THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Polk our program chairman is back. Polk's been on vacation swimming, sunning himself and golfing down at San Clemente and up at Big Bear. Welcome back Polk.

Polk tells me the regular program he had scheduled for this week has been cancelled. He's asked Pres. Cliff to show us some slides and give us a talk about his recent trip to Germany. I am sure we can all look forward to a good program.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Our guest speaker was Mr. John M. Gordon Director of the Midnight Mission in Los Angeles. Mr. Gordon presented us with a fine thirty minute talk about the purpose and operation of the mission. The mission is the last resort and house of opportunity for homeless men and boys.

1st prize of $5.00 was won by none other than your guest editor Mike.

2nd prize donated by Hank went to visiting Rotarian Orv Miller from Canoga Park.

3rd and spec. prize again donated by Nick a box of chocolate covered insects (ants, caterpillars and grass hoppers) was won by Griff. If you ever visit with Griff and he offers you a piece of chocolate I'd advise you to read the ingredients on the label before eating it.

Nick's store was robbed the other day. They caught the culprit. No damage.

There's still some money out for the tickets for the chuck wagon lunch we put on a few weeks ago. Lets get it all in.

Ross wants all members that have earned perfect attendance pins to turn in the old ones so they can be given to other members as they need them.

Dues are not all in as yet Dean wants to remind those that have not paid up yet to get it to him.

Harold Allen, Al Brain, Fred Gruneck, Ray Hultman, Roger Kirkpatrick, George Lorbeer, Jim Nessheim, Roy Rogers, Ted Todd, George Vincent and Larry Viole we missed you all last week. Hope you all don't forget to make up.

Pres. Cliff wants us to keep Oct. 6th open. There will be an evening meeting at Morigi's. Governor Leon Edgar will make his official visit then. Lets all be there. Details will come later.

Happy birthday Harry. Thanks for the six dollars and ten cents. How old are you??

George and Charlie (Charlie that's George's wife) are still loafing in Vegas. If George isn't winning he may have to see Mr. Gordon to get a new start through the Midnight Mission.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

BY TOM CRAIG

Let us not forget it is not the discussion of different ideas or philosophies that is the mark of a captive society but rather the lack of discussion. The heat of debate rather than the heat of battle is the mark of a free society. — T. C.

The hottest places in hell are reserved for those who, in a time of great moral crisis, maintain their neutrality. — Dante.
