THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Mr. Tom Cleary, Director of Program Management for Litton Systems, Inc., will speak today about Litton Industries in the San Fernando Valley. Should be another good program.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Fellow Rotarian Mike Hayes gave a craft talk. It is always good to hear about one of our members and his business. Dr. George Lorbeer thanked the club for electing him to the job of President for the coming Rotary year. George stated that he can't run the club by himself and he needs the help of each and every member. Our newest member, Ray Skevington, told about his business and added that he was glad to be a part of Rotary.

The raffle tickets were sold by Dr. Kinsman, Len ran the raffle, and Dean won the five bucks. Lucky, Lucky, Lucky Gruneck won the second prize donated by Eob Boggis. We had as a guest, Rev. John Bollier, from Saint Stephens Presbyterian Church in Chatsworth. It was also good to see Tom Carney, a guest of Larry Viole.

Rev. Jim read a letter of thanks to our club from CARE for the donation of $140 that our club sent to them. President Clif reminded all of us of the VISA party on the 27th at Valley State College -- Harold Allen and Tom Craig have the tickets.

Nick Petruso has received the approval of the painting our club is donating to the library in memory of Debbie Rogers, from the library itself and Roy and Dale. The picture will be hung in the Chatsworth Library in the very near future.

DARK ON THE 31st

We have eighteen members signed up to go to Palm Springs for the District Conference on April 1, 2, 3, and 4; so the Board of Directors decided that we would be dark on the 31st of March. Because of this, now is a good time to say Happy Birthday to Doug Palmer, April 5, and Hank Crowley, April 6. We should fine them today as they may go broke in Palm Springs -- or maybe the club will lose their voices and won't be able to sing Happy Birthday!

GAY MINARDI SAYS...

that he read this article and thinks that it is worth repeating.

Later Than You Think

Without good health and peace of mind, fame and fortune mean little or nothing. Think about this instance.

In 1923, a group of the world's most successful financiers sat down at a business meeting. Present were: The president of the largest independent steel company; the president of the largest utility Company; the greatest wheat speculator; the president of the New York Stock Exchange; a member of the President's Cabinet; the greatest "bear" in Wall Street; the president of the Bank of International Settlements; the head of the world's greatest monopoly.

These men controlled more wealth than is in the United States Treasury. Newspapers and magazines printed their success stories and urged the youth of the nation to follow their examples.

Yet 25 years later, this is what had happened to them: The president of the largest independent steel company - Charles Schwab - lived on borrowed money for five years before he died bankrupt. The greatest wheat speculator - Arthur Cutten - dies abroad insolvent. The president of the New York Stock Exchange - Richard Whitney - was sentenced to Sing Sing prison for larceny. The member of the President's Cabinet - Albert Fall - was pardoned from prison so he could die at home. The greatest "bear" in Wall Street - Jesse Livermore - died a suicide. The head of the greatest monopoly - Ivar Kruegar - died a suicide.

All of these men learned well the art of money making, but not one of them learned how to live....Bill Kennedy

Gay concludes that we should be happy with what we do have - and live a little. His first suggestion to do this is to attend the District Conference in Palm Springs -- where we can learn a little and live a little!
