Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H

The San Fernando Valley 4-H Club Achievement Program was held Saturday, December 12, 1959. Members from the Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H Club attended and received several awards.

Bronze stars were presented to Crawford Byxbee, Kristin Fortune, Walter Gosting, Ted Johnston, Georgia, Joanne and Veronica Polich, James Porter, and Marvin Wiseley. Those receiving Silver Stars were Judy Mandel, Dale Runyon, and Linda Stuckenbruck. Gold Stars were presented to Karin Fortune, Deane Lamb and Karen Porter. Pinky Garman attained the rank of All Star, one of four in Los Angeles County.

County Winner in Poultry was Karin Fortune and County Medalists were Pinky Garman, Dairy and Linda Stuckenbruck, Home Improvement. Those receiving their white hats as a symbol of four years completed work were Karin Fortune and Deane Lamb.

Blue Medalist in the San Fernando Valley Dress Revue was Judy Mandel. Elizabeth Hayes and Karen Porter were awarded with Food Preservation Certificates.

The Northridge-Chatsworth 4-H Club achieved a Gold Seal for their club Charter and a blue seal on the Reporter's Book, a gold seal on the Secretary's book.

CHAMBER INSTALLATION

Beautiful Knollwood Country Club will be the scene of the annual installation of Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce officers and directors, Friday, January 8, at 7:00 p.m. The dinner dance tickets are being sold by most of our merchants in Chatsworth, at a cost of $7.00 per person.

Choice of dinners will be steak, lobster, or shrimp.

Master of Ceremonies will be Keith Andes, local TV and motion picture star, who will introduce many well-known guests including "Brick" Neighbors, our Mayor's representative, and Councilman McGee.

Roy Rogers will again assume the honorary title of Mayor of Chatsworth. John Sixsmith will be duly installed as President of the Chamber.

Time is indeed growing short to make your reservation -- please get your ticket today from a Chatsworth merchant.

It's GRAPEVINE SUBSCRIPTION TIME AGAIN -- please fill in and return the coupon in this issue and mail, with your check for $2, to WEST VALLEY LETTERS, 21708 Devonshire Street, Chatsworth.

Deane Lamb received the award for completing the best Secretary's book in the San Fernando Valley.

The PARENTS EXCHANGE BABYSITTING CLUB located in the area of Chatsworth from Mason to Corbin, and Devonshire to Plummer, has had a successful first year. At this time they would like to welcome any new members who live in this area to join the club. No money is involved, just a willingness to exchange babysitting time with other parents in the neighborhood. If you wish to join, or for more information, please call DI 4-0834

tary for January.

CUB PACK 226 held their Christmas Party at White Oak Hall the week before Christmas. The boys had a gift exchange, and other children present received gifts from Santa, in the person of George Lorbeer, who proved to be outstanding in this role. Den mothers provided refreshments and altogether everyone had a wonderful time. Cub Pack 26 also celebrated with a holiday party the week before Christmas at White Oak Hall, the hall having been fittingly decorated earlier in the week for all of the holiday festivities to be held there. The Cubs exchanged gifts, and also brought gifts to be taken to the children at the Plaza for Christmas.

25th Anniversary
"A quarter century of Service"

The SR. MYF of the First Methodist Church began New Year's Day with an EARLY breakfast at White Oak Hall, then on to the Rose Parade via bus. After the parade? Back to White Oak Hall to do those breakfast dishes.

The Jr. Highs spent four days on a snow trip to Camp Seely, under the supervision of their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Honey.

Mr. and Mrs. ORVILLE MITCHELL and son Larry of Canoga Park, former Chatsworth residents, shared their Christmas vacation with relatives in Texas and Oklahoma. Their son Eddie, who is stationed in Kentucky, joined the family in Oklahoma for the Christmas Day celebration and the reunion made an especially happy day.

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN DOWDAKEN left for Berkeley the week before Christmas to spend the holiday with their son and family, but Mrs. Dowdaken was taken seriously ill with the flu and had to return home. She is much improved and glad to have had a short holiday visit with their children.

Mr. and Mrs. GUY CLARK enjoyed a two-week holiday visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Gelden and family of Onida.

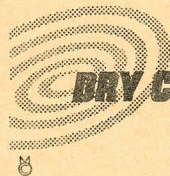

Mr. and Mrs. THOMAS MILNER, Kathy, and Mike spent the Christmas holiday with Mrs. Milner's parents in Tuscon, Arizona.

Mrs. Frank Bertolda underwent major surgery the Saturday before Christmas, but was able to come home the day before Christmas to spend the holiday with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. FRANK SCHEPLER, JR., entertained with a New Year's Eve party with a gathering of several couples at their home. Guests for the evening of fun were Messrs. and Mmes. Ray Johnston, William Schepler, Clifford Ahlstrom, Gerald Jack, Edward Ahlstrom, Don Paul of Llano, Milton Zimms of Westwood, and other out of town friends.

