PRAYER from Rev. Jim Nessesheim

When tragedy has a personal "name tag" we suddenly realize how closely our lives are intertwined with one another. As a community of persons we share the loss that has come to those we love and care for. (St. Paul reminds us that when a part of the body experiences pain — the whole body suffers.)

Debbie Rogers knew the fullness and goodness of life. Our loss is magnified because we see the possibilities and potential that have been cut short. Our questions have no resolution except in the death of One who also suffered that we might have life.

May we remember in our prayers those who have experienced this separation, and brokenness of life and love, and together may we build up one another in our Common Hope — in Jesus Christ, Conqueror of death, Giver of Life — in whom Debbie also trusted.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Rev. Jim will present this week's program — an exciting venture in International Service. We will have a speaker from the World Brotherhood Exchange (the chairman of this organization is a Rotarian in Thousand Oaks).

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Don't think we'll ever get to see that film on "Auto Biography"! This time, the light of the projector went out!

Larry won the $5 and Clif won the second prize donated by Mert. A new third prize was brought by Bruce, donated by Nick through Hughes, won by Bruce, and then raffled to Larry for $4!!

Good to see our former member, Cliff Ahlstrom, at the meeting — a guest of Doug Palmer.

Mert gave us his flag from Sheridan, Wyoming, and noted that at their meeting the Rotarians there had a membership of 90 and 35 guests learning about Rotary.

Clif gave us 3 flags from Germany and told us a little about the Clubs where he made-up. Clif also attended a Zone meeting in our District the week before last, and with him were Mert Cook representing Community Service, Monty Miner for Club Service, and John McNamee for Vocational Service.

YOU ALL COME

Hear ye! Hear ye! The Annual Chatsworth Rotary Club Picnic will be held on September 20 at President Clif's. Larry Viole is taking charge of this annual outing for ourselves and our families, and the Rotary Anns will again provide us with a gastronomical feast.

AROUND TOWN

A Happy Birthday Wish to Harry Briggs on the 27th.

Our guest Editor for the next two weeks will be Mike Ragusin and whoever else he can dig up to help him. By the way, Mike, don't you know that it is easier to dig a hole in the back yard if you want a swimming pool than it is to try to fill up your living room! Our Club donated through Nick and Hughes Market to Rancho San Antonio, 101 pints of milk, 15 pounds of pancake flour, 10 pints of pancake syrup, 96 cans of frozen orange drink, and 28 cans of soup! Mike was the delivery boy. Your Editor is trying to get Tom to stock a new soft drink that's part ginger ale and part orange! Cornelia and Harold are looking for more crawdads up at June Lake.

MESSAGE FROM MERT

Dust off your ten-gallon hat and sombrero and get ready for the eatingest time of your life: A genuine old-fashioned pit bar-b-que. Let's get Mom, Pop, and all the kids primed for a community get-together at Chatsworth Park about the middle of October.

Let's all get behind this and raise enough money to run us the entire year. Mert will tell us more about this today.
