THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Mr. Jack W. Keating, a member of the Citizens Committee for Free T. V., will talk to us today about the advantages of free Television. He was formerly a feature writer for the Los Angeles Examiner, and has won many awards for his newspaper writing.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We didn't get to see the film that Polk had planned so he called on Oil Reliable Len to give the program. Len talked about the history of Chatsworth during the last 35 years and read several articles concerning the Docia A. Conley Co. Leave it to Len and he will get a plug in one way or another for his Jams and Jellies!

The five bucks was won by the man that sold the tickets, Building Designer Harry. The 2nd prize was won by Big John, Crocker Citizens, and it was supposed to be a gift from Vice-President Len, but I think he cheated a little as he told John to come to the Paradise Gift Shop to pick it up!

It was good to see Ted Todd at the meeting and your Editor nailed him for a buck for his subscription to the "Scandal Sheet". But Ted has been making up in Reseda so he has been a good Rotarian.

MEET RAY HULTMAN

We hardly need a write-up on Ray as he is one of our Charter Members and has served on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer.

Ray was born on May 17, 1909, in Milwaukee, and his better half, Barbara hailed from Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin, a few years later. Ray spent two years at Marquette University in Milwaukee and eventually migrated to California.

Ray owned the Short Snort Liquor Store in North Hollywood before coming to Chatsworth in 1955 to open the Country Squire Liquor store, which he and Barbara ran until 1959 when they sold it to Marge and her son, Tom Craig. The Tally Ho Liquor store on Topanga Canyon Boulevard in Ray's new venture. Barbara says their next business will be a Sanitarium or a Medical Center!

Ray is a grandfather four times over — his daughter, Jan has 3 children and his son Jeff is a First Lt. in the U.S. Army at Fort Lewis, Washington, and has a 21-month-old son.

Ray likes baseball, golf, and all kinds of sports, but Barbara adds that their chief hobbies for the last two years have been gouty arthritis for Ray and asthma, arthritis, and ulcers for Barbara (who, by the way, is home now recovering from her operation).

SAVE YOUR BLOOD!

Nick and Monty have arranged for a Blood-mobile from the Red Cross to come to Chatsworth American Hall between 3 P.M. and 8 P.M. on November 27. Dr. Miner says that we will have to have at least 150 people to give blood. He suggests that each member should be responsible for at least five donors and we will be able to make this a big success for our Rotary Club and our community.

The individual donors may specify any organization or person that they wish their blood to be credited to. We have plenty of time to arrange for a big turn-out.

AROUND TOWN

No birthdays this week, but a Happy 19th Wedding Anniversary to Bob and Audrey Kinsman on the 18th! Evelyn Grunec had everyone from the BPW at her and Frel's home last Saturday. Clif and Susie arrived home in the early hours this morning and we expect to see him at our meeting next week. Quite some time ago we reported that Cornelia went fishing in a crawdad hole, but now Harold corrects us and says that it was June Lake! Rev. Jim has just finished the Vacation Bible School at the Lutheran Church, and we hear it was a big success. In a lighter vein, congratulations are in order to Bullet, Roy's tan Shepherd, and Caroltta, Len's white Samoyed, who were "married" some weeks back and became the proud parents of eight black off-springs last Wednesday. Anyone interested in the brand new breed — contact Bev — they're available! (Nick — as a community project, why not promote some free dog fool!)