Youth groups of the FIRST METHODIST CHURCH had a happy time carolling Christmas week. The Jr. MYF went about the community on Wednesday night and the Sr. MYF on Christmas Eve, carolling to sick and shut-ins and to friends. On Monday night of that same week, the Wesley Fellowship, assisted by some members of the choir, sang for one ward of veterans in the Sepulveda Hospital. Music is one of the best therapies for mental patients and the group was happy to bring their share of happiness to them.

Mrs. Katherine Slater and Mrs. Virginia Somerville of the Chatsworth Legion Auxiliary, who sponsored theis activity, were there to serve Christmas cookies and punch to the patients and to the carollers.

The Wesley Fellowship and Sr. MYF enjoyed a holiday party Saturday night, Dec. 26, at White Oak Hall, when games and dancing entertained the young people and refreshments concluded the evening.

Mrs. DAN BARTON entertained members of the Esther Circle for their Christmas meeting. After the program and business meeting the ladies enjoyed a gift exchange and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM ROSE (Cheryl Rogers) were blessed last Saturday with a baby girl, 5 lbs. 5 oz., at the Northridge Hospital. Little Elizabeth Ann will be known as "Liza" and is the fifth grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers. Cheryl and William live in Sherman Oaks.

MEN! Make your reservation with Rev. Charles Hughes of the First Baptist Church (DI 4-8287) to attend the Men's Dinner tomorrow night, Friday the 8th, at 6:30 p.m. Swiss steak is the main item on the menu. Speaker will be Mr. Harold Davis, Director of Men's Work for the Southern California Baptist Convention. Come for good Christian fellowship, a fine meal, and a time of inspiration.

The Canoga Park-Woodland Hills PONY LEAGUE, which includes our Chatsworth boys, announces the 1960 registration on January 9, 16, and 23 at Giacipuzzi Field, White Oak and Erwin. Tryouts will be held on January 30 at the same place. The Grapefruit League (to determine the boys' ability) will begin February 12, and last through April 24. The 1960 season will open officially on April 30.

A new Square Dance group will open at Columbus Jr. High this week -- "Chappie" Chapman guarantees to have you SQUARE DANCING and having fun within 30 minutes, if you will bring your friends and come to COLUMBUS JR. HIGH SCHOOL Saturday, January 9, at 8:00 p.m. It is located at 22250 Elkwood in Canoga Park, 2 blocks west of Topanga Canyon Blvd. An evening of fun & relaxation is offered, and is a sure way of making loads of new friends.

The CHATSWORTH WOMAN'S CLUB will open the year 1960 with a delightful program for their Federation and Reciprocity Day on Tuesday, January 12. Mildred and Edward Cornelison will present professional slides showing unusual sights and experiences garnered from their many trips about the world, in a program entitled "It's Hard to Believe". As such, they give a very entertaining hour of hard-to-believe adventures, customs, and places. Mrs. Cornelison studied drama at UCLA and later had stage training at the Pasadena Community Playhouse. Mr. Cornelison is a photography enthusiast, and is an effective, compelling speaker. Between them they share the narration. The program will follow a 12:30 luncheon served by Mrs. Carl Carter, chairman, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Roscoe Harris.

The federation chairman, Mrs. Guy Clarke, will welcome the federation officers and presidents of the various clubs who attend. The president, Mrs. Glenn Beyer, will preside over the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. FRED GREETHER and family enjoyed a holiday visit with Mr. and Mrs. HAROLD JOHNSON, Mrs. Grether's parents.

It has come to our attention that a flood of pornographic literature has hit Canoga Park, and it has been requested that we ask our readers to carefully examine their children's reading material. DON'T GO BY WHAT YOU SEE ON THE COVER -- examine the inside pages. If you are an irate citizen and/or parent who doesn't wish to merely sit on the sidelines and let this filth permeate our children's minds, you may make your objections known -- for further information write Citizens Committee for Decent Literature, 5320 Torrance Blvd. Torrance, California.

The WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY of the First Baptist Church will swing into action again this month following the past few weeks of holiday activities. The group meets on the third Thursday of each month, and will in January resume their White Cross work, which includes mission work, sewing, etc. Mrs. Earl Gingerich, president, extends her appreciation for the Love Gift's goal being more than met. This money is used in sending missionaries, building new churches, etc. The ladies meet at 9:45 a.m., and hold their business meeting around the luncheon table.

Mrs. SADIE HARRISON of San Pedro, a former resident, is visiting with Mrs. Sparkyl Allison. She is seeing many of her old-time friends during her stay, and on Wednesday was the guest at the Ann Johnson Circle, to which she formerly belonged, as they met with Mrs. Paul Riner.

YOU-ALL ARE INVITED to the big Open House at the new Janess Trucking & Transfer warehouse down on Owensmouth!! See their open invitation on page 3! We take this opportunity to offer our congratulations on this big step for the Janesses and to wish them every success in future years.
