THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

We will have a program by fellow Rotarian Rev. James Nesheim who will give a traditional Thanksgiving Program. This should be another outstanding meeting as some of the best programs this club has had have been by our own Rotarians.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We had a full house to hear Past District Governor Dutch Smoot tell us about the Rotary Foundation. Dutch had all the facts and figures on the Rotary Foundation even down to the club level. P. D. G. Smoot didn't bring any of his "Morehouse rulers" this trip, but he did dig up a few jars of mustard for us. (By the way, who substituted a plain jar of mustard for the mustard and horseradish that your Editor was in possession of?) All kidding aside, a big thanks to Dutch for the wonderful program and the Morehouse Mustard—which is all good!

Fred Grunick won the five dollars at the weekly raffle and the second prize was won by a visiting Rotarian from Michigan.

Here's something we can be proud of: Ted Todd presented to our club a special trophy from the United Crusade for the highest percentage (194.1%) collection in communities where the goal was less than $1,000. Ted gave special thanks to all the Rotarians for their efforts in this drive, and we in turn thank Ted for a job more-than-well done!

President Cliff was appropriately fined for his new company car. Fred had just returned from Hawaii and relayed a special "hello" to the Club from former Rotarian Cliff Ahlstrom.

THAT EXTRA OUNCE OF EFFORT

Nominated for office in the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce this year are nine Rotarians and one Rotary Ann. We should be especially proud of these people who are showing an especially active interest in the welfare of their community. Elections take place December 8. On the Slate are: Bruce Pegg for President; Tom Craig for Vice President; Ted Todd for Treasurer; Roy Rogers and Dale Evans Rogers for Honorary Co-Mayors; and for Directors, Harold Allen, Harry Pierpont Briggs, Roger Kirkpatrick, John McNamee, and Mike Ragusin.

ROTARY ANNS

Cele Ragusin, now Past President of the Rotary Anns, was the gracious hostess for the final meeting last week of our women folk. Cele wishes particularly to thank the officers who were so helpful to her—Pat Kirkpatrick, Secretary; Millie Petruso, Treasurer; and Marie Trafficanda, Publicity and Public Relations.

The Rotary Anns are temporarily disbanding their monthly meetings, but will be ready, willing, and able to gather together to aid their Rotarian husbands when he need arises.

BLOODMOBILE

Last call for blood! Eat Hearty tomorrow, Thanksgiving, so that you will build up your red corpuscles to donate at the Bloodmobile at the Chatsworth American Legion Hall between 3:00 and 8:00. Let's have the best blood in Chatsworth!

CLUB CONSTITUTION

How many of you have brushed up on the Rotary Club Constitution? The section itself in the Manual of Procedure is not very long. We sometimes forget that there are rules and regulations to guide us and it would behoove us to freshen up on them.

It has come to the Editor's attention that there may be some of us who do not even have a copy of the Manual of Procedure. Secretary Ross will be glad to order one for you at just a nominal fee.

Lets all be better Rotarians by understanding fully just what Rotary is and why.
