Vol. IX, No. 4

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Mr. Anthony C. L Bishop will be our guest speaker. His subject will be heraldry, the art or science having to do with coats of arms, genealogies, etc.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Mr. Frank Pine and Jack A. Thorpe enlivened our meeting speaking on Freedom of Choice vs. Forced Housing.

Jim Nessheim, whose birthday was June 15, was serenaded with a belated song. Bob Kinsman paid an extra $1 for us not to sing to him. Guess Bob doesn't know good music when he hears it!

The reason Bob paid the extra buck was probably because he won the $5 first prize! Dean forgot to bring his $2 prize, but it didn't make much difference, because he won it back!

Your Editor collected $1 from everyone present for a year's subscription to the Scandal Sheet. In order to make up 100% he advanced the money for those not there and has subscribed for the whole Club. Now we should be loaded with Rotary Information with two Rotary Bulletins each week!

Our Community Safety Chairman, Mike Ragusin, reported that over 1000 people turned out July 11 for the demonstration of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation given by the Red Cross, sponsored by our Rotary Club.

Vice President Len told us that we are still 100% in attendance this month. Only two weeks to go and we'll be eligible for the Thruston Harshman Award!

Polk says he's open for suggestions about any kind of programs you might like. We think Polk's doing a fabulous job, but let him know if there is some special interest you have.

BIG JOHN

Meet our new Director and Vocational Service Chairman, John McNamee.

A native Californian, John was born in Los Angeles on January 16, 1922. He attended U.S.C. and then served 3 years in the Army Infantry, where he spent 18 months in the Aleutian Islands. He and Mary Ellen have 5 children.

He started his banking career in 1948 with the Citizens Bank which recently became the Crocker-Citizens Bank. When their new branch opened in Chatsworth in August of last year, John came here as the Manager.

Golf, travel, and reading take up most of John's leisure time.

VOCATIONAL SERVICE

What is it?

Vocational service is stressed in Rotary's object in these words: To encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Stated in another way vocational service is aimed at promoting the ideal of service throughout the business and professional world. It implies application of high ethical standards by the individual Rotarian in all his business or professional relations — with employees, competitors, customers, and those from whom he buys; and the promotion of such standards by each Rotarian among all others in his craft.

AROUND TOWN

Sorry to hear that Barbara Hultman is in the hospital, but we're sure she'll be up and at 'em before long. Jim and his family just returned from a visit to Minnesota. Monty made-up last week in Panorama City and sat next to our former member, Dave Latham. Curly says he doesn't have any news — he's just workin'. Nick and Millie went to Las Vegas. Wes Nordfelt will have a birthday on the 26th. Dean says dues are still due. Clif says that the meetings in Germany are much more formal than ours. Clif also sent his best regards to all of us. This Saturday is the day for the Chatsworth Rotary Club Luncheon to be held at Hughes Market from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. Have you sold all your tickets yet? Hope to see all of you there — we're backing this for the Community Service Fund!
