the lovely table and room decorations.

Mrs. EVERETTE CLEVELAND hosted a Christmas party at White Oak Hall Saturday, December 19, from 2 to 4 p.m., as a benefit for the church building fund. The interesting children's program included poems by Joyce Goetsch, Gary Rellaford, Karen Kenworthy, and Peggy and Doug Plunknett; piano solos by Linda Johnson and Gene Cleveland; a trombone solo by Gene, accompanied by Glenda Meyer; songs by a group of children; and a story by Mrs. Cleveland, the legend of what became of the gifts of the Wise Men.

Refreshments were served following the program. There was also a table at the rear of the hall laden with delicious Christmas baked goods, which were purchased by the guests to take home for holiday treats.
