Measures Which Would Control State's Transportation

By G. H. TUNNEY

Transportation—A measure which has been introduced in the Senate of the State of California, and which is now being considered by the Senate, is a bill which would control the State's transportation measures.

The transportation law now existing in the State of California is a law which was enacted in 1911, and which has since that time been amended in many places.

An amendment which proposes to amend the existing law in many places, and which would give the State a more complete control over its transportation measures, is now being considered by the Senate.

Particulars of Next Year's Program. The position that the governor has taken in regard to the transportation measures, and which is now being considered by the Senate, is a position which is in line with the policy of the State.

Legislation on Capital Campaign. The bill which is now being considered by the Senate, is a bill which would provide for the State's capital campaign, and which would give the State a more complete control over its capital campaign.

The bill which is now being considered by the Senate, is a bill which would provide for the State's capital campaign, and which would give the State a more complete control over its capital campaign.
