THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

The man from Hughes Market and our Community Service Chairman, Rotarian Nick Petruso, will present a special speaker on Muscular Dystrophy. Program Chairman Polk Jennings is using the month of December for a program on each of the four avenues of service.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Dr. George Lorbeer and Mr. Tom Craig were in charge of the program. Ibrahim Saanah, who was born in the middle east and is now an instructor at San Fernando Valley State College, spoke to us of some of the problems facing the average individual in the Middle East. He stated that the Kings and Queens receive help from the United States but that the money doesn't get to the little people who are really in need of help. George mentioned the fact that Mr. Saanah had been to the same colleges as George had. This was a very interesting program from a person who was raised in the Middle East and spoke his own views on that part of the world.

Mike Hayes, Cabinet Shop, won the five dollars. A second prize of two dollars was won by Ray Hultman and Ray gave it back to the club.

SANTA CLAUS

Doug Palmer and Larry Viole are in charge of our Annual Christmas Party this year on Saturday evening, December 19, and tell us that our "old reliable" egg man, Joe Traffica, will again play the part of Santa Claus.

James Nessheim will be the master of ceremonies. Len Chenard is in charge of the dinner and the bar. Mert Cooke will take care of the tables and decorations. George Lorbeer will put on the program. Ted Todd will lead us in some community singing. And the dirtiest job of all falls to Mike Ragusin who is in charge of the clean-up!

We will exchange gag gifts again this year—bring one for a man and one for a woman. Since these are gag gifts (and just for fun—and we hope in good taste) they don't necessarily have to be bought. But if you feel you do need to buy one, please don't exceed $2.

Doug informs us that the social and fellowship hour will begin at 7:00 P. M. (it is hoped that any Rotarian who wishes to have a private cocktail party during the holiday season will choose any other day except the 9th to do so) and that dinner will be served promptly at 8:00 P. M.

For all Rotarians and their wives the party is free, except for the beverages. Anyone who desires to bring a guest may do just that, at $6 per person—and please inform Doug no later than December 16 so that arrangements may be made.

Doug may be bragging but he tells us that this will be the greatest Christmas party of all. See you at the Chatsworth Community Center Building at 7:00 P. M. sharp on December 19. This will be a regular meeting of our Rotary Club and we will be dark on December 23.

SCUTTLEBUT

At the last meeting Clarence was duly fined for his new vehicle and our Postmaster was also fined for his new Continental. But what happened to H. Pierpont? We understand that he has an electric go-cart—how do you figure how many cylinders that's worth? Len Chenard, Preserves, is working day and night filling Christmas gift orders for those delicious preserves, etc. Tom Craig has done an excellent job spearheading the project of putting up Christmas lights in our business community. Our four golfers, Dr. Kinsman, Larry Viole, Mike Hayes, and Doug Palmer went to the Rotary golf tournament at the Los Robles Country Club in Thousand Oaks; the tournament was sponsored by the Canoga Park Rotary Club. Presidet Clif and Treasurer Dean, together with Susie and Barbara, celebrated almost simultaneous wedding anniversaries, by dining at the Queens Arms. Who is the Rotarian who is pushing a substantial amount of other Rotarians to buy a color T. V. set? Gamblers in our midst are Harold Allen and Cornelia who just returned from a jaunt to Las Vegas. Were the dice favorable? Another recent traveler was Curly Alward who motored to Solvang in order to pick up President Clif's wrecked car! Another hard-working Rotarian, especially during the Christmas season, is Hank Crowley who is busy arranging floral gifts—how long has it been since you've sent your wife a bouquet?
