RULES OF THE GAME

1. All age groups are eligible to play. Simply know how to READ and SPELL....
2. Find "goof" or "goofs" in the advertising. Follow clues....
3. Telephone calls SHALL NOT BE ACCEPTED. Contestants must appear in person at the Grapevine office with their "discoveries"....
4. Only the Grapevine office has the winner tickets. Advertisers cannot give prizes without seeing these tickets....
5. Every reader may find the "goofs" and every reader can be a winner of prizes. Value of prizes to be given each week shall be major and minor. Remember FIRST COME - FIRST SERVE for the BIG PRIZES....
6. Advertisers and their immediate families, and Grapevine staff members and families may NOT collect prizes....
7. Winner tickets cannot be picked up until Friday noon following the Grapevine publication on Thursday. Contestant's early arrival before 12:00 noon does not gain any advantage....
8. Contestants must bring copy of Grapevine with "goof" circled or indicated. Keep YOUR discovery confidential!
9. All winners shall be announced each week.

PLEASE NOTE: Remember that you can come into town all weeklong to pick up your consolation prizes, following the Friday noon ruling. THERE IS A PRIZE FOR EVERY READER WHO FINDS THE GOOF, REGARDLESS OF THE TIME OF WEEK.

LAST WEEK'S GOOF

The "Goof" in last week's Grapevine was found in Chatsworth Hobbycraft's ad, which listed "mosiacs" instead of "mosaics". About two dozen contestants missed this one by ignoring the limerick clue on the front page!

*FIRST PRIZE, a Futura All-Transistor Radio with Battery, won by Lorna Ahlstrom, 22024 Lassen St.

*SECOND PRIZE, a 36" x 27" Super Craft Master Oil Paint-by-Number Set, won by Mary Jane Nolan, 21741 Romar Street.

*THIRD PRIZE, a Remco Drive-In Movie Theatre with batteries, won by Steve Slater, 21741 Hiawatha.

*FOURTH PRIZE, Creative Corner Mosaic Tile Dish Kit, won by Helen Hauser, 10317 Owensmouth Ave.

*FIFTH PRIZE, a Jo Han customized car kit with brush, paint, and cement, won by Gene Cleveland, 10206 Owensmouth.

One-hundred and thirty-five consolation tickets were also given. The Grapevine reminds you that consolation prizes are given out not only at the Friday noon drawing but all through the week following the Thursday publication.

Many thanks, Chatsworth Hobbycraft, for your enthusiastic participation and fine gifts to our contestants!

CLUES FOR TODAY'S "GOOF" CONTEST

The CHATSWORTH LEGION AUXILIARY had a busy session Wednesday night at their meeting in the Legion Building, 9817 Topanga Canyon Blvd., with the president, Mrs. Ruth Williams, president.

Plans were made for a RUMMAGE SALE to be held on Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30, in the buildings to the rear of the house on the Legion property at 9817 Topanga Canyon, from 9:00 to 4:00.

The Poppy program is under way and will be in effect the last weekend in May. A letter of appreciation was sent to the Chatsworth Woman's Club for their assistance in sending a candidate to Girl's State in June. The girl will be chosen from Grover Cleveland High School.

The District meeting of the Sunland-Tujunga Unit, held the following night, was attended by Mrs. Somerville and Mrs. Hildur Berkemeyer.

The Pre-Easter food sale of the Unit held on Saturday proved to be very successful, according to Mrs. Somerville and her committee.

Mrs. TOM ZIMMERMAN has been taken to UCLA Medical Clinic for observation following a stroke which she suffered last week.

THE SHADOW OF THE ALMIGHTY

I wanted to live in the sunlight of God,
But He placed me in shade instead,
And bitter repining was on my tongue,
And many the tears I shed.

But now my heart knows a deep content.
My Father has made it clear
That if God's shadow is over me,
Then God, Himself must be near!

HOLY SHEPHERD LUTHERAN CHURCH wishes to thank all who helped make their first Worship Service in their new church a memorable one. Special thanks to the Chatsworth Florist, the Grapevine, the Garden of Eton, and the Corcoran Music Company.

