THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

We are privileged to have as our speaker, Mr. Frank O. McIntyre, Director of Public Relations of the California Teachers Association, a voluntary-membership organization representing teachers in California. He has been a guest lecturer or instructor at more than 60 colleges throughout the nation and a commencement speaker for colleges, junior colleges, and high schools. Incidentally Mr. McIntyre was a former Rotary director and officer.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Guy Gifford's off-the-cuff humor, especially about his 5-year-old grandson, "Dr. O'Hara". He represented the Los Angeles Metropolitan Transit Authority.

Vice-President Len played the record from Rotary International President Charles W. Pettingill, whose slogan for the year is LIVE ROTARY. It is also interesting to hear the first voice of Rotary, that of its founder, Paul Harris, who also stressed living Rotary in everything we attempt to do. Don't miss reading the articles on page 10 of the July issue of the Rotarian, "Let Us Live Rotary" and "Now Meet 'Charlie'".

We sang a tardy Happy Birthday to George Vincent, June 29, and a 6-month late wish to Tom Craig, February 4!

Again we had as a guest from the Granada Hills Club, Bill Martin, whose classification is Petroleum Products Retail. But Curly Alward has a new classification for him—Stock Car Racing. Bill paid his $1 fine to tell us that he is second in the number of trophies won racing.

Monty tried to use a $20 Monopoly bill to pay his late-arrival fine, but our alert Sergeant-At-Arms, Doug, got real money instead!

Bruce Pegg is in charge of our Weekly Prizes this year and presented the first $5 to Bob Kinsman, and the second prize, donated by Harold Allen, was won by Monopoly Monty.

WELCOME BACK, AL

At a special meeting of the new Board of Directors it was unanimously voted that Al Brain be a new honorary member in our club (apologies are in order for the misspelling of his name on the Roster).

Most of you will remember Al not only as a charter member but as a Past President in '58-'59. That year was a memorable one in that Al purchased and personally ran the then Horn Inn so that we would have a meeting place for lunch and that during his year the Rotary Club sponsored the Chatsworth Parade and Fiesta.

Al was born October 24, 1885 in London, England and married his better-half, Strausie, in 1932. He is an accomplished musician (French Horn), having played in the London, New York, and the Los Angeles Symphonies. In 1934 he was the Manager of the Hollywood Bowl.

He and Strausie came to Chatsworth in 1954 and were the proprietors of the Five and Dime Store here. We were sorry to see them move to Simi a few years ago, but so glad to have them return to Chatsworth.

And so, welcome back, Al!

LOST ROTARIANS

We hate to see them go—two of our favorite Charter Members left the club last month. Johnny Konigsfeld and Edna moved to Hemet along with a former Rotary-Ann, Mary Hall, and bought a Duplex. We wish you all well.

Cliff Ahlstrom and Margo will leave Chatsworth in the next few months for Hawaii where Cliff will go into business. Our best wishes and aloha.

SCUTTLEBUT

Hank says he's getting tired of steak every week—he wants chicken. Are you sick, Hank? Dean Beisner was in San Francisco for his niece's Debutante Ball. It's a good thing you weren't driving that bug of yours, Dean, when that truck hit you! Wes won 3 Grand Champions and 4 Reserve Grand Champions at the San Diego County Fair at Del Mar. Congratulations, Wes, that ought to be worth a buck (or were they does). Joe, we can't put Eggs Wholesale after your name because your classification is Senior Active. We won't forget as long as you give eggs for your second-prize donation. Larry is putting in the sprinklers for St. Mels Football Field—should bring in a lot of loot for fines! Doug was out-of-the-money by one stroke at the Pro-Am Golf Tournament at the Glendora Country Club. Roger and Roy are still bowling alone—they need company. We hope that the absentees this last week have made up. How are you coming on your luncheon tickets? There's a huge sign already up in Hughes' window so that everyone in town will know about it. Sell. Sell. Sell.
