THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Today we will visit the New York World's Fair via slides presented by the Pacific Telephone Company. Polk says this is a good opportunity to see the Fair if you missed it in person!

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Our regular Wednesday meeting was dark in order that we could all attend that fantastic picnic. There were activities for everyone at the "Private Parchman Park", and first and foremost a great big thanks to Susie and Clif for lending us their home. Larry and his committee deserves special credit for the two days they spent setting up lights, courts, tables, etc. Cele and Ginny were the "food organizers", and did a spectacular job. And another thanks to George Lorbeer for showing the film, "Lady and the Tramp" to the children. Let's not forget to mention Mike who took charge of returning the chairs and tables.

It's hard to believe that the picnic can get better and better each year — but with the added help of so many Rotarians, how can it go wrong? We had swimming, volley ball, ping pong, a movie, horseshoes, the pinatas, a keg of too-foamy refreshments, and some good eating!

We were especially pleased to have as our guests District Governor Leon Edgar and his better-half, Van. Leon turned out to be a pretty good horseshoe player — almost as good as our champion thrower, George Lorbeer. It was also fun to see former Rotary Anns Hazel Hall and Edna Konigsfeld.

Fellowship has always been one of the necessities of every Rotary Club. No one can say that that is something the Chatsworth Rotary Club lacks! Here's to more picnics!!

VISA

President Clif, George Lorbeer, and Tom Craig attended the District Visa Program at the Sportsman's Lodge on September 19. We will have a report of the activities from George Lorbeer in our next Rotochat.

54th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

September 28 was the 54th Wedding Anniversary of Eve and Bob Boggis, a charter member of our Club. When they were married Bob was manager of a branch of the National Refining Co., and was later transferred to the head office in Cleveland where he specialized in the lubrication of coal mining machinery. He spent 18 years there before going into the metal stamping business, from which he then retired, and moved to Chatsworth in 1945 in order to be with his son William, now deceased.

Bob and Eve have two daughters both living here in Chatsworth. Bob and Eve were two of the seven Episcopal members who founded St. Martin's in the Fields in Canoga Park, now one of the largest parishes in the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Southern California. Bob was honored with a Life Membership in the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce.

Bob is a philatelist and numismatist. (To save you running to the dictionary of your Editor did — translated that means stamp collector and coin collector!) Bob lived in Washington D. C. until he was 21, and at that time attended the same school as the sons of President Theodore Roosevelt and traded stamps with them at the White House.

Bob also has a personal interest in American History. His father, Major James H. Boggis was Adjutant of Fuller's Ohio Brigade in the Civil War and is buried at Arlington National Cemetery. Bob was made an honorary member of this Brigade. Bob was the Secretary and Treasurer of the Western Reserve Society of the Sons of the American Revolution for 27 years at Cleveland, Ohio, and was Vice-President General of the National Society for one year.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

E. Montel Miner, M.D., Physician-Surgeon, General Practice, and head of Rotary Information in our Club celebrates his birthday on October 3.