"ORV" CLUTTERHAM, L. A. Police Officer, will tell his amazing story of his life as a skid row derelict to a new life as a Christian, at the regular 7:30 p.m. service at the First Baptist Church, 10025 DeSoto, this Sunday evening. Everyone is cordially invited for this time of singing, worship, and prayer.

Only sixty seconds in it,
Forced upon me, can't refuse it,
Didn't seek it, didn't choose it,
But it's up to me to use it,
I must suffer if I lose it,
Give account if I abuse it,
Just a tiny little minute—
But Eternity is in it.

Another Easter get-together was held at the home of the JOHN BALINTS (Balint's Beauty Salon and Chatsworth Stationers) when they hosted the families of the Ver Sanderson, Luis Hernandez, Harold Heglin, Jules Davidson, Durk Haskell, in addition to their own boys, Tom, Jim, and Jerry. An assembled ham and turkey dinner and all the trimmings was spread at poolside, initiating the new pool and, for many, the first dip of the season. Two incidences tried to mar the perfect day: Twelve-year-old Chris, son of the Harold Heglins, went through the glass door to the patio, which necessitated the services of Dr. Miner at Northridge Hospital and 13 stitches to close wounds on his left leg; and the other when the table-top collapsed when Mrs. Heglin was cutting the birthday cake heralding the anniversary of both Bea Balint and Anna Heglin (contribution of the group), knocking Anna to the patio floor amid broken glasses and topped with the cake.

Now that's what we call an exciting Easter Sunday afternoon.

EASTER MEETING

Easter baskets and nests of candy Easter eggs and bouquets of Spring flowers decorated the tables for the luncheon meeting of the Chatsworth Woman's Club on Tuesday. Mrs. Walter Rasimussen and Mrs. Harold Sunde and their co-hostesses Mmes. Lawrence Clarke, Virginia Lynn, Elliott Cook, E. N. Miner, Philip Zekovich, Harlin Curtis, and LaVerne Lee, served a delicious luncheon.

In commemoration of Holy Week the religion chairman Mrs. R. L. Johnson read four short poems relating to Passion Week and Easter and offered grace before the luncheon.

The program that followed the luncheon, "Folk Songs from Many Nations" presented by Rima Rudina, proved thoroughly delightful in its entirety. Appearing in peasant costume, Miss Rudina sang folk songs of many nations in their native tongue and in translations, accompanying herself on the guitar, the lute, and native stringed instruments of Arabia, Japan, Korea, China, and Russia. Her concluding number, a Mexican Bamba, with audience participation, was especially enjoyed.

Miss Rudina is also a violinist of note and has appeared with symphony orchestras. With a beautiful singing voice, fine choice of numbers, lovely interpretation and clever and charming manner of presentation, she brought a most enjoyable program to the ladies.

The president, Mrs. Dale Pinkerton, expressed the appreciation of the club to Mrs. Glenn Beyer, program chairman, for this treat. Mrs. Pinkerton also presented the new members present, who were honored at the meeting, Mmes. Joseph Snook, Orville Mitchell, John Ross,

C. L. Hooker, O. P. Walker, Barbara Rosini, Preston Greeson, L. M. Flower.

The next meeting on April 26 will be the annual election of officers. Luncheon will be served at 12:30p.m. preceding the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. FRANK BERTOLDA and two sons enjoyed a visit with relatives in San Jose from Thursday until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. JACK WARDLAW had as recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Roatcap and family of Fillmore, former local residents.

Miss IDA DURSTELER and her brother Will are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Patrick and two children of Rome, Georgia. Mrs. Patrick is a niece of the Dursteleers.

Mr. and Mrs. CARLOUS DORMAN returned last week from a 2-week visit with relatives in Redding.

Mr. and Mrs. JONREED LAURITZEN with Tama, Hallie, and the twins Conrad and Maynard, spent a few days during the vacation last week visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Barlow of Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. LEMUEL CLARK and family are happy to have as their house guest Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. Olive Page of Canada. Mrs. Page will be joined here by her husband sometime in May.

The CHATSWORTH GIRL SCOUT TROOP assisted in an egg hunt for retarded children Thursday at Vanowen Park. Each girl had a special charge and helped him in his search for eggs.

We know that most of us had special guests and activities over the Easter vacation, and we wish space permitted printing something about everyone, but there just isn't room!!

