THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

A surprise! For all of us! Polk Jennings, our new Program Chairman, was on vacation so we're unable to tell you the subject. but we're sure it will be a good one.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Mr. Robert Finkel presented a film on Muscular Dystrophy and suggested that we look forward to December, the month of the fund-raising campaign. He hopes that as individuals and Rotarians we may be able to give personally or financially to help conquer this disease.

Our building designer, Harry Pierpont Briggs, won the $5 and our past-president and insurance man Griff McKeeby took second prize donated by your new Editor, George Vincent.

Have any of you gone out of your way to bring guests to our meeting? Tom Craig did -- Mike Hayes who lives in Chatsworth, owns the Reseda Cabinet Shop that's located in Canoga Park!

This was Len's last official meeting as President -- but there's more to come, Len, as Vice-President, until August 12, when Clif returns from Germany.

MEET OUR NEW PRESIDENT

Clif Parchman, our president for the year '64-'65, hails from Cincinnati, Ohio where he was born September 20, 1919.

He migrated to California in 1939 and then spent 1½ years in North Africa with Douglas Aircraft, followed by 3 years in the Army which took him to Europe with the 8th Armored Division. While in Schwabisch Hall, near Stuttgart, Germany, he met Susie who later came to the U.S.A. and married Clif in 1948.

Clif then went into business doing contract machine work primarily with the Aircraft Industry. He moved his business from Burbank to Chatsworth in 1952.

Cliff is one of the Charter Members of the Chatsworth Rotary Club and is well-versed in Rotary. He has served as Secretary and Treasurer in the past.

He and Susie and their four children; Dick 12, Tom 11, Doris 8, and Heidi 4, left on June 24 for a 6-week visit in Germany where they'll have a long-awaited reunion and a chance to visit with other Rotary Clubs over-seas.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Nick Petruso, Community Service Chairman, and his committee are starting their year off with a big, loud BANG. Nick says we're going to keep the Trophy for this year that Larry helped us to win last year.

Already donated by Nick, through Hughes Market, on behalf of the Chatsworth Rotary Club:

288 pints of milk, 100 lbs. potato salad, and 150 lbs. of pancake flour to Rancho San Antonio. Mike Ragusin and Ross Dunton firmed-up some muscles delivering them.

1500 Orchids with as many cards welcoming the ladies to the Chatsworth Parade of last week. Rotarians Bob Kinsman, Harold Allen, George Vincent, and Nick got the "show on the Road" consisting of nine girls (mostly Rotarians's daughters) to pass out the orchids.

And on the 4th of July, our own sponsored Cub Pack 226 will pass out 250 American Flags, again on behalf of our Club.

How's that for a start?

ATTENDANCE

Ray Hultman, our new Attendance Chairman, says there's no reason we can't start our new year right. Let's not try for 100% attendance -- let's have it! We haven't seen that monthly Thurston Harshman Attendance Award for many a month.

LETTERS FROM THE EDITOR

I'd really like to edit this Rotochat and not be the author. I'm open for suggestions, news, scuttlebut, etc., such as: Ross and Bess have left for Mississippi, Cincinnati, and New York. Mike flew to San Francisco and back. Roy beat Roger bowling. Larry & Billye won first place being "old Timers" in the Chatsworth parade. Bob Kinsman's daughter Dee Dee was the Queen. (He was already fined, Len!) Millie is in Pennsylvania. Who's interested in bowling? Call Roger.

Have you noticed the new format? Also the appropriate color? Since we're starting out to re-mail the Rotochat we'll probably be in the red a dollar or two. I would like to know after the first month from you and your Rotary-Ann if you're getting more Rotary information because it's being mailed to your home.
