THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our first cinema of the year! Mr. Duane J. Murner of the Prudential Life Insurance Company will present a film, either on "Auto Biography" (about cars!), or about the Olympics.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We had our first Club Assembly of the year with our able Vice-Presy in command. Len read the minutes of the last Presidents Breakfast outlining some of the plans for the District this year. Len has great hopes for accomplishment for CLUB SERVICE, which is well under way already.

Nick has the ball rolling on COMMUNITY SERVICE. He reported the Rotary luncheon was a big success — and will be more of a success when we all have paid for our share of ticket. Congratulations are in order for Nick and those good good Rotarians who gave their time to this project. The left-over 80 pints of milk and 2 gallons of pickles were given to Rancho San Antonio Boys Home.

Big John McNamee reports that the VOCATIONAL SERVICE Committee is about to proceed. E. Montel Miner, his committeeman, is one of our Past Presidents and so is well-versed in Rotary, and should help to make this committee the outstanding one in our Club.

Chairman Tom Craig of INTERNATIONAL SERVICE, together with Wes, have the show on the road. The clothes to be sent to Equador, through the Peace Corps, are being packed and readied for shipment. Tom told us that Reverend Jim is going to contact a Rotary Club in India to see if books, etc., are needed, so that we could help on that front, too. By the way, our District has picked up a Sister Rotary District in India along the same lines as our Norway fellowship.

Bob Boggis, Magazine chairman, is going to have our Club subscribe to the Spanish version of the Rotarian, Revista Rotaria, for the Spanish Class of Chatsworth High School.

Polk would like to have some singing again at our meetings. Good idea, Joe?

The $5 was won by Sergeant-at-Arms Doug and our returned-vacationer, Ross, won the second prize donated by H. Peirpont! Birthday money was collected from Ross and Dean — we still have to catch Wes! Why no song, Len?

FELLOWSHIP . . .

. . . can be carried too far. A few weeks ago a late arrival was heard to say: "Where is everybody?" There were over a hundred people in the room, but apparently none of his group. — The Clipsheet.

You'll be hearing more from The Clipsheet during the year. This is an interesting news letter sent to each Bulletin Editor from Rotary International, Evanston, Illinois.

AROUND TOWN

A Happy Birthday on August 6 to our man in charge of Occupational Information — Griff McKeeby, General Insurance.

Thought we had a couple of kids at the last meeting with all the spit balls flying. Won't mention their names, Len, but one guy fills teeth and the other guy pushes pancake breakfasts! Polk's big car ran out of gas in Canoga Park, but he was saved in the nick of time by our egg man, Joe, who came to the rescue in the true spirit of Service Above Self. Hey, Fred, don't you know any other joke but, "Lucky, Lucky, Lucky"? Mike, (who is our Champion Grunion Catcher), finally discovered that it wasn't the Mexican food that made him ill — it was all those Margueritas he usually had beforehand! Supporters of Chavez Ravine and/or Dodger Stadium were Len and Bev for two games and Charlie and George for two others! And Bob Kinsman, the track enthusiast, attended both sessions of the USA vs. USSR meet at the Coliseum. Is it true that Tom is having a Coffee Klutch for Cline? Bruce Pegg has been busy with all his Chamber of Commerce duties. Doug and Clarence have been seen often at the Red Robin. Lorbeer is trying to teach the seven Craigs to swim. Hank loaned his flower truck to Tom to carry beer! I guess that is Service Above Self, Hank.

ATTENDANCE

We missed our 100% attendance for July but we are starting a new month. Let's make an all-out effort and have 100% for August. Travaglini's Restaurant is being remodeled and the Tarzana Rotary Club and the Encino Rotary Club are now meeting at the Rams Horn.

BALL GAME, ANYONE

There's still time for a bus trip to the ball park. One of the big drawbacks in the past was that we couldn't get 50 Rotarians and wives to fill the bus. Let Len know today if you could go on the First or Second of September to see the Angels and the Yanks.