"Hey, Mom -- Daddy's still asleep!"

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT ORIL are the new owners of the Tom Thumb Handi-mart, now called the B-Bar-B Market. The Orils moved Friday from their home on Owensmouth to the former Al Brain house farther north on the same street, which will make them a little closer to their place of business.

Mr. Oril's mother is now making her home with the family to assist in caring for the children while the rest of the family is at work.

Mrs. GEORGE LORBEER entertained with a birthday party on Monday, April 11, honoring her twins, George and Becky, on their 11th birthday. The 25 youngsters enjoyed swimming in the pool, and later watched the opening of gifts. The traditional birthday cake at the refreshment hour brought a close to the party.

Mrs. EDWARD ROACH left last Tuesday for an extended visit with relatives in England. She was tendered a going-away party by members of her canasta club a short time before she left.

On Life's Way

The world is wide,
In time and tide,
And God is Guide;
Then do not hurry.

That man is blest
Who does his best
And leaves the rest,
Then do not worry.

WHAT, NO JUDGE! No, you be the judge Sunday, April 24. The public will vote on the painting of their choice. Invite your friends to the SIDEWALK EXHIBIT the Chatsworth Art Association is having. This should be fun on the walk in front of the Chatsworth Art Studio. ALL artists wishing to enter call Virginia Lynn, DI 1-3578.

OSCAR and PHYLLIS ROLLER, residents of Chatsworth for many years, are pleased to announce the formal opening of their ANTIQUE SHOP at 21719 Devonshire on May 7. The business will be known as "Roller's Relics", and a fine selection of authentic antiques from America, Europe, and Asia will be offered, including many decorator and collector items.

The John Roller Inc. original and exclusive wallpapers will also be made available.

An invitation is extended to everyone to visit and see Roller's Relics -- come as you are and have coffee!

Thank you to ORAN WELLS from Mrs. Elaine Clemens, who found Jeffery and Christopher Clemens after they had wandered from their home on Santa Susana Friday. Oran bought the youngsters ice cream & tracked down parents!

Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT BYERLEY celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Saturday, with a family dinner given in their honor by their son-in-law and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Ross of Westwood. Hearty congratulations to a lovely couple on attaining this unusual milestone in their lives.

Mrs. EMMA GRAVES celebrated her 87th birthday Saturday with greetings and cards from friends and relatives. Mrs. Graves, a daughter of the pioneers of Chatsworth, Ann and Niels Johnson, was the first white child to be born in the Valley. Her birthplace in Brown's Canyon was visited by the Mexicans and Indians, who came from many miles away to see the white baby with the blue eyes and light colored hair. Horse-back riding, her chief pleasure from girlhood, is still her great love, and she is seen about town several times a week enjoying a ride.

Mr. and Mrs. JOHN SEMLAR and daughter Kathy recently moved to their new home in Thousand Oaks. Mrs. Semlar has been a local resident for about 12 years. Her daughters, Jeanette and Virginia Kimble, who are both working in this area, are staying on in Chatsworth. Jeanette is living with her father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Kimble, and Virginia is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Janess.

Funeral services for OLIVER O. VERNER, 48, were conducted Monday afternoon from Praisewater Mortuary Chapel in Canoga Park. Mr. Verner passed away suddenly on Friday with a heart attack. He was a member of the San Fernando Valley Board of Realtors, Inc., and was the owner of a realty firm.

He leaves his widow, Dorothea, of Woodland Hills. Mrs. Verner is a teacher in the Chatsworth Elementary School and has many friends here who share in her deep sorrow.

TOM WALKER has enjoyed a two-week furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Walker, following the completion of his first stretch with the Nike Missile Service, spent mostly at the base in Renton, Washington.

He has re-enlisted and has received his appointment to the D Battery 4th Missile Battalion, 65th Artillery, in Van Nuys. This is a very happy situation for Tom, who is now able to spend much of his time at home.

Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES TURNER had just returned from a vacation trip to Baja, Calif., Friday, when sometime during the evening Mrs. Turner fell and broke her leg in the upper thigh. She was removed to the hospital in North Hollywood where she underwent surgery for the placing of a pin in the break. She is reported to be resting nicely and will probably remain in the hospital for about a week.
