Vol. IX, No. 19

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Today we will have a talk and some slides about the West San Fernando Valley YMCA. Our club has always had an active interest in YMCA and we sponsor a Gray-Y troupe, "The Stingrays". The leaders of this troupe are our own Rotarians, Bob Kinsman, General Dentistry, and Larry Viole, Sprinkler Systems, Lawns. We're looking forward to seeing some of the activities of the YMCA.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

We will be dark on November 11 in order that we may all attend the Ninth Annual Business Conference at the Castaway Restaurant in Burbank. This is, and has been, one of the outstanding projects of this district and attempts to share Rotary by asking you to invite non-Rotarians to this all-day event. There will be three speakers in the morning, one major address at lunch, two additional speakers in the afternoon, with plenty of time left for you to pick up your wife so that you both can attend the evening meal when another major address will be offered.

Plan now so that you can tell Secretary Ross what your desired reservations will be for next week's conference. Remember the success of this Conference depends upon the individual Rotarian.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We had a timely and interesting film, "Cavalcade of American Presidents" presented by Art Aston, who represented San Fernando Valley Federal Savings and Loan Association.

First prize in the raffle was won by our General Insurance man, Griff McKeeby. Clarence Palmer bought three extra tickets at a special auction and not only won the second prize but the third prize also. Don't know who is responsible for the mix-up, but anyway the prizes were donated by Roger Kirkpatrick and Griff McKeeby.

Ross Dunton had a special guest, Dave Brown, who will get the clothes shipped to Equador for us at no cost. Sounds like a wonderful offer on the part of Ross and Mr. Brown.

BIRTHDAY BOYS

There are two birthdays of note coming up this week. On November 5, Roy Rogers, Cowboy and honorary member, will celebrate his birthday. And then congratulations are in order to Mert Cook, Insurance, Life, on November 8. These boys deserve another beautiful serenade (like Mike Ragusin had), directed by our Egg Man, Joe Trafficanda!

ROTARY ANNS

Rotary Ann Prexy Cele Ragusin invited all the wives to a special meeting at her home on November 18 at 8:00 p.m. More about this later, but Cele would like you gals to save this date.

MAGAZINE

Do you read it? The world is full of unusual Rotarians and each month you can read about one in The Rotarian magazine. The November issue tells you about a Rotarian sculptor whose works are the controversial talk of his town. Other headliners are "Building Tomorrow's Spaceport", and "Why Leave Earth?"

SCUTTLEBUT

Please notice that once again our Roster is completely up-to-date. Our next change will be approximately ten weeks from now so please let the Editor know if there are any mistakes.

Fred Gruneck is in Hawaii and will visit former Rotarian Cliff Ahlstrom. We understand that a couple of our music lovers, Roger Kirkpatrick and Harold Allen, enjoy the piano recitals at the Red Robin. Where have you been, Nick? We've missed you at the meetings lately. Ray Hultman is going back to the beer country, Milwaukee, to visit his mother on her birthday. Your Editor is still working on Tom Craig to "vote intelligently"!

GOVERNOR LEON SAYS...

... Some food for thought: The question for each man to settle is not what he would do if he had the means, time, influence and educational advantages, but what he will do with the things he has. Real worth comes to the man who has learned he is paid best for the things he has done for nothing.
